3 GIRL SCOUTS SELECTED FOR 1956 ROUNDUP

Three Adams County young women were selected Wednesday evening to represent the Adams County Girl Scouts at the National Senior Scout Roundup to be held in June, 1956, at Highland State Recreation Park, near Detroit, Mich. Approximately 4,000 girls from throughout the U.S. will attend the camp.

Named as the county's representatives were Marilyn Culp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Culp, 144 Hanover St.; Janet Sell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sell, 26 E. King St., Littlestown, and Louise Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings B. Collins, 75 E. Broadway.

Selection of the scouts was made by the camping committee of the Adams County Girl Scout Council, meeting in the Girl Scout office, Chambersburg St. All were chosen on merit. Each started as Brownies All hold first class or curved bar rank. All are entering their first year as Senior Scouts; each had previously been awarded a campership to attend an established camp under the yearly awards program of the council while they were Intermediate scouts; each had training last summer to qualify for the National Senior Scout roundup.

Name Two Alternates

Named as alternates, in event any of the three selected cannot attend the Detroit camp, were Evelyn Gaston, Gettysburg R. 2, and Mary Hewetson, Gettysburg R. 3.

The council has budgeted $100 expenses for each of the girls who attend the camp. The Council plans to pay one-third of that amount, hopes to interest three other organizations in sponsoring another third of the amount and the girls will be expected to pay one-third of their expenses.

The five girls, delegates and alternates, have been invited to attend an encampment to be held by the Washington, D. C. Council October 21, 22 and 23 at Brighton Woods to gain additional experience in camping.

To Display Handicraft

At Wednesday night's meeting the camping committee decided to ask each troop in the county to submit two articles of handicraft, made during the current year, for exhibition at the last session of the Girl Scout workshop in January. Several of those articles in turn will be selected for display at the National Roundup as exhibits from the local council.

Attending Wednesday's meeting were: Mrs. Carroll Arter, Mrs. Lavere Hamme, Mrs. Elton Kessel, Mrs. Robert Ditchburn, Miss Nancy Peters, Mrs. Ellen Hinkle, Mrs. T. Rhey Zeigler and Mrs. M. Hardy Nichols.

LUTHERANS TO HOLD PREACHING MISSION IN '56

Lutheran churches in Adams County will conduct a Preaching Mission next April, it was announced Wednesday night at Christ Lutheran Church, where 125 church councilmen from this area met for the annual Stewardship Workshop. Workshops are held each year in the Central Pennsylvania Synod to instruct pastors and laymen in important phases of the church's program.

The theme of Wednesday night's meeting was "Evangelism." Speakers included: Dr. Ralph Robinson, Secretary of the Central Pennsylvania Synod; Rev. Bruce Weaver, Jacobus, Pa., a member of the synod's Department of Evangelism; Rev. Francis B. Myers, newly appointed regional director for the United Lutheran Church's two year evangelism program; Re David Kammerer, Littlestown, President of the West Penn Conference.

Hold Panel-Forum

Rev. George Whetstone, Secretary of Inner Missions for the Central Pennsylvania Synod, moderated a panel-forum in which the panelists were: Revs. Weaver, Myers, and Lester Karschner and Miss Grace Smith, the latter two of Abbottstown. Luther Lady, Arendtsville, chairman of the West Penn Conference Stewardship Committee, presided over the meeting.

The Preaching Mission scheduled for next spring will be one of hundreds of similar missions to be conducted throughout the United Lutheran Church during the next two years. "Each participating congregation will invite a guest missioner who will conduct a series designed to strengthen the church's life and to extend its ministry in the community," it was announced.

Rev. Lester Karschner was named chairman of the committee to develop plans for the mission in this area.

TREATED FOR CUTS

James Houck, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Houck, Emmitsburg, was treated at the Warner Hospital for a laceration of the left upper eyelid received in a fall from a bicycle Wednesday evening.

William Sheely, 47, Emmitsburg R. 2, an employe of the Cambridge Rubber Co., Taneytown, was treated for lacerations of the right index and middle fingers sustained Wednesday.

Will Select Scout Camp Name In '56

Adams County's Girl Scouts will dedicate their new campsite near Fairfield Sunday, but the camp will not officially receive a name until the Girl Scout Rally at the local high school next spring.

The method of selecting a name was outlined Wednesday evening at a meeting of the camping committee of the county council held at the Girl Scout office here.

Each troop in the county is asked to submit a name for the camp by March 1. A committee headed by Mrs. George Sollberger will select three of those names. At the spring rally all troops will vote on the three names to select one for the camp.

News Collected At Random

Pennsylvania tied with Illinois for fifth place among the states attracting upper-income vacationers during the year ending September, 1954, according to the fifth annual Nationwide Travel Survey just published by the Research Department of The Curtis Publishing Company.

Vacationers in the $5,000-or-more income brackets named Pennsylvania as the destination of 5 3 per cent of all trips taken during the year. Illinois had the same percentage. The top four were New York, 11.9 per cent; California, 9.3; Florida, 6.1, and Michigan, 5.7. Others in the leading twelve were New Jersey, 4.9; Texas, 4.5; Ohio, 4; Massachusetts, 3.7; Wisconsin, 3.4, and Virginia, 3.3 per cent.

"Keep an eye on all small fry."

A Highway Safety official made that appeal to motorists today in the drive against traffic accidents to children, being sponsored this month throughout the Commonwealth by many safety councils, civic groups, service clubs, automobile clubs, and the National Safety Council.

"Children have a way of moving faster than the eye, and it's hard to keep up with them," he said. "Yet the only way we can hope to cut down on traffic casualties which claim so many of our children today is to keep a wary eye for sudden and unpredictable action of small fry."

* * *

"Many accidents happen in the twinkling of an eye. A child suddenly appears out of nowhere, there is a screech of brakes, and another casualty is added to the growing figures." In 1954 113 pedestrian fatalities occurred in Pennsylvania under the 11 year age group.

While parents, schools, police departments and the Pennsylvania State Police are working constantly for greater child safety on streets and highways there are many problems yet unsolved.

One of the major problems is coping with the impulses of children and training them in safety precautions from pre-school age through adolescence.

* * *

"The only way to tackle this problem of unpredictable behavior in children, especially in crossing streets, is to urge that motorists keep a sharp lookout and drive slowly through school and playground areas, especially during the peak hours of traffic in the morning and afternoon."

CAPTAINS FOR "CHEST" DRIVE ARE ANNOUNCED

"Captains" for the Community Chest drive, scheduled for September 30 through October 10, were announced today by John C. "Buck" Stahle, campaign chairman.

Selected by Mrs. Calvin D. (Barbara Wolff) Schadel as her co-chairman for the residential area, were Mrs. James E. Schwenk and Mrs. Donald G. Oyler.

They listed as area "captains" for nine districts into which the community has been divided for campaign purposes: Mrs. John C. W. Riddle, Mrs. Harold R. Street, Mrs. Earl E. Andrus, Mrs. Richard C. Newsham, Mrs. Glenn L. Harner, Miss Christina Angiorlis, Mrs. Harold Reuning, Mrs. G. Donald Wickerham and Mrs. Allen Gray.

The captains this week were selecting the solicitors who will conduct the campaign for funds on a door-to-door basis in their districts. Stahle said he has asked the chairmen and captains to secure sufficient canvassers so that no one person will have more than 10 to 15 homes on which to call.

Other "Captains"

David Blocher, business district chairman, has listed as his "captains," James S. Reaver, Robert C. Hartley, Robert B. Albright and William Lentz.

Serving as co-captains with Allen A. Larson in the solicitation of garages and service stations are Thomas Metz and David C. Bloser.

Selection of the canvassers will be completed prior to September 29 when the annual "kickoff" dinner will be held at the YWCA to outline the needs of Community Chest, provide solicitors with material for the drive and outline the manner in which the campaign is to be conducted.

KNOUSE FOODS ENTERTAINS 75 AT LUNCHEON

Seventy-five wives of U.S. Farm Credit Board delegates attending the annual convention at Hershey were luncheon guests Wednesday of Knouse Foods where they toured the Peach Glen plant enroute to the Gettysburg Battlefield. Delegates represent the Federal Farm Credit Board and 12 Farm Credit District Boards in the U.S. and Puerto Rico.

The convention, which convened Monday and will close Friday, included policy-making sessions on the extension of credit to farmers through Federal Land Banks, Production Credit Corporations, Federal Intermediate Credit Banks and Banks for Cooperatives. Reports were given on recent legislation affecting farm credit, and on the operating progress of institutions financed by the Farm Credit Administration.

The entire group will be guests today of Lehigh Valley Dairy Farmers Cooperative, Allentown, and will tour Lancaster County in the afternoon. They will be luncheon guests Friday of Southern States and Pennsylvania Farm Bureau Cooperatives at Hotel Hershey. Arrangements for the tours were made by P. K. Frederick, field representative, Federal Land Bank and Production Credit Corporation, Baltimore.

IS SUMMER OVER?

Ira Flickinger, Arendtsville, caretaker of the golf course at the Gettysburg Country Club, believes that summer is over. He sighted a flock of 25 wild geese over the Club Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock heading in the direction that all smart geese take in September.

WOMAN'S WORLD IS SUBJECT OF AAUW ADDRESS

Dr. M. Esther Bloss, professor of sociology at Gettysburg College, declared that there is still much confusion over the proper role of women and the meaning of the term "equality" between the sexes, in an address before the local unit of the American Association of University Women Wednesday evening at the YWCA.

Speaking at a covered dish supper, Miss Bloss described the change from the time when women were considered "inferior" to men to the present day when women have entered every business and professional field with 33 per cent of American women gainfully employed.

Describing the fight for an "equal rights" amendment to the constitution that would put male and female workers on the same basis, Miss Bloss held that not all women agree on "what they want, nor is there agreement on the meaning of equal. Does 'equal' mean that men and women shall do exactly the same work or merely that they have equal opportunity to do the work each wants to do? There is a question: Are certain kinds of work best suited to men and other kinds to women? And if women shall insist on carrying the argument to its logical conclusion and demand absolute equality, then are they willing to give up the privileges and courtesies that have tended to emphasize sex differences? Or do they want both?

Basis Of Judgment

"There is an anthropological principle that the ability of two races or peoples should not be judged by their achievements but by their capacity for achievement. Thus unless women secure and maintain for years equality of opportunity in the leading professions they cannot said to have proven their ability to hold their own with men."

Dr. Bloss marked the ambition of women, noting "the road to success already is crowded with women pushing their husbands before them."

The largest group of female workers is the more than five million women holding neary two-thirds of all the clerical positions in the country. One-ninth of a women workers are in the professiona or semi-professional lines of endeavor, she noted.

Female Occupations

Although women workers are concentrated in a relatively few occupations, "it is somewhat startling to glance down the list of occupations in which women have a share and see such examples as mining engineers, blacksmiths, railroad repair shopmen, stonemasons, plasterers and cement finishers, plumbers, roofers, blasters and powdermen, bootlacks, lumbermen and raftsmen, longshoremen, stevedores and garbage collectors. That list shows that the day of strictly male occupations is over.

"A small but significant group of women are managers, officias, proprietors. Women in these high level positions have increased rapidly since 1940 and show ability and effort and some lessening of prejudice. The only group that has shown a loss is the number engaged as household domestic workers and servants.

"Women are not as free as men in the choice of work, hours or wages. Some call this occupational discrimination but most call it protection. The lawmakers had protection in mind. These prohibitions are not irksome to most workers: most of the jobs they are forbidden are the kind they would not choose or even accept. But a few women would accept such jobs from necessity, special circumstances or adventure and they resent the protective hand of the law.

State Prohibitions

"More than half the states bar women from certain types of employment; 17 states forbid women to

3 COUNTIANS ACTIVE IN ARMY

Three Adams Countians, two of them with the same outfit, have been engaged in recent army activities. Pfc. Maurice J. Roche, husband of Mrs. Mary Roche, Abbottstown, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Roche, New Oxford R. 1, took part in recent battalion training tests with the 25th Infantry Division in Hawaii.

Pfc. Edgar G. Thomas, son of Guy F. Thomas, Gettysburg R. 4, also a member of the 25th division which is stationed at Schofield barracks, Oahu, also took part in the training activities. Both Roche and Thomas are riflemen with the 27th regiment. Both entered the army last December.

Pfc. John A. Gantz, son of Alvey C. Gantz, Aspers R. 1, is a tank loader in Co. A, 81st Reconnaissance Battalion, 1st Armored Division, Fort Hood, Texas. His unit recently received the commander's trophy and guidon streamers as Company of the Month with the 1st Armored group. Gantz is a 1954 graduate of Biglerville High School.

Funeral Rites Held For Mrs. Mary Wilt

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Blanche Wilt, 66, who died at her home in Taneytown on Tuesday, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, with Rev. Stanley Jennings officiating. Burial in the church cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Harry Doherty, Norville Shoemaker, George L. Harner, Norman Baumgardner, Carrol C. Hess, and Harold Mehring.

ANNUAL MEETING

BANKERS HEAR TALKS ON TAXES BY M'PHERSON

The "Fiscal Problems of the Commonwealth" were outlined by State Senator Donald P. McPherson Jr., to the Adams County Bankers Association, meeting Wednesday evening at Banker's Restaurant, Littlestown Rd.

Pennsylvania's budget for the two years, 1945 to 1947, was $531,900,000. The 1955-57 budget under consideration at the present time calls for possible expenditures of more than $1,200,000,000. The almost doubling of costs in 10 years was attributed by Senator McPherson to "increased costs all along the line."

The exact amount of the budget for the current biennium has not as yet been determined, nor has the tax program which will raise the funds for the budget been "ironed out." In the meantime the commonwealth is borrowing money against anticipated revenues to carry on its program.

Gives No Solution

Senator McPherson gave no solutions to the fiscal problems, confining his talk to presentation of the overall problem and various suggestions made concerning the budget and the tax program.

He outlined the suggestions of Republicans, Democrats and the Economy League and gave letails of what each proposed in connection with the budget and taxation.

He concluded by observing that "decision must be reached within a reasonable time, but as of the moment I can detect no trends nor predict when the budget and taxes will be adopted."

Theron Spangler, Littlestown, president of the bankers association, presided at the well attended dinner meeting.

PLAN SALE OF UNUSED TRACT IN CUMBERLAND

Cumberland Twp. is considering selling some of the land it owns at the intersection of the Biglerville and Table Rock Rds., according to a legal notice.

The supervisors of the township plan to meet Saturday, October 1, at 1 p.m. at the home of the secretary, Walter F. Cooley, Gettysburg R. 3, to make final decision on whether to adopt an ordinance that would declare a portion of the lands owned by the township as "unused, unnecessary and burdensome" and thus permit public sale of the area.

The ordinance calls for the tract to be divided into three lots. The one starting at the point of he intersection will be 82 perches, and the other two, adjoining that lot, will be approximately 54 perches each.

Possible Land Use

While the supervisors observed that they had no idea what use may be made of the land by potential purchasers, in case the ordinance is adopted October 1, as it is expected to be, they did note that the two smaller lots would be ideal for homesites and the larger might be a good spot for a service station.

In discussing sale of the land the supervisors said that the area is a portion of a larger tract bought by Cumberland Twp. about a year ago when it set up weighing scales at the intersection. The area to be sold is that not used for the scales or as approaches to the township building and scales.

Secretary Cooley, commenting on the installation of the scales, said that they have been "more than paying for themselves."

CONSTITUTION WEEK

A placard flanked by two American flags has been placed in the window of Philip R. Bikle's insurance office, 7 Baltimore St., by the Gettysburg Chapter, DAR, in observance of Constitution Week, September 17-23. Inscribed on the placard are the words, "The DAR is observing Constitution Week."

Hoodlums Break Into Two More Churches, St. James, Presbyterian; Pump Stolen

The vandals who broke into St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church and School early Wednesday morning also apparently entered St. James Lutheran Church, and the Presbyterian Church here the same night and may have stolen an electric pump at the Franklin Twp. consolidated school at Cashtown. They sole 200 three-cent stamps at St. James Church.

Entry by the burglars, who apparently obtained no money at any of the churches, at St. Francis Xavier was discovered early Wednesday morning. The entry into the other churches was discovered later, as was the loss of the pump at the Cashtown school.

Rev. Clyde R. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, discovered the entry there when he went to his study. The burglars, who apparently entered through a furnace room door that had been left open for refuse collectors, had broken the lock on the door of Rev. Mr. Brown's study. A metal bar was used there, pulling the lock out of its socket and splintering the side of the door and the door frame.

Desk Is Rifled

Rev. Mr. Brown found that his desk had been rifled, judging by a slightly jumbled condition of the contents of the drawers, but nothing was missing, and equipment in the room was undisturbed.

At St. James Lutheran Church police surmise that, since no evidence of entrance from outside could be found, the vandal, or vandals, entered the building while a group of women were preparing Tuesday night for a cake sale and hid inside the structure until after the janitor locked the door at about 11 o'clock Tuesday night.

Discovery of the ransacking of the church was not made until about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The janitor had been busy in the basement until that time and it was not until he reached the main church section that he found doors that had been broken by the vandals.

Looking For Money

Borough police said the intruders were apparently searching for money in the churches—and found none. The only damage any place was to doors. The burglars broke open all locked doors, apparently with the thought that money might be found in the locked rooms, police said. A sharp pointed steel bar was evidently used to pry open the doors and locked drawers, breaking the lock and splintering the wood in the process in most instances. At St. James Church there was damage to plaster near the door, caused, police believe, when leverage was applied to open the door.

The hoodlums pried open cabinets in the music room in which are stored music and choir robes. They also entered the church office on the second floor and broke open the desk and pried open a cupboard.

They broke open a door which led to one of the two organ chambers on the second floor and, after finding nothing there but the organ pipes, broke open another door and found that also led them into the organ chamber.

In their search for money, the vandals ignored cakes that had been set out by the women of the church in preparation for a bake sale Wednesday, police said.

Steal Pump At School

At Franklin Twp. Consolidated School the burglars went down into an excavation for a cafeteria and stole an electric pump, but apparently took nothing else of value. School officials said they were not sure just when the pump was taken, but its loss was discovered Wednesday when workmen planned to reconnect it to provide constant pressure for the drinking fountains at the school. The pump had been disconnected because of the work on the cafeteria.

Borough police Wednesday noon also had reported to them the theft of a battery from a new car parked on the Adams County Motors lot on York St. The battery was stolen, garage officials said, "sometime within the last week."

7 ATTORNEYS ARE NAMED TO PBA GROUPS

Seven members of the Adams County Bar Association have been named to committees and other posts in the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Paul A. Mueller, Lancaster, president of the PBA announced today.

Attorney Eugene R. Hartman will serve as regional director for the Third Zone. G. Thomas Miller, Dauphin County, formerly of Gettysburg, is a member of the executive committee from the Third Zone.

Judge W. C. Sheely is chairman of the Legal Education and Admissions Committee. Attorney Donald P. McPherson Jr. represents Adams and Fulton Counties on the legal biography and history committee.

Other Assignments

Judge Sheely is also a member of the nominating committee, legal education and bar admission committees, publications committee and the committee on resolutions.

Attorney Donald G. Oyler is a member of the Program Committee. Attorney Richard A. Brown is a member of the legal aid and legal services to the armed forces committee.

Attorney Franklin R. Bigham is a member of the joint medico-legal committee; Attorney Hartman of the uniform commercial code committee and Attorney Edward B. Bulleit, court records committee.

Father Begs Again For His Stolen Baby

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The father of a tiny infant stolen from a hospital crib pleaded again today for his son's safe return. Fears increased for the breast-fed baby's life.

Dr. Sanford Marcus' plea followed intensification of the search after the finding of clues in San Jose.

Rewards totaling $5,000 were offered for the return of 6½-pound Robert Marcus, unharmed. Robert is 6 days old, if alive.

The child's 29-year-old mother, near collapse after the loss of her baby only two days after birth, is not responding to treatment, said Dr. Marcus, 34.

Seek Buxom Blonde

"Return of the baby would make everything all right," he added.

Hundreds of police—more than a third of San Francisco's 1,700-man force—were assigned to the case. They are searching for a buxom blonde woman, 35 to 40 years old, whom hospital attendants saw near the nursery just before Robert was snatched.

At San Jose, 50 miles to the south, a blanket of a type used at Mt. Zion Hospital, from which Robert was taken, was found.

Mrs. Nina Magnoli found it in her yard, only four blocks from the home of Mrs. Henrietta Guerrero, who told police a buxom blonde with a baby asked her Tuesday to heat a bottle of milk.

Another possible clue was a half-filled bottle with a nipple, found in a clump of bushes in a San Jose parking lot by taxicab driver George Adams.

State Assemblyman To Address Friends

Adams County Assemblyman Francis Worley wil address a meeting at the Huntington Friends' Meeting House in Latimore Township, on October 2 at 3 p.m. He will describe his attendance at a meeting of the Jordans Friends' near Beaconsfield, England, the burial place of William Penn, where he spoke for a disarmament resolution presented to the Pennsylvania Assembly.

Former Postmaster General Frank Walker Charged With Mishandling Uncle's Estate

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Frank C. Walker, former postmaster general of the U.S., is charged with mismanagement and improper administration of the multimillion dollar estate of an uncle, M. E. Comerford, founder of an extensive theatrical chain.

The charges were made yesterday in a total of 319 exceptions to Walker's account as sole executor of his uncle's estate, and to an account by Walker and J. J. O'Leary, as trustees of the estate of M. B. Comerford, another nephew of the founder. O'Leary is general manager of the Comerford Theater interests.

The exceptions were filed in Lackawanna County Orphans Court by counsel for five children of M. B. Comerford.

Theater Chain Partners

Walker and the two Comerfords were partners in the theater chain. The elder Comerford died in 1939. M. B. Comerford was fatally injured in an auto accident in 1935 and his widow, Anna, died in 1945.

In filing their exceptions the heirs asked the court to "surcharge Frank C. Walker, now a resident of Dobbs Ferry, N.Y., of the amount of all losses shown to have resulted to this estate by reason of waste, mismanagement and maladministration." A spokesman for the family estimated the claim as upwards of several hundred thousand dollars.

$1,250,000 Estate

The first account of the estates, filed in the same court in February listed its value at $1,250,000. A revised account of the M. E. Comerford estate was filed last month by Walker and O'Leary.

Among the exceptions, it was charged that in providing previously unlisted credits totalling $2,436,360.68 to the estate of M. E. Comerford, which appear in the revised account, Walker, as executor "created a wholly fictitious credit in this amount by employing the device of altering and changing original book entries and records."

Made Unauthorized Loan

The heirs also claim Walker's accounts are "vague, inconsistent, contradictory and incomplete, and, as a mere collection of figures and statements, contain nothing on

Fifteen Are Killed In British Airplane Crash

TRIPOLI, Libya, (AP) — Fifteen persons were killed early today in the flaming wreckage of a British airliner which clipped treetops and crashed as it was landing at Tripoli's Idris Airport.

The British Overseas Airways Corp. announced in London that the dead included 13 passengers and 2 crew members, while 27 passengers and 5 of the crew escaped.

A BOAC spokesman declined to give the nationality of the passengers until next of kin were notified.

The plane, a four-engine Argonaut, left London yesterday afternoon for Lagos, Nigeria, in West Africa. Tripoli, the Libyan capital, is on the Mediterranean coast of North Africa.

Survivors were taken to the British military hospital in Tripoli.

The wreckage of the plane was spread over 100 yards. Ten hours after the crash it was still smoldering.

It was believed that some passengers fell out and that others jumped to the ground as the plane crashed.

BOAC Capt. R. D. E. Griffiths, who took over as pilot of the plane when it landed in Rome, was reported injured — but not seriously.

Hold Panel-Forum

Rev. George Whetstone, Secretary of Inner Missions for the Central Pennsylvania Synod, moderated a panel-forum in which the panelists were: Revs. Weaver, Myers, and Lester Karschner and Miss Grace Smith, the latter two of Abbottstown. Luther Lady, Arendtsville, chairman of the West Penn Conference Stewardship Committee, presided over the meeting.

The Preaching Mission scheduled for next spring will be one of hundreds of similar missions to be conducted throughout the United Lutheran Church during the next two years. "Each participating congregation will invite a guest missioner who will conduct a series designed to strengthen the church's life and to extend its ministry in the community," it was announced.

Rev. Lester Karschner was named chairman of the committee to develop plans for the mission in this area.

TREATED FOR CUTS

James Houck, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Houck, Emmitsburg, was treated at the Warner Hospital for a laceration of the left upper eyelid received in a fall from a bicycle Wednesday evening.

William Sheely, 47, Emmitsburg R. 2, an employe of the Cambridge Rubber Co., Taneytown, was treated for lacerations of the right index and middle fingers sustained Wednesday.

Will Select Scout Camp Name In '56

Adams County's Girl Scouts will dedicate their new campsite near Fairfield Sunday, but the camp will not officially receive a name until the Girl Scout Rally at the local high school next spring.

The method of selecting a name was outlined Wednesday evening at a meeting of the camping committee of the county council held at the Girl Scout office here.

Each troop in the county is asked to submit a name for the camp by March 1. A committee headed by Mrs. George Sollberger will select three of those names. At the spring rally all troops will vote on the three names to select one for the camp.

News Collected At Random

Pennsylvania tied with Illinois for fifth place among the states attracting upper-income vacationers during the year ending September, 1954, according to the fifth annual Nationwide Travel Survey just published by the Research Department of The Curtis Publishing Company.

Vacationers in the $5,000-or-more income brackets named Pennsylvania as the destination of 5.3 per cent of all trips taken during the year. Illinois had the same percentage. The top four were New York, 11.9 per cent; California, 9.3; Florida, 6.1, and Michigan, 5.7. Others in the leading twelve were New Jersey, 4.9; Texas, 4.5; Ohio, 4; Massachusetts, 3.7; Wisconsin, 3.4, and Virginia, 3.3 per cent.

"Keep an eye on all small fry." A Highway Safety official made that appeal to motorists today in the drive against traffic accidents to children, being sponsored this month throughout the Commonwealth by many safety councils, civic groups, service clubs, automobile clubs, and the National Safety Council.

"Children have a way of moving faster than the eye, and it's hard to keep up with them," he said. "Yet the only way we can hope to cut down on traffic casualties which claim so many of our children today is to keep a wary eye for sudden and unpredictable action of small fry."

"Many accidents happen in the twinkling of an eye. A child suddenly appears out of nowhere, there is a screech of brakes, and another casualty is added to the growing figures." In 1954 113 pedestrian fatalities occurred in Pennsylvania under the 11 year age group.

While parents, schools, police departments and the Pennsylvania State Police are working constantly for greater child safety on streets and highways there are many problems yet unsolved.

One of the major problems is coping with the impulses of children and training them in safety precautions from pre-school age through adolescence.

* * *

"The only way to tackle this problem of unpredictable behavior in children, especially in crossing streets, is to urge that motorists keep a sharp lookout and drive slowly through school and playground areas, especially during the peak hours of traffic in the morning and afternoon."

"While parents and teachers are doing their best to teach children how to protect them-

CAPTAINS FOR "CHEST" DRIVE ARE ANNOUNCED

"Captains" for the Community Chest drive, scheduled for September 30 through October 10, were announced today by John C. "Buck" Stahle, campaign chairman.

Selected by Mrs. Calvin D. (Barbara Wolff) Schadel as her co-chairman for the residential area, were Mrs. James E. Schwenk and Mrs. Donald G. Oyler.

They listed as area "captains" for nine districts into which the community has been divided for campaign purposes: Mrs. John C. W. Riddle, Mrs. Harold R. Street, Mrs. Earl E. Andrus, Mrs. Richard C. Newsham, Mrs. Glenn L. Harner, Miss Christina Angiorlis, Mrs. Harold Reuning, Mrs. G. Donald Wickerham and Mrs. Allen Gray.

The captains this week were selecting the solicitors who will conduct the campaign for funds on a door-to-door basis in their districts. Stahle said he has asked the chairmen and captains to secure sufficient canvassers so that no one person will have more than 10 to 15 homes on which to call.

Other "Captains"

David Blocher, business district chairman, has listed as his "captains," James S. Reaver, Robert C. Hartley, Robert B. Albright and William Lentz.

Serving as co-captains with Allen A. Larson in the solicitation of garages and service stations are Thomas Metz and David C. Bloser.

Selection of the canvassers will be completed prior to September 29 when the annual "kickoff" dinner will be held at the YWCA to outline the needs of Community Chest, provide solicitors with material for the drive and outline the manner in which the campaign is to be conducted.

KNOUSE FOODS ENTERTAINS 75 AT LUNCHEON

Seventy-five wives of U.S. Farm Credit Board delegates attending the annual convention at Hershey were luncheon guests Wednesday of Knouse Foods where they toured the Peach Glen plant enroute to the Gettysburg Battlefield. Delegates represent the Federal Farm Credit Board and 12 Farm Credit District Boards in the U.S. and Puerto Rico.

The convention, which convened Monday and will close Friday, included policy-making sessions on the extension of credit to farmers through Federal Land Banks, Production Credit Corporations, Federal Intermediate Credit Banks and Banks for Cooperatives. Reports were given on recent legislation affecting farm credit, and on the operating progress of institutions financed by the Farm Credit Administration.

The entire group will be guests today of Lehigh Valley Dairy Farmers Cooperative, Allentown, and will tour Lancaster County in the afternoon. They will be luncheon guests Friday of Southern States and Pennsylvania Farm Bureau Cooperatives at Hotel Hershey. Arrangements for the tours were made by P. K. Frederick, field representative, Federal Land Bank and Production Credit Corporation, Baltimore.

IS SUMMER OVER?

Ira Flickinger, Arendtsville, caretaker of the golf course at the Gettysburg Country Club, believes that summer is over. He sighted a flock of 25 wild geese over the Club Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock heading in the direction that all smart geese take in September.

WOMAN'S WORLD IS SUBJECT OF AAUW ADDRESS

Dr. M. Esther Bloss, professor of sociology at Gettysburg College, declared that there is still much confusion over the proper role of women and the meaning of the term "equality" between the sexes, in an address before the local unit of the American Association of University Women Wednesday evening at the YWCA.

Speaking at a covered dish supper, Miss Bloss described the change from the time when women were considered "inferior" to men to the present day when women have entered every business and professional field with 33 per cent of American women gainfully employed.

Describing the fight for an "equal rights" amendment to the constitution that would put male and female workers on the same basis, Miss Bloss held that not all women agree on "what they want, nor is there agreement on the meaning of equal. Does 'equal' mean that men and women shall do exactly the same work or merely that they have equal opportunity to do the work each wants to do? There is a question: Are certain kinds of work best suited to men and other kinds to women? And if women shall insist on carrying the argument to its logical conclusion and demand absolute equality, then are they willing to give up the privileges and courtesies that have tended to emphasize sex differences? Or do they want both?

Basis Of Judgment

"There is an anthropological principle that the ability of two races or peoples should not be judged by their achievements but by their capacity for achievement. Thus unless women secure and maintain for years equality of opportunity in the leading professions they cannot said to have proven their ability to hold their own with men."

Dr. Bloss marked the ambition of women, noting "the road to success already is crowded with women pushing their husbands before them."

The largest group of female workers is the more than five million women holding neary two-thirds of all the clerical positions in the country. One-ninth of a women workers are in the professiona or semi-professional lines of endeavor, she noted.

Female Occupations

Although women workers are concentrated in a relatively few occupations, "it is somewhat startling to glance down the list of occupations in which women have a share and see such examples as mining engineers, blacksmiths, railroad repair shopmen, stonemasons, plasterers and cement finishers, plumbers, roofers, blasters and powdermen, bootlacks, lumbermen and raftsmen, longshoremen, stevedores and garbage collectors. That list shows that the day of strictly male occupations is over.

"A small but significant group of women are managers, officias, proprietors. Women in these high level positions have increased rapidly since 1940 and show ability and effort and some lessening of prejudice. The only group that has shown a loss is the number engaged as household domestic workers and servants.

"Women are not as free as men in the choice of work, hours or wages. Some call this occupational discrimination but most call it protection. The lawmakers had protection in mind. These prohibitions are not irksome to most workers; most of the jobs they are forbidden are the kind they would not choose or even accept. But a few women would accept such jobs from necessity, special circumstances or adventure and they resent the protective hand of the law.

State Prohibitions

3 COUNTIANS ACTIVE IN ARMY

Three Adams Countians, two of them with the same outfit, have been engaged in recent army activities. Pfc. Maurice J. Roche, husband of Mrs. Mary Roche, Abbottstown, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Roche, New Oxford R. 1, took part in recent battalion training tests with the 25th Infantry Division in Hawaii.

Pfc. Edgar G. Thomas, son of Guy F. Thomas, Gettysburg R. 4, also a member of the 25th division which is stationed at Schofield barracks, Oahu, also took part in the training activities. Both Roche and Thomas are riflemen with the 27th regiment. Both entered the army last December.

Pfc. John A. Gantz, son of Alvey C. Gantz, Aspers R. 1, is a tank loader in Co. A, 81st Reconnaissance Battalion, 1st Armored Division, Fort Hood, Texas. His unit recently received the commander's trophy and guidon streamers as Company of the Month with the 1st Armored group. Gantz is a 1954 graduate of Biglerville High School.

Funeral Rites Held For Mrs. Mary Wilt

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Blanche Wilt, 66, who died at her home in Taneytown on Tuesday, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, with Rev. Stanley Jennings officiating. Burial in the church cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Harry Doherty, Norville Shoemaker, George L. Harner, Norman Baumgardner, Carrol C. Hess, and Harold Mehring.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Religious Society of Friends will be held at Warrington, near Wellsville, Pa., Sunday at 11 a.m. with the Conference at 2 p.m. Arthur Hummel, Washington, D. C., will speak on "The Voice of Friends in a Troubled World."

BANKERS HEAR TALKS ON TAXES BY M'PHERSON

The "Fiscal Problems of the Commonwealth" were outlined by State Senator Donald P. McPherson Jr., to the Adams County Bankers Association, meeting Wednesday evening at Banker's Restaurant, Littlestown Rd.

Pennsylvania's budget for the two years, 1945 to 1947, was $531,000,000. The 1955-57 budget under consideration at the present time calls for possible expenditures of more than $1,200,000,000. The almost doubling of costs in 10 years was attributed by Senator McPherson to "increased costs all along the line."

The exact amount of the budget for the current biennium has not as yet been determined, nor has the tax program which will raise the funds for the budget been "ironed out." In the meantime the commonwealth is borrowing money against anticipated revenues to carry on its program.

Gives No Solution

Senator McPherson gave no solutions to the fiscal problems, confining his talk to presentation of the overall problem and various suggestions made concerning the budget and the tax program.

He outlined the suggestions of Republicans, Democrats and the Economy League and gave letails of what each proposed in connection with the budget and taxation.

He concluded by observing that "decision must be reached within a reasonable time, but as of the moment I can detect no trends nor predict when the budget and taxes will be adopted."

Theron Spangler, Littlestown, president of the bankers association, presided at the well attended dinner meeting.

PLAN SALE OF UNUSED TRACT IN CUMBERLAND

Cumberland Twp. is considering selling some of the land it owns at the intersection of the Biglerville and Table Rock Rds., according to a legal notice.

The supervisors of the township plan to meet Saturday, October 1, at 1 p.m. at the home of the secretary, Walter F. Cooley, Gettysburg R. 3, to make final decision on whether to adopt an ordinance that would declare a portion of the lands owned by the township as "unused, unnecessary and burdensome" and thus permit public sale of the area.

The ordinance calls for the tract to be divided into three lots. The one starting at the point of he intersection will be 82 perches, and the other two, adjoining that lot, will be approximately 54 perches each.

Possible Land Use

While the supervisors observed that they had no idea what use may be made of the land by potential purchasers, in case the ordinance is adopted October 1, as it is expected to be, they did note that the two smaller lots would be ideal for homesites and the larger might be a good spot for a service station.

In discussing sale of the land the supervisors said that the area is a portion of a larger tract bought by Cumberland Twp. about a year ago when it set up weighing scales at the intersection. The area to be sold is that not used for the scales or as approaches to the township building and scales.

Secretary Cooley, commenting on the installation of the scales, said that they have been "more than paying for themselves."

CONSTITUTION WEEK

A placard flanked by two American flags has been placed in the window of Philip R. Bikle's insurance office, 7 Baltimore St., by the Gettysburg Chapter, DAR, in observance of Constitution Week, September 17-23. Inscribed on the placard are the words, "The DAR is observing Constitution Week."

Hoodlums Break Into Two More Churches, St. James, Presbyterian; Pump Stolen

The vandals who broke into St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church and School early Wednesday morning also apparently entered St. James Lutheran Church, and the Presbyterian Church here the same night and may have stolen an electric pump at the Franklin Twp. consolidated school at Cashtown. They sole 200 three-cent stamps at St. James Church.

Entry by the burglars, who apparently obtained no money at any of the churches, at St. Francis Xavier was discovered early Wednesday morning. The entry into the other churches was discovered later, as was the loss of the pump at the Cashtown school.

Rev. Clyde R. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, discovered the entry there when he went to his study. The burglars, who apparently entered through a furnace room door that had been left open for refuse collectors, had broken the lock on the door of Rev. Mr. Brown's study. A metal bar was used there, pulling the lock out of its socket and splintering the side of the door and the door frame.

Desk Is Rifled

Rev. Mr. Brown found that his desk had been rifled, judging by a slightly jumbled condition of the contents of the drawers, but nothing was missing, and equipment in the room was undisturbed.

At St. James Lutheran Church police surmise that, since no evidence of entrance from outside could be found, the vandal, or vandals, entered the building while a group of women were preparing Tuesday night for a cake sale and hid inside the structure until after the janitor locked the door at about 11 o'clock Tuesday night.

Discovery of the ransacking of the church was not made until about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The janitor had been busy in the basement until that time and it was not until he reached the main church section that he found doors that had been broken by the vandals.

Looking For Money

Borough police said the intruders were apparently searching for money in the churches—and found none. The only damage any place was to doors. The burglars broke open all locked doors, apparently with the thought that money might be found in the locked rooms, police said. A sharp pointed steel bar was evidently used to pry open the doors and locked drawers, breaking the lock and splintering the wood in the process in most instances. At St. James Church there was damage to plaster near the door, caused, police believe, when leverage was applied to open the door.

The hoodlums pried open cabinets in the music room in which are stored music and choir robes. They also entered the church office on the second floor and broke open the desk and pried open a cupboard.

They broke open a door which led to one of the two organ chambers on the second floor and, after finding nothing there but the organ pipes, broke open another door and found that also led them into the organ chamber.

In their search for money, the vandals ignored cakes that had been set out by the women of the church in preparation for a bake sale Wednesday, police said.

Steal Pump At School

At Franklin Twp. Consolidated School the burglars went down into an excavation for a cafeteria and stole an electric pump, but apparently took nothing else of value. School officials said they were not sure just when the pump was taken, but its loss was discovered Wednesday when workmen planned to reconnect it to provide constant pressure for the drinking fountains at the school. The pump had been disconnected because of the work on the cafeteria.

Borough police Wednesday noon also had reported to them the theft of a battery from a new car parked on the Adams County Motors lot on York St. The battery was stolen, garage officials said, "sometime within the last week."

7 ATTORNEYS ARE NAMED TO PBA GROUPS

Seven members of the Adams County Bar Association have been named to committees and other posts in the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Paul A. Mueller, Lancaster, president of the PBA announced today.

Attorney Eugene R. Hartman will serve as regional director for the Third Zone. G. Thomas Miller, Dauphin County, formerly of Gettysburg, is a member of the executive committee from the Third Zone.

Judge W. C. Sheely is chairman of the Legal Education and Admissions Committee. Attorney Donald P. McPherson Jr. represents Adams and Fulton Counties on the legal biography and history committee.

Other Assignments

Judge Sheely is also a member of the nominating committee, legal education and bar admission committees, publications committee and the committee on resolutions.

Attorney Donald G. Oyler is a member of the Program Committee. Attorney Richard A. Brown is a member of the legal aid and legal services to the armed forces committee.

Attorney Franklin R. Bigham is a member of the joint medico-legal committee; Attorney Hartman of the uniform commercial code committee and Attorney Edward B. Bulleit, court records committee.

Father Begs Again For His Stolen Baby

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The father of a tiny infant stolen from a hospital crib pleaded again today for his son's safe return. Fears increased for the breast-fed baby's life.

Dr. Sanford Marcus' plea followed intensification of the search after the finding of clues in San Jose.

Rewards totaling $5,000 were offered for the return of 6½-pound Robert Marcus, unharmed. Robert is 6 days old, if alive.

The child's 29-year-old mother, near collapse after the loss of her baby only two days after birth, is not responding to treatment, said Dr. Marcus, 34.

Seek Buxom Blonde

"Return of the baby would make everything all right," he added.

Hundreds of police—more than a third of San Francisco's 1,700-man force—were assigned to the case. They are searching for a buxom blonde woman, 35 to 40 years old, whom hospital attendants saw near the nursery just before Robert was snatched.

At San Jose, 50 miles to the south, a blanket of a type used at Mt. Zion Hospital, from which Robert was taken, was found.

Mrs. Nina Magnoli found it in her yard, only four blocks from the home of Mrs. Henrietta Guerrero, who told police a buxom blonde with a baby asked her Tuesday to heat a bottle of milk.

Another possible clue was a half-filled bottle with a nipple, found in a clump of bushes in a San Jose parking lot by taxicab driver George Adams.

State Assemblyman To Address Friends

Adams County Assemblyman Francis Worley wil address a meeting at the Huntington Friends' Meeting House in Latimore Township, on October 2 at 3 p.m. He will describe his attendance at a meeting of the Jordans Friends' near Beaconsfield, Engand, the burial place of William Penn, where he spoke for a disarmament resolution presented to the Pennsylvania Assembly.

Former Postmaster General Frank Walker Charged With Mishandling Uncle's Estate

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — Frank C. Walker, former postmaster general of the U.S., is charged with mismanagement and improper administration of the multimillion dollar estate of an uncle, M. E. Comerford, founder of an extensive theatrical chain.

The charges were made yesterday in a total of 319 exceptions to Walker's account as sole executor of his uncle's estate, and to an account by Walker and J. J. O'Leary, as trustees of the estate of M. B. Comerford, another nephew of the founder. O'Leary is general manager of the Comerford Theater interests.

The exceptions were filed in Lackawanna County Orphans Court by counsel for five children of M. B. Comerford.

Theater Chain Partners

Walker and the two Comerfords were partners in the theater chain. The elder Comerford died in 1939. M. B. Comerford was fatally injured in an auto accident in 1935 and his widow, Anna, died in 1945.

In filing their exceptions the heirs asked the court to "surcharge Frank C. Walker, now a resident of Dobbs Ferry, N.Y., of the amount of all losses shown to have resulted to this estate by reason of waste, mismanagement and maladministration." A spokesman for the family estimated the claim as upwards of several hundred thousand dollars.

$1,250,000 Estate

The first account of the estates, filed in the same court in February listed its value at $1,250,000. A revised account of the M. E. Comerford estate was filed last month by Walker and O'Leary.

Among the exceptions, it was charged that in providing previously unlisted credits totalling $2,436,360.68 to the estate of M. E. Comerford, which appear in the revised account, Walker, as executor "created a wholly fictitious credit in this amount by employing the device of altering and changing original book entries and records."

Made Unauthorized Loan

The heirs also claim Walker's accounts are "vague, inconsistent, contradictory and incomplete, and, as a mere collection of figures and statements, contain nothing on

Fifteen Are Killed In British Airplane Crash

TRIPOLI, Libya, (AP) — Fifteen persons were killed early today in the flaming wreckage of a British airliner which clipped treetops and crashed as it was landing at Tripoli's Idris Airport.

The British Overseas Airways Corp. announced in London that the dead included 13 passengers and 2 crew members, while 27 passengers and 5 of the crew escaped.

A BOAC spokesman declined to give the nationality of the passengers until next of kin were notified.

The plane, a four-engine Argonaut, left London yesterday afternoon for Lagos, Nigeria, in West Africa. Tripoli, the Libyan capital, is on the Mediterranean coast of North Africa.

Survivors were taken to the British military hospital in Tripoli.

The wreckage of the plane was spread over 100 yards. Ten hours after the crash it was still smoldering.

It was believed that some passengers fell out and that others jumped to the ground as the plane crashed.

BOAC Capt. R. D. E. Griffiths, who took over as pilot of the plane when it landed in Rome, was reported injured — but not seriously.

2 PARTIES MAY SPEND MILLIONS FOR PRESIDENCY

By DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic and Republican parties very likely will spend a whopping six million dollars between them to carry the 1956 presidential campaign arguments into millions of American homes by television.

Advance estimates indicate television will be the largest single item in the campaign budgets. Each party will spend about double the amount spent in 1952. The money will come from the treasuries of the national committees, state committees and allied citizen groups.

By law, the national committees may collect and spend only three millions each in financing the entire campaign. But each party can sidestep this limitation by having state organizations and citizens' groups pick up the check.

Seek TV Spots

The Republicans already are dickering with the national networks for favorable TV spots next fall, particularly in the last six weeks of the campaign. The best times are the evening hours.

The Democrats say they haven't yet begun negotiations with the networks, but they also will reserve time far in advance of the campaign stretch drive.

Party leaders in 1952 had little or no experience with television as a campaign medium and this lack of experience was expensive. In the heat of the campaign, critical times arise when party leaders consider it worth almost any price to get their story to the people quickly and dramatically. But it's a costly thing to buy TV time on short notice because it means paying a "pre-emption" fee to the producers who gave up the time—in addition to the regular network costs.

Had Emergencies

Some TV network sources have estimated that in 1952 the Republicans spent more than $250,000 in buying up expensive time on short notice. Such a moment came when Republicans rushed Richard Nixon (now the vice president) to the air waves to explain a campaign fund given to him by a group of private citizens.

The Democrats had their own emergencies but their extra costs weren't as heavy as those of the Republicans. And it is no secret that the Democrats must hoard their money a good deal more carefully than the Republicans.

Both parties face the problem of heavier costs for TV time. In 1952, a half hour on one network coast-to-coast cost about $32,000, according to one source at GOP national headquarters. But with more TV stations in the network, the cost next year will be just about double.

Will Name Highway For 28th Division

HARRISBURG (AP) — A plan to dedicate U.S. 322 as the 28th Division Highway in honor of Pennsylvania's National Guard carried full legislative approval today.

The House unanimously adopted the Senate-approved resolution yesterday calling on the state Highways Department to erect suitable markers along he route.

The highway extends from Chester in eastern Pennsylvania through Meadville in the northwestern part of the state to the Pennsylvania - Ohio border.

SEEK CHANGE IN DRAFT TO SIGN YOUNGER MEN

By W. JOYNES MACFARLAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government is considering a change in draft regulations aimed at getting younger men into uniform.

The proposed change is prompted by the rising average age of draftees — now up to about 23 — and is coupled with the administration's new military reserve program.

Officials said the proposed changes, designed to be more "lenient" with older draft-age men, are being circulated among interested agencies for review and comment. They said they did not expect early action.

At present, the practice is to draft from the top down — that is, to take the oldest men first in the eligible 18½-26 age group.

Men Are Too Old

However, a selective service official said that as things now stand, the average draftee will be about 25 when he finishes his two-year hitch and moves into the ready reserve. This is only a year under what this official said is the age at which most men reach their peak of military efficiency.

"We want younger men than the 25-year-olds going into that ready reserve," he continued. "We want men who can serve in the ready reserve several years before they reach 26."

Selective service officials said the average age of draftees was about 20 in late 1952 and 1953.

"What we are trying to do is to get younger men into the service," the official explained. "Already some local draft boards are looking at the older men among the registrants more leniently and proposed regulation changes are designed to allow the local boards to be more lenient with the older men.

"It is hoped that local boards will be more lenient in regard to the requirements for deferment on grounds of hardship and essentiality.

"We are trying especially to find a formula to help in the scientific field."

CHURCH PROGRAM

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—The Donegal Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., yesterday initiated a non-segregation program to cover its churches in Lancaster and York counties.

AIR POLLUTION DRIVES HELPED HARD COAL SALE

NEW YORK (AP)—Campaigns to curb air pollution have been credited with helping to bring about a recent improvement in the anthracite industry.

At the opening of an exhibit of coal-burning heating equipment yesterday, Everett J. Decker, chairman of the Eastern States Retail Solid Fuel Conference, stated:

"The public is demanding more regid air pollution controls, and when they get results, it should definitely benefit anthracite, since hard coal is the only inherently clean fuel that cannot create smoke or soot under any burning conditions.

"We have had many instances in New York State already where anthracite is being substituted for other fuels on the recommendation of local smoke abatement officials. This has undoubtedly been one factor responsible for the current improvement in the industry's sales picture and the amazing increase in sales of automatic anthracite equipment."

Sales Are Firm

The anthracite industry has report that after steadily declining since the Korean War, anthracite sales appear to be holding firm and equipment sales have shot up more than 40 per cent ahead of last year.

The equipment exhibit in Pennsylvania Station was set up in connection with National Anthracite Week.

Taking part in the opening ceremonies were James Cranwell, vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad; William Kurtz, president of Burns Brothers; Gen. Brice Disque of the Coal Consumers Protective Assn., and the 1955 anthracite queen, Miss Gayle Charney of West Wyoming, Pa.

The exhibit shows heating equipment for homes, apartment houses, schools and large buildings.

LOW PIKE BIDS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commision has received unofficial low bids totaling $2,617,100 for construction of its proposed new administration building at the Harrisburg east interchange.

The building will replace present leased quarters of the commission in downtown Harrisburg.

The low bidders: General construction, L. D. Building Co. of Latrobe, $1,794,000; plumbing, Riggs Distler and Co. of Philadelphia, $144,440; heating, Herre Brothers, Inc. of Harrisburg, $278,455; electrical, Howard P. Foley Co. of Philadelphia, $344,400.

GRANDMA TOPS $32,000 QUIZ

NEW YORK (AP)—Grandma Myrtle Power, the baseball sage from Dixie, has kept up her perfect batting average by hitting safely on the $32,000 question.

Drawing on her amazing diamond lore again last night, she identified six major league players who collected 3,000 or more hits in their careers.

Hal March, master of ceremonies on The $64,000 Question CBS television show, gave her Ty Cobb as one of the seven who made that mark and asked her to name the others.

Slowly but without missing a swing, she named them — Cap Anson, Tris Speaker, Honus Wagner, Eddie Collins, Napoleon Lajoie and Paul Waner.

Big Question Next

The 70-year-old baseball fan from Buford, Ga., who has been working as a housekeeper, can keep the $32,000 or try for the grand slam $64,000 question next Tuesday night. If she goes to bat and strikes out, she'll get a Cadillac for a crying towel.

When the master of ceremonies told her she had a week to make up her mind, she inquired with a smile: "Can I answer it now?"

March threw up his hands. "You almost blew a whole program," he told her.

It was the fourth appearance on the show for Mrs. Power, a baseball fan for 60 years.

Another baseball fan went to bat for the first time last night.

Patrick J. Keough, St. Louis, got to the $2,000 mark before time ran out. Keough, 62-year-old assistant plant manager for the St. Louis coke plant of the Great Lakes Carbon Corp., can go for the $4,000 question next Tuesday night.

PARDON BOARD CONSIDERS PLEA OF PIKE KILLER

HARRISBURG (AP)—Attorneys for the convicted "phantom slayer" of the Pennsylvania Turnpike today made a final plea to save his life on the grounds that "something (further evidence) will turn up."

A. C. Scales, Greensburg lawyer, told the state Pardons Board that "the death penalty is not in the best interests of society" in the case.

He pleaded with the board to commute the death sentence of John Wesley Wable, 26, Ohiopyle, Fayette County. Wable is due to die in Pennsylvania's electric chair next week unless the Pardons Board intervenes.

Opposes Plan

The Westmoreland County district attorney's office opposed Sales' plea.

"There is nothing in this case to indicate in any way the possibility of leniency," said Joseph Loughran, assistant district attorney who prosecuted the case.

"We cannot find one extenuating circumstance that demands giving Wable any type of mercy. Every possible lead has been run down."

The board, after the hearing, took the case under advisement.

Shot Sleepers

The Fayette County gunman was found guilty of shooting to death Harry F. Pitts while the latter slept in his truck parked along the toll road, July 25, 1953.

Along with the murder of the 39-year-old Bollin Green, Va., trucker, Wable also was charged with the gunshot slaying of another truck driver and the wounding of still another under almost identical circumstances.

Wable was taken into custody in New Mexico and charged with the two murders and the wounding of the other man, all of which he denied.

PIEDMONT LOOP TITLE CONTEST LISTED TONIGHT

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP)—The big showdown comes tonight in the Class B Piedmont League. Norport's Merrimacs and Lancaster's Red Roses collide in the deciding game of the playoff finals.

Norport tied the series at 2-2 last night by coming from behind to beat the Red Roses, 3-2.

With the game tied at 2-2, Tom Venditelli hit a single to drive in George Wehmeyer in the last on the ninth inning. Venditelli's blow, his fourth of the game, climaxed a pitching duel between Norport's Lorenzo Onate and Lancaster's Ray Steele.

Lancaster's two runs resulted from four doubles Bill Stuifbergen and Eric Mackenzie put two-baggrs back-to-back in the second for one run. Joe Pahr and Junior Reedy duplicated the feat in the fifth.

Wehmeyer, who scored all Norport runs, tripled in the third and scored on Venditelli's ingle. He walked in the fifth and was pushed around on singles by Venditelli and Johnny Russo.

SEMINARY GRAD PASSES AWAY

Rev. John S. Belt, 46, died at his home in Westminster this morning at 3 a.m. He had been in ill health for some time. A son of the late John D. Belt, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Effie Hess Belt, with whom he resided. His wife, Margaret Quay Belt, died about a month ago.

Rev. Belt was a graduate of Gettysburg Seminary in 1933 and was ordained in St. Mark's Lutheran year. In June 1933 he became assistant pastor at Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, Westminster. In 1935 he received a leave of absence to serve as a counsellor to the CC Camps, resigning his assistant pastorship in 1942. In 1943 he attended Harvard University chaplain's school and served as a chaplain until 1953 when he received an honorable discharge due to ill health.

Rev. Elwood E. Falkenstein, pastor of Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, will conduct the funeral services at the C. O. Fuss Funeral Home, Taneytown, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in the Lutheran Cemetery, Taneytown. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. It is requested that flowers be omitted.

Mrs. Kegel graduated in 1951 from Delone Catholic High School and from St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore, in June. Her husband, who graduated from Delone in 1950, has been stationed at Charleston, S. C., with the U.S. Navy for the past three years. The couple will reside in Baltimore.

Will Display 300 Old Cars In Hershey

Upwards of 300 old automobiles, many of them dating back to the turn of the century, will be on display at the annual Fall Meet of the Antique Automobile Club of America at Hershey Stadium on Saturday and Sunday, October 8 and 9.

Prizes in 19 separate classes will be awarded, plus awards to participants in a fashion show featuring old time motoring costumes. Admission will be free.

The Colorado River toad grows to be a foot long and can squirt poison a distance of 12 feet.

NEW SAFETY FEATURES ARE ON FORDS FOR 1956

Safety features offered for the first time by any automobile company, power equal to the Thunderbird, and lower body silhouettes are available in 1956 Ford cars which 6,800 Ford dealers place on display Friday.

The new Fords will be built in four series offering 18 body styles, two more than in 1955. They are available in 13 exterior colors, or 21 two-tone combinations.

A "Thunderbird Y-8" engine leads the power selections available for 1956. It is installed on Fairlane and Station Wagon models, and develops 202 horsepower for Fordomatic, or 200 hp for overdrive or standard transmission. Customline and Mainline Fords offer a Y-8 engine developing 176 hp for Fordomatic, or 173 hp for over drive or conventional drive. Also, the economical Ford six, increased to 137 hp, is available on all models with all transmission types.

Ford safety research, coupled with studies of medical groups, led to development of a "lifeguard design" in 1956 models.

New Door Latches

New door latches give added protection against the chance that doors may open under impact. They have been proved in full scale crash tests at Dearborn, Mich.

To keep the driver's chest from hitting the steering column in a crash, the new three-spoke Ford steering wheel has its center hub recessed 3⅛ inches below the wheel rim.

Rear view mirrors have a special backing designed to prevent shattering.

Front and rear seat mountings have been strengthened so they will resist greater impact.

In addition, Ford offers two optional safety devices. Seat belts, designed to withstand pull up to 4,000 pounds, will help to hold occupants inside cars, and to prevent forward motion. Foam plastic padding for instrument panels and sun visors will help to absorb impact if a person is accidentally thrown forward.

$4,000 Theft Case Under Advisement

The case of two Hanover super market employes charged with embezzlement of $4,000 by their employer in May was held under advisement upon request of the district attorney's office at a hearing Wednesday before Justice of the Peace George A. Lippy, Hanover.

Charges were filed by A. F. Sterner Jr., proprietor of Sterner's Grocery, Inc. Hanover, after two of his employes disappeared. In June the two employes surrendered to police and the hearing has been pending since then.

Representing the accused, Harold Bankert Jr., Hanover, and Mrs. Leona M. Hamm, New Oxford R. 1—were Attorneys Norman Petow, York, and Jesse Crabbs, Hanover, respectively.

The two defendants are free under $1,000 bail each.

Accepts Pastorate Of Paradise Church

Rev. George A. Clark, York, has accepted the pastorate of Paradise (Holtzschwamm) Union Church's Lutheran congregation.

That congregation and the Lutheran congregation of Shiloh Union Church on September 1 dissolved their relationship as Paradise Lutheran charge. Rev. Clark served as charge pastor since February, 1952.

The Lutheran congregation of Shiloh Church has not yet obtained a minister. The question of what to do with the parsonage in which Rev. and Mrs. Clark are residing is being studied by a committee composed of members of the two congregations.

David C. and Marie W. Bloom, Franklin Township, sold to Catherine Overington Byron, Hagerstown, for $11,000, a one-acre property on the northwest side of the road leading to St. Ignatius Loyola Church in Franklin Township.

STEELS, MOTORS UP

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels and motors carried the stock market higher today in early dealings.

They had lavish help from many other sections of the list including a long string of individual issues.

A great deal of the push in the market was provided by estimates of high earnings and more liberal dividends plus rumors of mergers and stock splits.

Prices were up between 1 and 3 points at the best. There were some losses running to around a point.

Argentina Will Install New President On Friday After Ousting Dictator

By SERGIO MACKAY

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Maj. Gen. Eduardo Lonardi's new Argentine government appealed today for the rebuilding of the revolt-divided nation through "peace and work . . . in the pious light of forgetfulness."

Lonardi, 59-year-old commander of the brief revolt which toppled Juan Peron after a decade of dictatorship, was scheduled to fly to Buenos Aires from his native Cordoba tomorrow to be installed formally as provisional president.

The installation originally had been set for today but an official announcement said "joyful celebrations" in Cordoba delayed Lonardi's departure.

The appeal for peace came from Cordoba's radio 'Voice of Liberty," which said, "It is better not to talk of the past, as our slogan is 'There are neither victors nor defeated.' "

"Insane Egotism"

Referring to ousted President Juan D. Peron, the broadcast lashed out at the "insane egotism of a man who did not control his ambition, and tried to throw down what was dearest to the Argentine people. . . "

The radio said the revolution was born in Cordoba, provincial capital 400 miles northwest of Buenos Aires, to "defend the constitution, the freedom of men, the freedom of the pres and the freedom of worship."

The peace agreement concluded yesterday provided for Lonardi and other rebel leaders to take over from the junta of pro-Peron generals which took control of the central government after Peron's resignation.

Peron On Gunboat

Peron was reported to be still aboard the Paraguayan gunboat in Buenos Aires harbor where he found refuge Tuesday. The new government did not indicate whether it would persist in previous rebel demands that he be surrendered or let him escape into exile.

The announcement that a peace agreement had been reached said the junta "has reached a complete accord with the command of the opposition and has accepted the points stipulated by its representatives." There was no mention of Peron's fate.

An officer of the gunboat told a reporter Peron "talks and even jokes with us, but he never says anything about the situation—except about not wanting anything more to do wih it."

Name Police Chief

The postponement of Lonardi's formal installation as president did not delay the work of setting up the new government. Brig. Gen. Leon Bengoa, one of the leaders in the uprising, was named federal police chief and reports aid he already had asumed his new duties.

Bengoa was arrested after the unsuccesful June 16 rebellion and released a few days ago when the anti-Peron forces finally emerged as winners.

The political turnover also brought the release of other Peron foes from jail.

Two federal judges ordered the release of all political prisoners they were holding for trial. The number of these was not announced.

BANK ROBBER FACING TRIAL

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Linwood R. White, 27, of Newark, N.J., was expected to face arraignment today on a federal charge of attempted bank robbery.

White, along with Philip G. Anthony, 43, and his wife, Henrietta, 42, are accused of trying to hold up the First National Bank of Ulster, Pa., on Sept. 12.

The Anthonys were arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Robert Miller yesterday and ordered to jail in lieu of $20,000 bail each. The couple will later be removed to Scranton, Pa., to await grand jury action.

Arrest Follows Alarm

New York state police picked up the threesome at a service station in Horseheads, N.Y., shortly after Pennsylvania authorities broadcast an alarm for their arrest.

Police said a gunman had attempted to hold up the Ulster bank but fled without any money after a woman teller set off a burglar alarm.

Flood Closes Erie Freight Repair Shop

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Erie Railroad's flood-damaged freight car repair shop at Dunmore, Pa., is out of existence for good.

The railroad said yesterday it decided not to rebuild the shop which has been idle since the blacksmith and machine shop were destroyed by a flood following Hurricane Diane Aug. 19.

Normally, about 250 men worked at Dunmore, and 75 of them were recalled Monday. Employes will be given an opportunity to transfer to a new shop when it is built next year at a main-line location still to be decided, M. G. McInnes, operating vice president, said.

which the court may base an adjudication."

Another exception alleges that Walker and O'Leary made unauthorized non-interest loans to companies, persons and estates which "were not in the best interests of the (Comerford) estates."

The heirs charged there was unauthorized borrowing of $1,511,796-53 listed in the accounts and asked proof of its validity. They said also that Walker's executor's fees, listed at $132,435.16, were excessive and should not be allowed because of "mismanagement and maladministration of the estate."

M. E. Comerford had vast real estate holdings. He started as a penny arcade operator and built a chain of motion picture theaters that extend through northeastern Pennsylvania, New York state and into New England.

Walker, treasurer of the Democratic National Committee in 1932, was appointed postmaster general by President Roosevelt. He succeeded James A. Farley in that post.

The children of M. B. and Anna D. Comerford, who filed the exceptions yesterday, are Thomas P., Michael B., and William M. Comerford; Margaret C. O'Hara; Joan C. Feeney, and Helen C. Egan, all of Scranton.

Accuses Reds Of Distorting Facts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rep. Joe Holt (R-Calif) said today a Soviet note of apology for a Russian officer's pistol waving during the congressman's recent visit to the U.S.S.R. distorted the facts of the incident.

Holt released a slightly paraphrased text of the Soviet note, plus a statement of his own and pictures that he took in a Moscow suburb.

He said he had received State Department permission to issue the Russian note. The State Department indicated yesterday it was willing to accept the Soviet apology, although not the Russian version of what happened.

Eighty attended the dinner meeting at which the president, Mrs. D. P. McPherson, presided. Mrs. S. M. Raffensperger was hostess. The meeting marked the start of the tenth year for the local organization and the keynote announced for the tenth year programs was "United Through Thinkisg and Doing."

Preliminary plans were announced for a series of bi-weekly radio programs over WGET beginning in October. The programs, of an educational and historical nature, will include book reviews, plays, talks and round-table discussions.

Other Activities Set

The next thrift sale will be held October 22, it was announced.

November 16 the group will hold a meeting at the SCA auditorium at which Miss Esther Doyle, arts program visitor for thhe Association of American Colleges and associate professor of English, Juniata College, will speak on "The Corn Is Green."

Cites Danger Of Debt, Taxes

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — Sen. Martin (R-Pa) said today that "too much public and private debt" and "some taxes (that) are almost at the level of confiscation" are among the dangers that confront America.

Martin, in a prepared address for a convocation at William and Mary College commemorating the 200th birth anniversary of Chief Justice John Marshall, said "we must keep each of the three levels of government in a sound fiscal position through balanced budgets, equitable taxation and honest service."

The senator, former governor of Pennsylvania, lauded the fights that Marshall, as fourth chief justice of the U.S Supreme Court, made to protect and preserve the Constitution.

"In this day and age when human freedom is being blotted out in large areas of the world, every American should acknowledge, in praise and gratitude, our debt to John Marshall," Martin said.

JAIL BOSS OF BROWNSHIRTS

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Guillermo Patricio Kelly, boss of the Nationalist Popular Alliance, the Peronist brownshirt organization, has been jailed, authoritative sources said today.

Kelly's fate had been unknown since before dawn yesterday when army tanks and machineguns blasted the alliance headquarters into a pile of burning rubble. An undetermined number of the strongarm organization were inside when the building collapsed.

It was reported unofficially the building was bombarded after an ultimatum was given to diehard alliance members to come out. During the previous night a number of alliance men were seen being hauled away in army trucks, but at daylight some were still peering from the headquarters windows.

When Kelly was arrested is unknown, but an authoritative informant said he had been taken to Villa Devoto Prison in the suburbs along with a large group of other alliance members.

Torquato Renews Insurance License

HARRISBURG (AP)—Secretary of Labor and Industry John R. Torquato has renewed his license to sell fire insurance after a 10-year lapse.

Torquato emphasized to a newsman that "I just wanted to have the license renewed. I definitely have no intention of selling insurance to anyone."

Francis R. Smith, state insurance commissioner, said Torquato was granted the license several weeks ago making him eligible to sell fire insurance for the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Co., Pittsburgh.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Some 158 communities, representing over six million Pennsylvanians, will extend Daylight Saving Time an additional month this year.

The state Chamber of Commerce said today that during the past month, 58 communities announced their intention to extend the deadline from Sept. 25 to Oct. 30.

Meanwhile, 14 communities have reported that they will return to Standard Time on the originally planned date.

Argentina Will Install New President On Friday After Ousting Dictator

By SERGIO MACKAY

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Maj. Gen. Eduardo Lonardi's new Argentine government appealed today for the rebuilding of the revolt-divided nation through "peace and work . . . in the pious light of forgetfulness."

Lonardi, 59-year-old commander of the brief revolt which toppled Juan Peron after a decade of dictatorship, was scheduled to fly to Buenos Aires from his native Cordoba tomorrow to be installed formally as provisional president.

The installation originally had been set for today but an official announcement said "joyful celebrations" in Cordoba delayed Lonardi's departure.

The appeal for peace came from Cordoba's radio "Voice of Liberty," which said, "It is better not to talk of the past, as our slogan is 'There are neither victors nor defeated.'"

"Insane Egotism"

Referring to ousted President Juan D. Peron, the broadcast lashed out at the "insane egotism of a man who did not control his ambition and tried to throw down what was dearest to the Argentine people. . . ."

The radio said the revolution was born in Cordoba, provincial capital 400 miles northwest of Buenos Aires, to "defend the constitution, the freedom of men, the freedom of the pres and the freedom of worship."

The peace agreement concluded yesterday provided for Lonardi and other rebel leaders to take over from the junta of pro-Peron generals which took control of the central government after Peron's resignation.

Peron On Gunboat

Peron was reported to be still aboard the Paraguayan gunboat in Buenos Aires harbor where he found refuge Tuesday. The new government did not indicate whether it would persist in previous rebel demands that he be surrendered or let him escape into exile.

The announcement that a peace agreement had been reached said the junta "has reached a complete accord with the command of the opposition and has accepted the points stipulated by its representatives." There was no mention of Peron's fate.

An officer of the gunboat told a reporter Peron "talks and even jokes with us, but he never says anything about the situation—except about not wanting anything more to do wih it."

Name Police Chief

The postponement of Lonardi's formal installation as president did not delay the work of setting up the new government. Brig. Gen. Leon Bengoa, one of the leaders in the uprising, was named federal police chief and reports aid he already had asumed his new duties.

Bengoa was arrested after the unsuccesful June 16 rebellion and released a few days ago when the anti-Peron forces finally emerged as winners.

The political turnover also brought the release of other Peron foes from jail.

Two federal judges ordered the release of all political prisoners they were holding for trial. The number of these was not announced.

"EASIER SAID"

When the mode of modern living . . . makes us journey round and round . . . and at almost every turning . . . problems beat us to the ground . . . we should try our best to travel . . . with the mighty flowing tide . . . for in that way we'll prosper . . . and attain a smoother ride . . . oftentimes the rate of progress . . . is extremely slow indeed . . . but if we stick we're sure to find . . . somehow we will succeed . . . just bear in mind the world is turning . . . faster than we know . . . with vicious circles everywhere . . . to keep us on the go . . . and worry only tends to make . . . the turmoil somewhat worse . . . and pushes us quite rapidly . . . toward the long black hearse . . . if followed, what I write will help . . . us find a peaceful sun . . . but I must here and now admit . . . it's easier said than done.

BANK ROBBER FACING TRIAL

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Linwood R. White, 27, of Newark, N.J., was expected to face arraignment today on a federal charge of attempted bank robbery.

White, along with Philip G. Anthony, 43, and his wife, Henrietta, 42, are accused of trying to hold up the First National Bank of Ulster, Pa., on Sept. 12.

The Anthonys were arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Robert Miller yesterday and ordered to jail in lieu of $20,000 bail each. The couple will later be removed to Scranton, Pa., to await grand jury action.

Arrest Follows Alarm

New York state police picked up the threesome at a service station in Horseheads, N.Y., shortly after Pennsylvania authorities broadcast an alarm for their arrest.

Police said a gunman had attempted to hold up the Ulster bank but fled without any money after a woman teller set off a burglar alarm.

Flood Closes Erie Freight Repair Shop

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Erie Railroad's flood-damaged freight car repair shop at Dunmore, Pa., is out of existence for good.

The railroad said yesterday it decided not to rebuild the shop which has been idle since the blacksmith and machine shop were destroyed by a flood following Hurricane Diane Aug. 19.

Normally, about 250 men worked at Dunmore, and 75 of them were recalled Monday. Employes wisll be given an opportunity to transfer to a new shop when it is built next year at a main-line location still to be decided, M. G. McInnes, operating vice president, said.

which the court may base an adjudication."

Another exception alleges that Walker and O'Leary made unauthorized non-interest loans to companies, persons and estates which "were not in the best interests of the (Comerford) estates."

The heirs charged there was unauthorized borrowing of $1,511,796.53 listed in the accounts and asked proof of its validity. They said also that Walker's executor's fees, listed at $132,435.16, were excessive and should not be allowed because of "mismanagement and maladministration of the estate."

M. E. Comerford had vast real estate holdings. He started as a penny arcade operator and built a chain of motion picture theaters that extend through northeastern Pennsylvania, New York state and into New England.

Walker, treasurer of the Democratic National Committee in 1932, was appointed postmaster general by President Roosevelt. He succeeded James A. Farley in that post.

The children of M. B. and Anna D. Comerford, who filed the exceptions yesterday, are Thomas P., Michael B., and William M. Comerford; Margaret C. O'Hara; Joan C. Feeney, and Helen C. Egan, all of Scranton.

Accuses Reds Of Distorting Facts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rep. Joe Holt (R-Calif) said today a Soviet note of apology for a Russian officer's pistol waving during the congressman's recent visit to the U.S.S.R. distorted the facts of the incident.

Holt released a slightly paraphrased text of the Soviet note, plus a statement of his own and pictures that he took in a Moscow suburb.

He said he had received State Department permission to issue the Russian note. The State Department indicated yesterday it was willing to accept the Soviet apology, although not the Russian version of what happened.

Cites Danger Of Debt, Taxes

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — Sen. Martin (R-Pa) said today that "too much public and private debt" and "some taxes (that) are almost at the level of confiscation" are among the dangers that confront America.

Martin, in a prepared address for a convocation at William and Mary College commemorating the 200th birth anniversary of Chief Justice John Marshall, said "we must keep each of the three levels of government in a sound fiscal position through balanced budgets, equitable taxation and honest service."

The senator, former governor of Pennsylvania, lauded the fights that Marshall, as fourth chief justice of the U.S. Supreme Court, made to protect and preserve the Constitution.

"In this day and age when human freedom is being blotted out in large areas of the world, every American should acknowledge, in praise and gratitude, our debt to John Marshall," Martin said.

JAIL BOSS OF BROWNSHIRTS

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Guillermo Patricio Kelly, boss of the Nationalist Popular Alliance, the Peronist brownshirt organization, has been jailed, authoritative sources said today.

Kelly's fate had been unknown since before dawn yesterday when army tanks and machineguns blasted the alliance headquarters into a pile of burning rubble. An undetermined number of the strongarm organization were inside when the building collapsed.

It was reported unofficially the building was bombarded after an ultimatum was given to diehard alliance members to come out. During the previous night a number of alliance men were seen being hauled away in army trucks, but at daylight some were still peering from the headquarters windows.

When Kelly was arrested is unknown, but an authoritative informant said he had been taken to Villa Devoto Prison in the suburbs along with a large group of other alliance members.

Torquato Renews Insurance License

HARRISBURG (AP)—Secretary of Labor and Industry John R. Torquato has renewed his license to sell fire insurance after a 10-year lapse.

Torquato emphasized to a newsman that "I just wanted to have the license renewed. I definitely have no intention of selling insurance to anyone."

Francis R. Smith, state insurance commissioner, said Torquato was granted the license several weeks ago making him eligible to sell fire insurance for the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Co., Pittsburgh.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Some 158 communities, representing over six million Pennsylvanians, will extend Daylight Saving Time an additional month this year.

The state Chamber of Commerce said today that during the past month, 58 communities announced their intention to extend the deadline from Sept. 25 to Oct. 30.

Meanwhile, 14 communities have reported that they will return to Standard Time on the originally planned date.

PARDON BOARD CONSIDERS PLEA OF PIKE KILLER

HARRISBURG (AP)—Attorneys for the convicted "phantom slayer" of the Pennsylvania Turnpike today made a final plea to save his life on the grounds that "something (further evidence) will turn up."

A. C. Scales, Greensburg lawyer, told the state Pardons Board that "the death penalty is not in the best interests of society" in the case.

He pleaded with the board to commute the death sentence of John Wesley Wable, 26, Ohiopyle, Fayette County. Wable is due to die in Pennsylvania's electric chair next week unless the Pardons Board intervenes.

Opposes Plan

The Westmoreland County district attorney's office opposed Sales' plea.

"There is nothing in this case to indicate in any way the possibility of leniency," said Joseph Loughran, assistant district attorney who prosecuted the case.

"We cannot find one extenuating circumstance that demands giving Wable any type of mercy. Every possible lead has been run down."

The board, after the hearing, took the case under advisement.

Shot Sleepers

The Fayette County gunman was found guilty of shooting to death Harry F. Pitts while the latter slept in his truck parked along the toll road, July 25, 1953.

Along with the murder of the 39-year-old Bollin Green, Va., trucker, Wable also was charged with the gunshot slaying of another truck driver and the wounding of still another under almost identical circumstances.

Wable was taken into custody in New Mexico and charged with the two murders and the wounding of the other man, all of which he denied.

PIEDMONT LOOP TITLE CONTEST LISTED TONIGHT

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP)—The big showdown comes tonight in the Class B Piedmont League. Norport's Merrimacs and Lancaster's Red Roses collide in the deciding game of the playoff finals.

Norport tied the series at 2-2 last night by coming from behind to beat the Red Roses, 3-2.

With the game tied at 2-2, Tom Venditelli hit a single to drive in George Wehmeyer in the last on the ninth inning. Venditelli's blow, his fourth of the game, climaxed a pitching duel between Norport's Lorenzo Onate and Lancaster's Ray Steele.

Lancaster's two runs resulted from four doubles Bill Stuifbergen and Eric Mackenzie put two-baggers back-to-back in the second for one run. Joe Pahr and Junior Reedy duplicated the feat in the fifth.

Wehmeyer, who scored all Norport runs, tripled in the third and scored on Venditelli's ingle. He walked in the fifth and was pushed around on singles by Venditelli and Johnny Russo.

SEMINARY GRAD PASSES AWAY

NEW SAFETY FEATURES ARE ON FORDS FOR 1956

Safety features offered for the first time by any automobile company, power equal to the Thunderbird, and lower body silhouettes are available in 1956 Ford cars which 6,800 Ford dealers place on display Friday.

The new Fords will be built in four series offering 18 body styles, two more than in 1955. They are available in 13 exterior colors, or 21 two-tone combinations.

A "Thunderbird Y-8" engine leads the power selections available for 1956. It is installed on Fairlane and Station Wagon models, and develops 202 horsepower for Fordomatic, or 200 hp for overdrive or standard transmission. Customline and Mainline Fords offer a Y-8 engine developing 176 hp for Fordomatic, or 173 hp for over drive or conventional drive. Also, the economical Ford six, increased to 137 hp, is available on all models with all transmission types.

Ford safety research, coupled with studies of medical groups, led to development of a "lifeguard design" in 1956 models.

New Door Latches

New door latches give added protection against the chance that doors may open under impact. They have been proved in full scale crash tests at Dearborn, Mich.

To keep the driver's chest from hitting the steering column in a crash, the new three-spoke Ford steering wheel has its center hub recessed 3½ inches below the wheel rim.

Rear view mirrors have a special backing designed to prevent shattering.

Front and rear seat mountings have been strengthened so they will resist greater impact.

In addition, Ford offers two optional safety devices. Seat belts, designed to withstand pull up to 4,000 pounds, will help to hold occupants inside cars, and to prevent forward motion. Foam plastic padding for instrument panels and sun visors will help to absorb impact if a person is accidentally thrown forward.

$4,000 Theft Case Under Advisement

The case of two Hanover super market employes charged with embezzlement of $4,000 by their employer in May was held under advisement upon request of the district attorney's office at a hearing Wednesday before Justice of the Peace George A. Lippy, Hanover.

Charges were filed by A. F. Sterner Jr., proprietor of Sterner's Grocery, Inc. Hanover, after two of his employes disappeared. In June the two employes surrendered to police and the hearing has been pending since then.

Representing the accused, Harold Bankert Jr., Hanover, and Mrs. Leona M. Hamm, New Oxford R. 1—were Attorneys Norman Petow, York, and Jesse Crabbs, Hanover, respectively.

The two defendants are free under $1,000 bail each.

Accepts Pastorate Of Paradise Church

Rev. George A. Clark, York, has accepted the pastorate of Paradise (Holtzschwamm) Union Church's Lutheran congregation.

That congregation and the Lutheran congregation of Shiloh Union Church on September 1 dissolved their relationship as Paradise Lutheran charge. Rev. Clark served as charge pastor since February, 1952.

The Lutheran congregation of Shiloh Church has not yet obtained a minister. The question of what to do with the parsonage in which Rev. and Mrs. Clark are residing is being studied by a committee composed of members of the two congregations.

Property Transfers

Carl T. and S. Kathryn Bemiller, Hanover, sold to Louis G. and Rita W. Foye, Conewago Township, for $11,000, a property in Conewago Township.

David C. and Marie W. Bloom, Franklin Township, sold to Catherine Overington Byron, Hagerstown, for $11,000, a one-acre property on the northwest side of the road leading to St. Ignatius Loyola Church in Franklin Township.

STEELS, MOTORS UP

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels and motors carried the stock market higher today in early dealings.

They had lavish help from many other sections of the list including a long string of individual issues.

A great deal of the push in the market was provided by estimates of high earnings and more liberal dividends plus rumors of mergers and stock splits.

Prices were up between 1 and 3 points at the best. There were some losses running to around a point.

MacArthur To Aid Filipinos: Washington, Sept. 19 (AP)—Evidencing this government's concern in the future independence of the Philippine Islands, President Roosevelt Wednesday detailed Gen. Douglas MacArthur as adviser on national defense to President-elect Manuel Quezon.

The present chief of staff of the United States Army accepted the post, it was learned, because of a personal conviction that the future security and independence of the Philippines is vital to American interests in the Pacific and to maintenance of peace in the Far East.

This government will withdraw completely from the Islands on July 4 ten years hence, leaving the Philippine republic a soverign nation. It was in preparation for that day that Quezon asked President Roosevelt to assign MacArthur to the task of organizing and training a Filipino army and planning and instituting a national defense establishment for the islands.

Today's Talk

IN EACH OTHER

Human nature is universal. We find in others the very same elements, traits, habits, aspirations, and spiritual urges as are ours as a gift from the Creator. We are not alone in this world, for all abo us are potential parts of all that we are. In others we view ourselves — indeed our other selves.

We ought to be happier than we are! Living too much to ourselves we lose wisdom that should be a guiding light to each one of us in our daily lives. We can even find ourselves in others. When we do, petty troubles perish and we begin to live by vision and faith.

Emerson says: "We owe many valuable observations to people who are not very acute or profound, and who say the thing without effort which we want and have long been hunting in vain." In each other there is a certain unity of thought in which each searches the other. Often we suddenly discover a mine of valuable "pay dirt" that is similar to the joy of the prospector who strikes a vein of glittering gold!

One of the outstanding acts of understanding is for us to confide in one another. Clearing up our thoughts and emptying our hearts. If nations would do this there would be such a drop of fear among people that it would seem like a new world — which, of course, it would be! Wars are fanned into flame by greed and misunderstanding.

When two young people "fall in love" they live, breathe and act in each other. Love makes them conscious of the beauty about them, and they give to each other rather than take. It's a new and wonderful experience. They see more good than evil in the world, and the meld their dreams. Their most unselfish qualities shine out. They plan for oneship. They tap possibilities and interchange them. They are guided by a light that originates in each other.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "For Love of Friends"

CARD OF THANKS

What can you do? What can you say
When wires and cards and letters bring
From friends both near and far away
The word that is most heartening?

I have today a treasure rare
Of card and telegram and note,
Supplying strength for every care,
For every ill an antidote.

All birthday greetings blithe and gay
Which while I live I shall recall,
Though "thank you" seems too trite to say,
My thanks I send to one and all.

U.S. WILLING TO NEGOTIATE TARIFF TRADE

WASHINGTON (AP) — American tariff setters have offered to bargain toward lower U.S. duties on any or all of 900 types of foreign goods in return for like concesions on U.S. products sent abroad.

The State Department yesterday listed the items — ranging from automobiles to Scotch whisky — which will be up for negotiation at an international conference next January.

The listed goods accounted for $1,772,000,000 worth, or about 17 per cent, of the total imports into this country in 1954.

The department kept secret what tariff slashes it will ask in exchange at the January conference of 25 non-Communist nations in Geneva. The meeting, fourth of its kind since World War II, looms as the most far-reaching in the easing of world trade barriers since the first conference in 1947.

Can Lower Rates

The administration has the power to lower U.S. tariffs rates in effect on Jan. 1, 1955, as much as 15 per cent — 5 per cent a year for three years — under the Reciprocal Trade Act extension passed by Congress after a hot fight this year.

State Department officials said tariffs would not necessarily be lowered on all the 900 items American producers, importers and other interested persons will be asked to give their views at government hearings beginning Oct 31, they said, and no concessions will be granted which would imperil US. industries or hurt production essential to defense.

Although the $10,000 bill is the largest in U. S. circulation, there are $100,000 gold certificates used for business between the Federal Reserve System and the Treasury Department.

Dulles Foresees End Of Cold War With Permanent Gain For All Nations From Summit Meet

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today declared the world may be entering a decade of peaceful change which will spell the end of the cold war

In a general policy declaration before the U. N. General Assembly he stated that the international atmosphere had improved substantially since the 1954 assembly session and that there was a good chance for constructive decisions during the coming months.

He expressed the belief that the situation was ripe for a solution of the German unification problem and that European security was now better than at any time in history.

Favorable Trend

The situation in the Far East, he said, also was following a "favorable trend" — thanks to the efforts of the U. N. and other governments and individuals to settle differences between Red China and the United States.

"The will of the world community may have operated to avert another war, the scope of which could not surely be limited," Dulles said.

He appealed to the Assembly to endorse President Eisenhower's proposal for an exchange of military blueprints between the United States and Russia and for aerial inspection on a mutual basis.

Basis For Advance

This, he said, would provide a basis for a solid advance toward the goal of world arms reduction.

Dulles spoke of the ten years of cold war conflict in which the world was beset by limited wars, subversion, arms races and inflexible attitudes.

"That phase may now be ending," he said.

"I believe that all four of the heads of government, who were at Geneva, wanted that result and that each contributed to it. In consequence, a new spirit does indeed prevail, with greater flexibility and less brittleness in international relations."

All Must Gain

He declined to say which country had gained most at Geneva, but declared that if the improved atmosphere is to be permanent all must gain.

"The summit meeting, if it is to be historic, rather than episodic," he said, "must usher in an era of peaceful change."

He said this era should be one in which governments would renounce the use of war and subversion, accept orderly evolution toward their goals and develop friendly economic intercourse among themselves.

Strive Together

"Let us strive together," he said, "that the next decade shall be known as the healing decade of true peace."

On specific issues, Dulles said:

U.N. Membership: It is a "grave wrong" to keep nations out of the world organization by use of the veto. Action should be taken now to admit all "peace loving" applicants.

Charter Review: "The United States believes that this session should approve, in principle, the convening of a charter review conference, and establish a preparatory commission to prepare and submit recommendations relating to the date, place, organization and procedures of the general review conference."

European Security

European Security: The Paris and London treaties on a rearmed sovereign Germany have created "an effective system of limitation, control and integration of armed forces, the like of which the world has never seen before. Never before have collective security and individual self-restraint been so resourcefully and so widely combined."

Austria: "It should be noted that the Austrian state treaty, bearing the Soviet Union's signature, contemplates support for Austria's admission to the United Nations."

German Reunification: "The present opportunity is so unusual and so full of constructive possibilities that it can be hoped that the forthcoming four-power foreign ministers' meeting will find a solid basis for the reunification of Germany within a framework of European security."

Other Areas

Soviet Satellites and International Communism: "If the spirit of Geneva is genuine and not spurious, if it is to be permanent and not fleeting, it will lead to liquidating abnormal extensions of national power, which crush the spirit of national independence, and to the ending of political offensives aimed at subverting free governments."

The Middle East: The United States is ready to participate in financial and security arrangements aimed at liquidating the Arab refugee problem and restoring harmony between Israel and the Arab nations.

Southeast Asia: The Southeast area collective defense treaty will "work powerfully to deter aggression."

China: "In the China area the situation is somewhat less ominous than it was. We hope that the 'Chinese People's Republic' will respond to the manifest will of the world community that armed forces should not be used to achieve national objectives."

CHARGE NEGLECT BY DEMOCRATS IN WATER CASE

MOUNT POCONO, Pa. (AP)—A Republican member of the House subcommittee studying a Hoover Commission report on water resources and power contended today the Democratic-controlled body is swerving from its task for political reasons.

"I am sure the Hoover Commission members would agree with me that the people of the Delaware Valley have enough trouble to solve for themselves without being subjected to this form of political demagoguery," declared Rep. Lipscomb (R-Calif).

The committee, headed by Rep. Jones (D-Ala), went into the second day of regional hearings on the Hoover Commission report. Hearings will be held by the committee in a number of cities across the nation within the next four months.

Not Relief Group

"I hope the people of this region don't misinterpret the purpose of this committee," Lipscomb said.

He added that the objectives of the group is to hear only testimony for or against features of the Hoover Commission report, not to provide flood relief.

Lipscomb said he agreed, "but not in such strong terms," with a telegram he received from Charles Edison, former governor of New Jersey and secretary of the Navy, who is a member of the Hoover task force group studying water resources.

Lipscomb quoted the telegram from Edison as saying the hearings are "an unfortunate attempt to blame the Hoover Commission for something it had nothing to do with and to capitalize upon the misfortune of residents of the Delaware River Valley."

Polio Peak Passes With 20,165 Cases

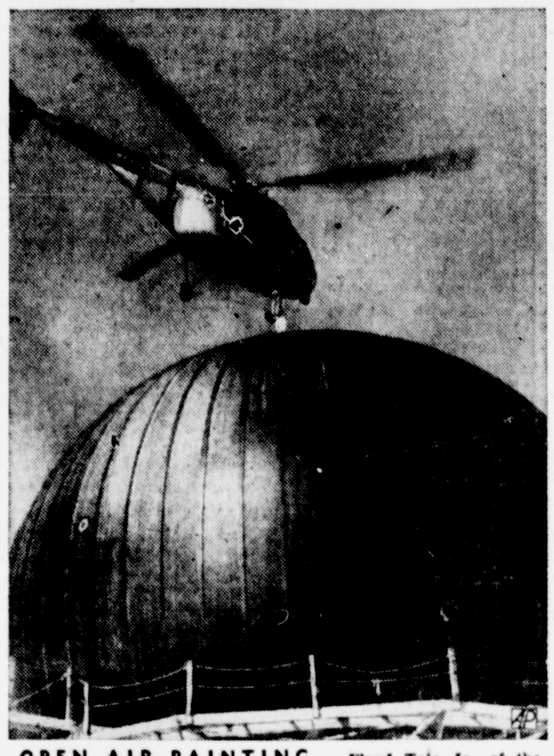

WASHINGTON (AP) — New polio cases reported last week to the Public Health Service totaled 1,950, continuing the slight weekly decrease first recorded early this month.

The total was 59 below the 2,009 new cases in the week ended Sept. 10 and was 724 under the 2,674 in the comparable 1954 week.

For 1955 thus far there have been 20,165 cases, compared with 23,998 up to this time a year ago.

A Health Service spokesman said indications now are that the year's total will not exceed 35,000 cases and may drop as low as 30,000. The 1954 total was 38,741.

The spokesman said new cases may drop off sharply beginning any week after Sept. 24. On the basis of statistical experience, the season of high incidence is coming to an end.

One Killed And 2 Hurt In Collision

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Two autos collided last night on Rt. 22 about two miles west of Ebensburg, killing John Kosik, 48, of Pittston, and injuring two other men.

The injured, taken to Johnstown Memorial Hospital, are Mike DeGretto, 45, of Ebensburg, an organizer for the United Mine Workers Union, and Leo Martin, 24, of Nanty Glo.

Hospital officials said DeGretto's condition was "not good." Martin was listed in fair condition.

DENY BOHLEN WAS "ANGRY"

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. officials ay "it just isn't true" that Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen accused German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of betraying an American secret.

Bohlen himself, vacationing in Cambridge, Mass., from his Moscow post, declined to comment on the news tory, carried yesterday in the Bonn newspaper Abendpost.

The paper quoted Adenauer as saying in an off-the-record talk with six American correspondents that Bohlen made the charge during a "temperamental" exchange with Herbert Blankenhorn, Boan's ambassador to NATO.

Called "Cockeyed"

The paper said the incident occurred during Adenauer's recent negotiations in Moscow and involved a Russian protest against the launching of American propaganda balloons from Germany The report said that Adenauer promised to take up the matter with American authorities and that Bohlen made he charge when he was approached about it

U. S. officials here, describing the story as "cockeyed," said Bohlen had suggested only that the Russians should be told the American government floats no propaganda balloons. All such balloons are sent into Russia by private organizations, he was quoted as telling Blankenhorn.

BROWNIES FORM PROJECT GROUPS

Members of Brownie Scout Troop 45 were divided into four work groups at their meeting Wednesday afternoon in the engine house. The divisions follow with each girl taking her turn as chairman each month: group one, Peggy Altoff, chairman, Sally Bankert, Jane Basehoar, Sally Busbey, Susanne Collins, Jacqueline Elder and Carole Flickinger; group two, Jean Hornberger, chairman, Joyce Hymiller, Rebecca Keagy, Linda Keefer, Judy Knight, Judy Koontz and Carolyn Kump; group three, Beverly Morehead, chairman, Barbara Muller, Peggy Myers, Loretta O'Donnell, Barbara Pittenturf, Marianne Rudisill and Linda Sentz; group four, Martha Ritter, chairman, Carole Stuler, Suzanne Stuller, Jacqueline Wagaman, Suzanne Weaver, Kathryn Weikert and Sharon Zumbrum.

The leaders will also alternate; the first month, Mrs. Edwin W. Elder Jr. will work with group one; Mrs. John Kump with group two; Mrs. Emerson F. Muller, group three, and Mary Ritter, troop aide, with group four. Projects for the groups were discussed.

In making plans for the season, Troop 45 scheduled a hike and cookout for Wednesday, meeting at the fire engine house at 3:45 p.m. In case of bad weather, the hike will be postponed to the folowing week, but there will be a regular meeting. Wednesday will also be the last day for members to take their registration fee and to order Girl Scout calendars.

Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano Clubs Archie Moore Into Submission In Ninth Round

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano's awesome, meat-grinder destruction of gallant, ancient Archie Moore in one of boxing's great battles may have been the invincible Brockton Blaster's last fight.

This was the one the indomitable Rock of Brockton wanted to win more than any other since he knocked the crown off Jersey Joe Walcott's brow three years ago in Philadelphia. And he won it in typical fashion with a relentless, bulldozing attack that smashed Archie's crumbling defenses with a knockout in 1:19 of the ninth round.

Now, with the light heavyweight king out of the way, there were no more worlds for boxing's Caesar to conquer and he mulled over retirement.

Pressure To Retire

"There is a lot of pressure from my family for me to retire," said the 31-year-old victor in his dressing room. "My mother wants me to quit. So does my dad, and my wife. It has been a pretty bad ordeal for them. I don't know what I should do."

Then Rocky added: "Personally, at this point, I don't feel I should retire."

Last night Rocky came off the floor like he did in the memorable first fight with Walcott, and ground down the crafty, cocky Moore with a relentless assault.

A smashing left hook to the jaw ended the 38-year-old master craftsman's fierce resistance, leaving him a collapsed heap in his own corner.

Floored Marciano

Out to become the first light heavyweight champion ever to ascend to the heavyweight throne, Archie gave it all he had in the beginning when he floored Marciano for a four count in the second round with a right to the jaw.

"I blacked out just a second," said Rocky. "But I snapped out of it."

For a while it looked as if the crowd of 61,574, which contributed to a handsome $948,117 gate in the Yankee Stadium, was going to see an astonishing upset.

Rocky blinked his eyes. It was only the second time in his career that he had been floored, and a worried expression appeared on his face, just as it did when Walcott decked him in their first fight.

Big Moment Faded

Archie went after the champ with another right o the jaw bu Rocky's head was clear now and he moved in close. Archie's big moment was gone even though he had Rocky bleeding from the nose and bruised under the left eye before the hectic round was over.

In the third Rocky established his pattern of victory. He started maneuvering the crafty Moore to he ropes and ripped him in close with both hands.

There was a slight cut over Rocky's left eye and blood dripped from his nose, but that only served to spur him on. Try as he would from then on, Archie couldn't get away from the rope traps Rocky set for him with his bulling drives.

Moore Is Dropped

The pressure was hot on Archie in the fourth and fifth rounds and in the sixth his aging legs betrayed him. Rocky's old "Suzy Q" overhand right shook him all over, buckling his knees. Another long right dropped him for a count of four. Rocky swarmed all over his stricken foe, smashing him down for eight.

For one minute of the seventh, Archie seemed to have dipped into his fountain of youth. He smashed over two rights to the jaw that momentarily stopped Rocky's furious drive and brought roars from the fans. But midway in the round, time and Rocky caught up with Archie again. By the end of the round, Archie's right eye was almost shut.

Saved By Bell

The 19 years of fighting caught up with the poised craftsman in the eighth. Rocky bulled Archie to the ropes and whaled away to head and body. A right to the jaw dropped the dead-tired Moore on the seat of his pants. The bell saved him as Referee Harry Kessler tolled seven.

Rocky was ready for the kill in the ninth and everyone in the park, including Moore, knew it had to happen. Rocky forced his game foe to the ropes and let loose with everything he had. Moore, his back to the ropes in his own corner, somehow found strength to fire two hard shots to Rocky's jaw. Then it happened. A short, perfectly timed left hook thudded against Archie's jaw and he crumpled in his corner, a soggy left mitten over one rope.

Ends Winning Streak

It was all over. Archie went the way he wanted to if he had to go — counted out. He said:

"When the doctor (Dr. Vincent Nardiello) asked me if I wanted to quit (after the eighth round) I said no champion should lose except in the center of the ring. I'm happy it ended the way it did. I wouldn't want to lose sitting in a corner."

The defeat ended Moore's winning streak of 21 and was the fifth time he had been kayoed in a career of 145 fights. It was Marciano's 49th victory in a perfect record that includes 43 knockouts.

Moore still had his 175-pound title and a $241,187 purse — the largest of his career. Rocky, too, earned his fattest check. He will receive $482,374.

The theater telecast earned an approximate $1,125,000, of which $350,000 went into the International Boxing Club coffers to be shared with the fighters. Radio added another $35,000.

Marciano, only a quarter pound heavier than Moore at 188¼, entered the ring as an almost prohibitive 4-1 favorite.

EXPECT 50,000 AT RACE TODAY

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—A crowd of 50,000 is expected to watch 17 of the country's sharpest three-year-old pacers run for $66,608.83 in purse money at today's harness race classic, the Little Brown Jug.

The mile race over the Delaware County fairgrounds half-mile track will be run in two divisions—nine horses in the first and eight in the second.

The first five in each division will come back for a third heat. If neither of the two previous winners place first, winners of all three heats will race to decide the 10th annual "Jug" winner.

The outcome of the deciding mile has 10 per cent of the purse riding with it. However, if a pacer wins in straight heats, his owner can pick up $24,645.24. The remainder will be spread among the first five horses in each of the three heats.

Leading contenders for "Jug" honors are Quick Chief, owned by Farmstead Acres, Brookville, N. Y., and Meadow Ace, owned by Newport Stock Farm Stable, South Plainfield, N. J. Both are co-favorites at 8-5.

Mays Crashes Into Wall Spearing Fly

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Mays, the New York Giants' flashy center fielder, had only a stiff back and a bruised hip today to show for his run-in with the bleacher wall at the Polo Grounds yesterday while attempting another of his sensational catches.

The 24-year-old star crashed the wall in full flight trying to stab a 450-foot triple by Pittsburgh's Dale Long.

Willie, who leads the majors with 50 home runs and who matched a major league record by hitting seven in six consecutive games Tuesday, was carried off the field. X-rays proved negative and Mays is expected to play tomorrow. The Giants are idle today.

Rocky Will Fight Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano, unmarked except for a red blemish under his left eye, said at noon today he would defend his title again next June against one of four opponents—Bob Baker, Nino Valdes, Hurricane Jackson, or Floyd Patterson.

In answer to a direct question, Marciano said he had no thought of retiring at the present time.

When he was asked to expand on his future plans his manager, Al Weill, interrupted to shout:

"He said No. That's definite. He's not retiring."

Weil also said he had a $500,000 offer to have Marciano meet the European champion, Franco Cavicchi, in Italy. He said the State Department was interested in having Rocky make a goodwill visit to Italy.

About the second round knockdown in which Rocky was on the floor for only the second time of his career, Marciano said:

"There wasn't too much feeling. I wasn't blacked out. I knew what I was doing. But I'm anxious to catch the movies to see how much different it was from what I remember."

Marciano told Moore, "You're better than I thought you would be. You put up a helluva fight." He said Archie replied:

"Man, you're all right. You're better than I thought."

Pros Wrestle At Madrid, Friday

A double main event is scheduled at the Madrid Palestra, Harrisburg, Friday night. Both matches scheduled are best two out of three falls, one-hour time limit. In one Hombre Montana tangles with Larry Hamilton and in the other Gino Garibaldi clashes with Al Kashey.

In a 30-minute semi-final Steve Gob, fresh from a victory over Al Getz, is set to tackle Tinker Todd.

The first 30-minute is between two youngsters, Buddy Gilbert, of New York, and Ernie Natale.

TEACHERS WANTED

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Soon after the State Chamber of Commerce pooh-poohed the West Virginia teacher shortage in a bulletin to members, Managing Director Harry A. Stansbury received a letter.

Wetzel County School Supt. S. R. Wood wrote facetiously asking if Stansbury could supply him with: a band instructor, an athletic coach, two librarians, a manual arts teacher, and a home economics teacher.

MARYLAND IS PICKED TO WIN OVER UCLANS

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (AP)—Know just exactly how Archie Moore feels. This pigskin picker got slapped around something terrible last week when only 17 of his 25 forecasts came out correctly. This could be even worse.

Maryland over UCLA—Coach Jim Tatum says neither he nor his Maryland squad have done anything right this week. That's a new tune for him. He must be brewing something new under his helmet. UCLA having difficulty finding a healthy right guard.

Georgia Tech over Florida—It will be a squeaker for Tech.

Notre Dame over Southern Methodist—The Irish have back only one line veteran from a year ago but quarterback Paul Hornung supposedly is a whiz.

Oklahoma over North Carolina—Coach Bud Wilkinson took his only returning starting backfielder and transformed him into a lineman—not because of a scarcity of line material but because he had so many good backs.

Michigan To Win

Michigan over Missouri—The Wolverines are solid all the way.

Illinois over California—Remember when these were two of the greatest? Neither has too much this year but the Illini look a little the stronger.

Pittsburgh over Syracuse—Dick Bowen is a very speedy Panther. He could make Pittsburgh the East's best.

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

FRIDAY NIGHT

Denver over Drake, Detroit over Toledo.

SATURDAY

East: Cornell over Lehigh, Yale over Connecticut, Baylor over Villanova, Virginia Tech over Pennsylvania, Penn State over Boston University, Navy over William & Mary, Holy Cross over Temple, Columbia over Brown, Colgate over Dartmouth, Army over Furman, Princeton over Rutgers.

Shippensburg Here Friday To Oppose Warrior Squad; Scotland Plays At Delone

A pair of teams eager to crash into the victory column for the first time this season will meet here Friday evening at 8 when the Gettysburg High Warriors engage the Shippensburg Greyhounds on the high school gridiron.

Coach Howard Shoemaker's Warriors are smarting after setbacks at the hands of Westminster and Delone while Shippensburg absorbed a 14-6 reverse at Biglerville in its only engagement.

It is no secret that Shippensburg entertains high hopes of handing the locals their third straight setback. Despite losing to Biglerville, the veteran Greyhound outfit made a fine comeback in the last half which was thwarted mostly due to repeated fumbles.

Clair Baughman, mentor of the Cumberland Countians, has 11 lettermen on his squad and most are scheduled to oppose the Warriors.

Shippensburg's opening lineup is expected to include VanScyoc and Wyrick, ends; Black and Weaver, tackles; Dunlap or Hanlin, and Mellott, guards; Gribble, center; Freeman, quarterback; Karper and Sowers, halfbacks, and Seilhamer, fullback.

Two Warriors Hurt

A pair of players who were injured in the Delone game may force Coach Shoemaker to alter his Warrior lineup.

Bob Bondurant, 184-pound tackle, and Russ Potter, 138, defensive end, will be only part-time performers and may be used solely on the defense.

Fred Naugle, 165, is listed to take over Bondurant's chores, while Merle Gorman, 155, a line backer on defense, will move up to replace Potter with Earl Little, 142, moving into the line-backing spot.

The remainder of the Warrior lineup will be intact with Joe Dearing at end; Dave Weaver tackle; Dale Biesecker and Roland Keller, guards; Don Smith or Bob Hess, center; Glenn Weishaar, Dick Stough, Forrest Stouck or Joe Tonsel, halfbacks, and Fred Furney, fullback.

Delone—Scotland

Another scholastic game is listed for Friday evening when Coach Alex Bell's Delone Squires will be host to Scotland at McSherrystown.

After suffering an opening game defeat at the hands of Hanover, Delone bounced back with a very impressive performance in jolting Gettysburg 26-13.

The Squires have been coming along steadily in all departments and appear headed for a good season. Particularly impressive have been the hard-charging linemen while Carroll Funk, quarterback, has been brilliant with his sleight-of-hand performance.

Scotland also has a 1-1 record. The Cadets romped to a 27-7 victory over Millersburg two weeks ago but then were surprised by Chambersburg last week 21-7.

The Franklin Countians' entire outfit possesses plenty of speed which provides a potent weapon on sweeps around end.

BOBBY DYKES BEATEN IN 10

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—George Johnson, a hard-hitting but unrated middleweight from Newark, N. J., beat out an easy 10-round decision over Miami's Bobby Dykes last night and may have earned a non-title bout with champion Bobo Olson.

Promoter Chris Dundee had promised an Olson match here Oct. 26 to the winner and Johnson, a 2-1 underdog, proved himself a better puncher than Dykes, the sixth-ranked middleweight.

After Dykes had eluded him for five rounds, Johnson dropped him for an eight count in the sixth with a right to the jaw, followed by a smashing left hook.

Another right by Johnson snaked through Dykes' defense in the tenth to drop him for a count of eight.

It was the 32nd victory in 38 fights for Johnson, who has flattened 22 of his foes. Dykes suffered the 13th loss in his career of 126 battles.

Dykes weighed 163,¼ Johnson 157.

Family Pressures Marciano To Retire From Ring Career

NEW YORK (AP)—Rocky Marciano is a fighter today with the world at his feet and nothing but worry in his heart.

"There is a lot of pressure from my family for me to retire," the heavyweight champion said concernedly. "My mother wants me to quit. So does my dad, and my wife.

"It has been a pretty bad ordeal for them. I don't know what I should do."

Then the swarthy son of a Brockton, Mass., shoemaker added:

"Personally, at this point I don't feel I should retire."

Marciano, his left eye gashed and blood spewing from a battered nose, picked himself off the canvas last night and hammered out a ninth round knockout over one of the toughest foes of a 49-fight career, 38-year-old Archie Moore.

A Great Champion

To 61,574 spectators at Yankee Stadium and to millions who saw and heard the fight by modern communication, the well-named "Rock" established himself as one of the game's greatest champions.

"No, no, he's not quitting," insisted Al Weill, peppery little manager of the champion.

"I think he is seriously considering it," said Al Colombo, boyhood pal and one of Rocky's closest associates.

"I've got some thinking to do on it," said Rocky himself.

A devoted husband and father of a three-year-old girl, Marciano has felt keenly about neglect of his wife and family forced on him by rigid training routines.

The champion parried the question and left it hanging in his dressing room after last night's fight.

"I'll Know Later"

"Later," he said. "I'll know later."

Marciano spoke blandly, almost inaudibly, of the stiff right hand punch by Moore which sent him slumping to the deck in the second round and of his own savage assault which felled the challenger four times before putting him away for good.

"Sure, it stung me," Rocky said of Moore's knockdown blow. "I was blacked out for a second. But I snapped out of it quickly. I was up at the count of four."

Speaking of the almost unbelievable punishment which Moore absorbed before he finally dropped a limp blob of flesh, early in the ninth round, the champion said:

"I hit him enough to knock out a dozen men. But he was clever. He rolled with the punches and knocked them off with his shoulders and arms."

"One Of Toughest"

Was Moore the toughest of all his 49 victims?

Marciano hedged. "One of the toughest," he said. "I'd have to include Jersey Joe Walcott (the only other man ever to floor him) and Ezzard Charles. But Moore certainly was the cleverest."

Moore, the gashed and battered victim, a man with a quip as quick as his left, startled interviewers with the gay comment:

"I enjoyed the fight myself. If the people did, then I'm happy."

Moore said he was beaten by Marciano's "consistency"—"That's what I mean, consistency," he added. Then he said he thought he might have won the fight had he been able to follow up that second round knockdown, "but I wasn't warmed up yet."

"I'd be happy to fight Rocky again," he said. Then, "Sure I'll keep on fighting heavyweights."

But right now? "Fishing," said Archie. "I've got to go fishing."

Yanks Can Win Pennant With One Victory Or One Cleveland Defeat; Giants Capture Third

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Cleveland's wonderful one-hoss Shay, falling apart all at once, was piled on the American League junk heap today with only a miracle capable of pushing it any farther along the pennant road.

And it will take a large, economy-size miracle to bar the New York Yankees, more than ever the old pros, from their sixth championship in seven years. With four games remaining, starting with a twin bill at Boston tomorrow, the Yanks need win but one more to clinch it.

They can drop all four and still win it should the Indians, now four games back on the "lost" side, drop even one of their three remaining games.

Yanks Win, Tribe Loses

The once-frantic pennant scramble practically came to a close last night as New York pounded Washington 7-3 and the Tribe took a 7-2 lashing from the Chicago White Sox — who became official also-rans 24 hours earlier.

At worst, New York can tie for the flag. They have won eight straight — their longest streak this season. Cleveland, two games ahead only a week ago, has lost five of six.

The 3½-game edge New York now holds is the biggest bulge any leader has had since July 15, when the Yanks led by four.

Three Aces Crumple

The Indians got their five safe blows off Jack Harshman last night. The Sox, meanwhile, shelled Bob Lemon who lost his second straight.

Manager Al Lopez has started his aces — Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia — in each of the last six games and they've crumpled along with the hitters.

An error by rookie shortstop Bill Harrell, injected by Lopez in a try for more hits, opened the way to a five-run eighth inning for the White Sox as Lemon lost his 10th. He's won 18.

New York packaged the Nats in three innings, tagging Chuck Stobbs for six hits — four of them for extra bases — and a 4-0 lead. Billy Martin iced it with an inside-the-park homer with two on off rookie Ted Abernathy in the fifth.

Bob Turley won his 17th, but walked eight and Rip Coleman and Bob Grim mopped up after Washington scored three in the seventh.

In the other AL games, Baltimore left the cellar behind by beating Boston 8-7 in 13 innings, and Detroit clubbed Kansas City 10-1 as Ray Boone and Harvey Kuenn homered in an eight-run first.

Giants Clinch Third

The New York Giants, world champs a year ago, clinched third in the National League standings by peppering Pittsburgh for the second straight day in a double-header 7-2 and 7-3. Ray Monzant gave three hits in the nightcap and Don Liddle allowed only four in the first game.

Gus Bell drove in eight runs, with a grand-slam homer and bases-loaded double, as Cincinnati walloped Milwaukee 13-5. Chicago beat St. Louis 7-5 with Randy Jackson hitting a bases-loaded triple in a four-run 13th inning.

Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano Clubs Archie Moore Into Submission In Ninth Round

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano's awesome, meat-grinder destruction of gallant, ancient Archie Moore in one of boxing's great battles may have been the invincible Brockton Blaster's last fight.

This was the one the indomitable Rock of Brockton wanted to win more than any other since he knocked the crown off Jersey Joe Walcott's brow three years ago in Philadelphia. And he won it in typical fashion with a relentless, bulldozing attack that smashed Archie's crumbling defenses with a knockout in 1:19 of the ninth round.

Now, with the light heavyweight king out of the way, there were no more worlds for boxing's Caesar to conquer and he mulled over retirement.

Pressure To Retire

"There is a lot of pressure from my family for me to retire," said the 31-year-old victor in his dressing room. "My mother wants me to quit. So does my dad, and my wife. It has been a pretty bad ordeal for them. I don't know what I should do."

Then Rocky added: "Personally, at this point, I don't feel I should retire."

Last night Rocky came off the floor like he did in the memorable first fight with Walcott, and ground down the crafty, cocky Moore with a relentless assault.

A smashing left hook to the jaw ended the 38-year-old master craftsman's fierce resistance, leaving him a collapsed heap in his own corner.

Floored Marciano

Out to become the first light heavyweight champion ever to ascend to the heavyweight throne, Archie gave it all he had in the beginning when he floored Marciano for a four count in the second round with a right to the jaw.

"I blacked out just a second," said Rocky. "But I snapped out of it."

For a while it looked as if the crowd of 61,574, which contributed to a handsome $948,117 gate in the Yankee Stadium, was going to see an astonishing upset.

Rocky blinked his eyes. It was only the second time in his career that he had been floored, and a worried expression appeared on his face, just as it did when Walcott decked him in their first fight.

Big Moment Faded

Archie went after the champ with another right o the jaw bu Rocky's head was clear now and he moved in close. Archie's big moment was gone even though he had Rocky bleeding from the nose and bruised under the left eye before the hectic round was over.

In the third Rocky established his pattern of victory. He started maneuvering the crafty Moore to he ropes and ripped him in close with both hands.

There was a slight cut over Rocky's left eye and blood dripped from his nose, but that only served to spur him on. Try as he would from then on, Archie couldn't get away from the rope traps Rocky set for him with his bulling drives.

Moore Is Dropped

The pressure was hot on Archie in the fourth and fifth rounds and in the sixth his aging legs betrayed him. Rocky's old "Suzy Q" overhand right shook him all over, buckling his knees. Another long right dropped him for a count of four. Rocky swarmed all over his stricken foe, smashing him down for eight.

For one minute of the seventh, Archie seemed to have dipped into his fountain of youth. He smashed over two rights to the jaw that momentarily stopped Rocky's furious drive and brought roars from the fans. But midway in the round, time and Rocky caught up with Archie again. By the end of the round, Archie's right eye was almost shut.

Saved By Bell

The 19 years of fighting caught up with the poised craftsman in the eighth. Rocky bulled Archie to the ropes and whaled away to head and body. A right to the jaw dropped the dead-tired Moore on the seat of his pants. The bell saved him as Referee Harry Kessler tolled seven.

Rocky was ready for the kill in the ninth and everyone in the park, including Moore, knew it had to happen. Rocky forced his game foe to the ropes and let loose with everything he had Moore, his back to the ropes in his own corner, somehow found strength to fire two hard shots to Rocky's jaw. Then it happened. A short, perfectly timed left hook thudded against Archie's jaw and he crumpled in his corner, a soggy left mitten over one rope.

Ends Winning Streak

It was all over. Archie went the way he wanted to if he had to go — counted out. He said:

"When the doctor (Dr. Vincent Nardiello) asked me if I wanted to quit (after the eighth round) I said no champion should lose except in the center of the ring. I'm happy it ended the way it did. I wouldn't want to lose sitting in a corner."

The defeat ended Moore's winning streak of 21 and was the fifth time he had been kayoed in a career of 145 fights. It was Marciano's 49th victory in a perfect record that includes 43 knockouts.

Moore still had his 175-pound title and a $241,187 purse — the largest of his career. Rocky, too, earned his fattest check. He will receive $482,374.

The theater telecast earned an approximate $1,125,000, of which $350,000 went into the International Boxing Club coffers to be shared with the fighters. Radio added another $35,000.

Marciano, only a quarter pound heavier than Moore at 188¼, entered the ring as an almost prohibitive 4-1 favorite.

EXPECT 50,000 AT RACE TODAY

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—A crowd of 50,000 is expected to watch 17 of the country's sharpest three-year-old pacers run for $66,608.83 in purse money at today's harness race classic, the Little Brown Jug.

The mile race over the Delaware County fairgrounds half-mile track will be run in two divisions—nine horses in the first and eight in the second.

The first five in each division will come back for a third heat. If neither of the two previous winners place first, winners of all three heats will race to decide the 10th annual "Jug" winner.

The outcome of the deciding mile has 10 per cent of the purse riding with it. However, if a pacer wins in straight heats, his owner can pick up $24,645.24. The remainder will be spread among the first five horses in each of the three heats.

Leading contenders for "Jug" honors are Quick Chief, owned by Farmstead Acres, Brookville, N. Y., and Meadow Ace, owned by Newport Stock Farm Stable, South Plainfield, N. J. Both are co-favorites at 8-5.

Mays Crashes Into Wall Spearing Fly

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Mays, the New York Giants' flashy center fielder, had only a stiff back and a bruised hip today to show for his run-in with the bleacher wall at the Polo Grounds yesterday while attempting another of his sensational catches.

The 24-year-old star crashed the wall in full flight trying to stab a 450-foot triple by Pittsburgh's Dale Long.

Willie, who leads the majors with 50 home runs and who matched a major league record by hitting seven in six consecutive games Tuesday, was carried off the field. X-rays proved negative and Mays is expected to play tomorrow. The Giants are idle today.

Family Pressures Marciano To Retire From Ring Career

NEW YORK (AP)—Rocky Marciano is a fighter today with the world at his feet and nothing but worry in his heart.

"There is a lot of pressure from my family for me to retire," the heavyweight champion said concernedly. "My mother wants me to quit. So does my dad, and my wife.

"It has been a pretty bad ordeal for them. I don't know what I should do."

Then the swarthy son of a Brockton, Mass., shoemaker added:

"Personally, at this point I don't feel I should retire."

Marciano, his left eye gashed and blood spewing from a battered nose, picked himself off the canvas last night and hammered out a ninth round knockout over one of the toughest foes of a 49-fight career, 38-year-old Archie Moore.

A Great Champion

To 61,574 spectators at Yankee Stadium and to millions who saw and heard the fight by modern communication, the well-named "Rock" established himself as one of the game's greatest champions.

"No, no, he's not quitting," insisted Al Weill, peppery little manager of the champion.

"I think he is seriously considering it," said Al Colombo, boyhood pal and one of Rocky's closest associates.

"I've got some thinking to do on it," said Rocky himself.

A devoted husband and father of a three-year-old girl, Marciano has felt keenly about neglect of his wife and family forced on him by rigid training routines.

The champion parried the question and left it hanging in his dressing room after last night's fight.

"I'll Know Later"

"Later," he said. "I'll know later."

Marciano spoke blandly, almost inaudibly, of the stiff right hand punch by Moore which sent him slumping to the deck in the second round and of his own savage assault which felled the challenger four times before putting him away for good.

"Sure, it stung me," Rocky said of Moore's knockdown blow. "I was blacked out for a second. But I snapped out of it quickly. I was up at the count of four."

Speaking of the almost unbelievable punishment which Moore absorbed before he finally dropped a limp blob of flesh, early in the ninth round, the champion said:

"I hit him enough to knock out a dozen men. But he was clever. He rolled with the punches and knocked them off with his shoulders and arms."

"One Of Toughest"

Was Moore the toughest of all his 49 victims?

Marciano hedged. "One of the toughest," he said. "I'd have to include Jersey Joe Walcott (the only other man ever to floor him) and Ezzard Charles. But Moore certainly was the cleverest."

Moore, the gashed and battered victim, a man with a quip as quick as his left, startled interviewers with the gay comment:

"I enjoyed the fight myself. If the people did, then I'm happy."

Moore said he was beaten by Marciano's "consistency"—"That's what I mean, consistency," he added. Then he said he thought he might have won the fight had he been able to follow up that second round knockdown, "but I wasn't warmed up yet."

"I'd be happy to fight Rocky again," he said. Then, "Sure I'll keep on fighting heavyweights."

But right now? "Fishing," said Archie. "I've got to go fishing."

Rocky Will Fight Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano, unmarked except for a red blemish under his left eye, said at noon today he would defend his title again next June against one of four opponents—Bob Baker, Nino Valdes, Hurricane Jackson, or Floyd Patterson.

In answer to a direct question, Marciano said he had no thought of retiring at the present time.

When he was asked to expand on his future plans his manager, Al Weill, interrupted to shout:

"He said No. That's definite. He's not retiring."

Weil also said he had a $500,000 offer to have Marciano meet the European champion, Franco Cavicchi, in Italy. He said the State Department was interested in having Rocky make a goodwill visit to Italy.

About the second round knockdown in which Rocky was on the floor for only the second time of his career, Marciano said:

"There wasn't too much feeling. I wasn't blacked out, I knew what I was doing. But I'm anxious to catch the movies to see how much different it was from what I remember."

Marciano told Moore, "You're better than I thought you would be. You put up a helluva fight." He said Archie replied:

"Man, you're all right. You're better than I thought."

Pros Wrestle At Madrid, Friday

A double main event is scheduled at the Madrid Palestra, Harrisburg, Friday night. Both matches scheduled are best two out of three falls, one-hour time limit. In one Hombre Montana tangles with Larry Hamilton and in the other Gino Garibaldi clashes with Al Kashey.

In a 30-minute semi-final Steve Gob, fresh from a victory over Al Getz, is set to tackle Tinker Todd.

The first 30-minute is between two youngsters, Buddy Gilbert, of New York, and Ernie Natale.

TEACHERS WANTED

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Soon after the State Chamber of Commerce pooh-poohed the West Virginia teacher shortage in a bulletin to members, Managing Director Harry A. Stansbury received a letter.

Wetzel County School Supt. S. R. Wood wrote facetiously asking if Stansbury could supply him with: a band instructor, an athletic coach, two librarians, a manual arts teacher, and a home economics teacher.

MARYLAND IS PICKED TO WIN OVER UCLANS

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (AP)—Know just exactly how Archie Moore feels. This pigskin picker got slapped around something terrible last week when only 17 of his 25 forecasts came out correctly. This could be even worse.

Maryland over UCLA—Coach Jim Tatum says neither he nor his Maryland squad have done anything right this week. That's a new tune for him. He must be brewing something new under his helmet. UCLA having difficulty finding a healthy right guard.

Georgia Tech over Florida—It will be a squeaker for Tech.

Notre Dame over Southern Methodist—The Irish have back only one line veteran from a year ago but quarterback Paul Hornung supposedly is a whiz.

Oklahoma over North Carolina—Coach Bud Wilkinson took his only returning starting backfielder and transformed him into a lineman—not because of a scarcity of line material but because he had so many good backs.

Michigan To Win

Michigan over Missouri—The Wolverines are solid all the way.

Illinois over California—Remember when these were two of the greatest? Neither has too much this year but the Illini look a little the stronger.

Pittsburgh over Syracuse—Dick Bowen is a very speedy Panther. He could make Pittsburgh the East's best.

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

FRIDAY NIGHT

Denver over Drake, Detroit over Toledo.

SATURDAY

East: Cornell over Lehigh, Yale over Connecticut, Baylor over Villanova, Virginia Tech over Pennsylvania, Penn State over Boston University, Navy over William & Mary, Holy Cross over Temple, Columbia over Brown, Colgate over Dartmouth, Army over Furman, Princeton over Rutgers.

Other Selections

South: Auburn over Chattanooga, Georgia over Vanderbilt, Duke over North Carolina State, Mississippi State over Tennessee, Clemson over Virginia, South Carlina over Wake Forest, West Virginia over Richmond, George Washington over VMI, Rice over Alabama, Mississippi over Kentucky.

Midwest: Northwestern over Miami of Ohio, Colorado over Arizona, Minnesota over Washington, Ohio State over Nebraska, Purdue over College of Pacific, Wisconsin over Marquette, Iowa over Kansas State, Indiana over Michigan State, Wichita over Utah State, Washington State over Kansas.

Far West: Utah over Idaho, Stanford over Oregon State, Wyoming over Montana, Southern Cal over Oregon.

Southwest: Texas A&M over Louisiana State, Texas Tech over Texas Christian, Hardin Simmons over Tulsa, Arkansas over Oklahoma A&M.

Shippensburg Here Friday To Oppose Warrior Squad; Scotland Plays At Delone

A pair of teams eager to crash into the victory column for the first time this season will meet here Friday evening at 8 when the Gettysburg High Warriors engage the Shippensburg Greyhounds on the high school gridiron.

Coach Howard Shoemaker's Warriors are smarting after setbacks at the hands of Westminster and Delone while Shippensburg absorbed a 14-6 reverse at Biglerville in its only engagement.

It is no secret that Shippensburg entertains high hopes of handing the locals their third straight setback. Despite losing to Biglerville, the veteran Greyhound outfit made a fine comeback in the last half which was thwarted mostly due to repeated fumbles.

Clair Baughman, mentor of the Cumberland Countians, has 11 lettermen on his squad and most are scheduled to oppose the Warriors.

Shippensburg's opening lineup is expected to include VanScyoc and Wyrick, ends; Black and Weaver, tackles; Dunlap or Hanlin, and Mellott, guards; Gribble, center; Freeman, quarterback; Karper and Sowers, halfbacks, and Seilhamer, fullback.

Two Warriors Hurt

A pair of players who were injured in the Delone game may force Coach Shoemaker to alter his Warrior lineup.

Bob Bondurant, 184-pound tackle, and Russ Potter, 138, defensive end, will be only part-time performers and may be used solely on the defense.

Fred Naugle, 165, is listed to take over Bondurant's chores, while Merle Gorman, 155, a line backer on defense, will move up to replace Potter with Earl Little, 142, moving into the line-backing spot.

The remainder of the Warrior lineup will be intact with Joe Dearing at end; Dave Weaver tackle; Dale Biesecker and Roland Keller, guards; Don Smith or Bob Hess, center; Glenn Welshaar, Dick Stough, Forrest Stouck or Joe Tonsel, halfbacks, and Fred Furney, fullback.

Delone—Scotland

Another scholastic game is listed for Friday evening when Coach Alex Bell's Delone Squires will be host to Scotland at McSherrystown.

After suffering an opening game defeat at the hands of Hanover, Delone bounced back with a very impressive performance in jolting Gettysburg 28-13.

The Squires have been coming along steadily in all departments and appear headed for a good season. Particularly impressive have been the hard-charging linemen while Carroll Funk, quarterback, has been brilliant with his sleight-of-hand performance.

Scotland also has a 1-1 record. The Cadets romped to a 27-7 victory over Millersburg two weeks ago but then were surprised by Chambersburg last week 21-7.

The Franklin Countians' entire outfit possesses plenty of speed which provides a potent weapon on sweeps around end.

BOBBY DYKES BEATEN IN 10

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—George Johnson, a hard-hitting but unrated middleweight from Newark, N. J., beat out an easy 10-round decision over Miami's Bobby Dykes last night and may have earned a non-title bout with champion Bobo Olson.

Promoter Chris Dundee had promised an Olson match here Oct. 26 to the winner and Johnson, a 2-1 underdog, proved himself a better puncher than Dykes, the sixth-ranked middleweight.

After Dykes had eluded him for five rounds, Johnson dropped him for an eight count in the sixth with a right to the jaw, followed by a smashing left hook.

Another right by Johnson snaked through Dykes' defense in the tenth to drop him for a count of eight.

It was the 32nd victory in 38 fights for Johnson, who has flattened 22 of his foes. Dykes suffered the 18th loss in his career of 126 battles.

Dykes weighed 163¼ Johnson 157.

Yanks Can Win Pennant With One Victory Or One Cleveland Defeat; Giants Capture Third

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Cleveland's wonderful one-hoss Shay, falling apart all at once, was piled on the American League junk heap today with only a miracle capable of pushing it any farther along the pennant road.

And it will take a large, economy-size miracle to bar the New York Yankees, more than ever the old pros, from their sixth championship in seven years. With four games remaining, starting with a twin bill at Boston tomorrow, the Yanks need win but one more to clinch it.

They can drop all four and still win it should the Indians, now four games back on the "lost" side, drop even one of their three remaining games.

Yanks Win, Tribe Loses

The once-frantic pennant scramble practically came to a close last night as New York pounded Washington 7-3 and the Tribe took a 7-2 lashing from the Chicago White Sox — who became official also-rans 24 hours earlier.

At worst, New York can tie for the flag. They have won eight straight — their longest streak this season. Cleveland, two games ahead only a week ago, has lost five of six.

The 3½-game edge New York now holds is the biggest bulge any leader has had since July 15, when the Yanks led by four.

Three Aces Crumple

The Indians got just five safe blows off Jack Harshman last night. The Sox, meanwhile, shelled Bob Lemon, who lost his second straight.

Manager Al Lopez has started his aces — Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia — in each of the last six games and they've crumpled along with the hitters.

An error by rookie shortstop Bill Harrell, injected by Lopez in a try for more hits, opened the way to a five-run eighth inning for the White Sox as Lemon lost his 10th. He's won 18.

New York packaged the Nats in three innings, tagging Chuck Stobbs for six hits — four of them for extra bases — and a 4-0 lead. Billy Martin iced it with an inside-the-park homer with two on off rookie Ted Abernathy in the fifth.

Bob Turley won his 17th, but walked eight and Rip Coleman and Bob Grim mopped up after Washington scored three in the seventh.

In the other AL games, Baltimore left the cellar behind by beating Boston 8-7 in 13 innings, and Detroit clubbed Kansas City 10-1 as Ray Boone and Harvey Kuenn homered in an eight-run first.

Giants Clinch Third

The New York Giants, world champs a year ago, clinched third in the National League standings by peppering Pittsburgh for the second straight day in a double-header 7-2 and 7-3. Ray Monzant gave three hits in the nightcap and Don Liddle allowed only four in the first game.

Gus Bell drove in eight runs, with a grand-slam homer and bases-loaded double, as Cincinnati walloped Milwaukee 13-5. Chicago beat St. Louis 7-5 with Randy Jackson hitting a bases-loaded triple in a four-run 13th inning.

MacArthur To Aid Filipinos: Washington, Sept. 19 (AP)—Evidencing this government's concern in the future independence of the Philippine Islands, President Roosevelt Wednesday detailed Gen. Douglas MacArthur as adviser on national defense to President-elect Manuel Quezon.

The present chief of staff of the United States Army accepted the post, it was learned, because of a personal conviction that the future security and independence of the Philippines is vital to American interests in the Pacific and to maintenance of peace in the Far East.

This government will withdraw completely from the Islands on July 4 ten years hence, leaving the Philippine republic a soverign nation. It was in preparation for that day that Quezon asked President Roosevelt to assign MacArthur to the task of organizing and training a Filipino army and planning and instituting a national defense establishment for the islands.

Today's Talk

IN EACH OTHER

Human nature is universal. We find in others the very same elements, traits, habits, aspirations, and spiritual urges as are ours as a gift from the Creator. We are not alone in this world, for all abo us are potential parts of all that we are. In others we view outselves — indeed our other selves.

We ought to be happier than we are! Living too much to ourselves we lose wisdom that should be a guiding light to each one of us in our daily lives. We can even find ourselves in others. When we do, petty troubles perish and we begin to live by vision and faith.

Emerson says: "We owe many valuable observations to people who are not very acute or profound, and who say the thing without effort which we want and have long been hunting in vain." In each other there is a certain unity of thought in which each searches the other. Often we suddenly discover a mine of valuable "pay dirt" that is similar to the joy of the prospector who strikes a vein of glittering gold!

One of the outstanding acts of understanding is for us to confide in one another. Clearing up our thoughts and emptying our hearts. If nations would do this there would be such a drop of fear among people that it would seem like a new world — which, of course, it would be! Wars are fanned into flame by greed and misunderstanding.

When two young people "fall in love" they live, breathe and act in each other. Love makes them conscious of the beauty about them, and they give to each other rather than take. It's a new and wonderful experience. They see more good than evil in the world, and the meld their dreams. Their most unselfish qualities shine out. They plan for oneship. They tap possibilities and interchange them. They are guided by a light that originates in each other.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "For Love of Friends"

Just Folks

CARD OF THANKS

What can you do? What can you say
When wires and cards and letters bring
From friends both near and far away
The word that is most heartening?

I have today a treasure rare
Of card and telegram and note,
Supplying strength for every care,
For every ill an antidote.

All birthday greetings blithe and gay
Which while I live I shall recall,
Though "thank you" seems too trite to say,
My thanks I send to one and all.

U.S. WILLING TO NEGOTIATE TARIFF TRADE

WASHINGTON (AP) — American tariff setters have offered to bargain toward lower U.S. duties on any or all of 900 types of foreign goods in return for like concesions on U.S. products sent abroad.

The State Department yesterday listed the items — ranging from automobiles to Scotch whisky — which will be up for negotiation at an international conference next January.

The listed goods accounted for $1,772,000,000 worth, or about 17 per cent, of the total imports into this country in 1954.

The department kept secret what tariff slashes it will ask in exchange at the January conference of 25 non-Communist nations in Geneva. The meeting, fourth of its kind since World War II, looms as the most far-reaching in the easing of world trade barriers since the first conference in 1947.

Can Lower Rates

The administration has the power to lower U.S. tariffs rates in effect on Jan. 1, 1955, as much as 15 per cent — 5 per cent a year for three years — under the Reciprocal Trade Act extension passed by Congress after a hot fight this year.

State Department officials said tariffs would not necessarily be lowered on all the 900 items American producers, importers and other interested persons will be asked to give their views at government hearings beginning Oct 31, they said, and no concessions will be granted which would imperil US. industries or hurt production essential to defense.

Although the $10,000 bill is the largest in U. S circulation, there are $100,000 gold certificates used for business between the Federal Reserve System and the Treasury Department.

Dulles Foresees End Of Cold War With Permanent Gain For All Nations From Summit Meet

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today declared the world may be entering a decade of peaceful change which will spell the end of the cold war

In a general policy declaration before the U. N. General Assembly he stated that the international atmosphere had improved substantially since the 1954 assembly session and that there was a good chance for constructive decisions during the coming months.

He expressed the belief that the situation was ripe for a solution of the German unification problem and that European security was now better than at any time in history.

Favorable Trend

The situation in the Far East, he said, also was following a "favorable trend" — thanks to the efforts of the U. N. and other governments and individuals to settle differences between Red China and the United States.

"The will of the world community may have operated to avert another war, the scope of which could not surely be limited," Dulles said.

He appealed to the Assembly to endorse President Eisenhower's proposal for an exchange of military blueprints between the United States and Russia and for aerial inspection on a mutual basis.

Basis For Advance

This, he said, would provide a basis for a solid advance toward the goal of world arms reduction.

Dulles spoke of the ten years of cold war conflict in which the world was beset by limited wars, subversion, arms races and inflexible attitudes.

"That phase may now be ending," he said.

"I believe that all four of the heads of government, who were at Geneva, wanted that result and that each contributed to it. In consequence, a new spirit does indeed prevail, with greater flexibility and less brittleness in international relations."

All Must Gain

He declined to say which country had gained most at Geneva, but declared that if the improved atmosphere is to be permanent all must gain.

"The summit meeting, if it is to be historic, rather than episodic," he said, "must usher in an era of peaceful change."

He said this era should be one in which governments would renounce the use of war and subversion, accept orderly evolution toward their goals and develop friendly economic intercourse among themselves.

Strive Together

"Let us strive together," he said, "that the next decade shall be known as the healing decade of true peace."

On specific issues, Dulles said:

U.N. Membership: It is a "grave wrong" to keep nations out of the world organization by use of the veto. Action should be taken now to admit all "peace loving" applicants.

Charter Review: "The United States believes that this session should approve, in principle, the convening of a charter review conference, and establish a preparatory commission to prepare and submit recommendations relating to the date, place, organization and procedures of the general review conference."

European Security

European Security: The Paris and London treaties on a rearmed sovereign Germany have created "an effective system of limitation, control and integration of armed forces, the like of which the world has never seen before. Never before have collective security and individual self-restraint been so resourcefully and so widely combined."

Austria: "It should be noted that the Austrian state treaty, bearing the Soviet Union's signature, contemplates support for Austria's admission to the United Nations."

German Reunification: "The present opportunity is so unusual and so full of constructive possibilities that it can be hoped that the forthcoming four-power foreign ministers' meeting will find a solid basis for the reunification of Germany within a framework of European security."

Other Areas

Soviet Satellites and International Communism: "If the spirit of Geneva is genuine and not spurious, if it is to be permanent and not fleeting, it will lead to liquidating abnormal extensions of national power, which crush the spirit of national independence, and to the ending of political offensives aimed at subverting free governments."

The Middle East: The United States is ready to participate in financial and security arrangements aimed at liquidating the Arab refugee problem and restoring harmony between Israel and the Arab nations.

Southeast Asia: The Southeast area collective defense treaty will work powerfully to deter aggression."

China: "In the China area the situation is somewhat less ominous than it was. We hope that the 'Chinese People's Republic' will respond to the manifest will of the world community that armed forces should not be used to achieve national objectives."

CHARGE NEGLECT BY DEMOCRATS IN WATER CASE

MOUNT POCONO, Pa. (AP)—A Republican member of the House subcommittee studying a Hoover Commission report on water resources and power contended today the Democratic-controlled body is swerving from its task for political reasons.

"I am sure the Hoover Commission members would agree with me that the people of the Delaware Valley have enough trouble to solve for themselves without being subjected to this form of political demagoguery," declared Rep. Lipscomb (R-Calif).

The committee, headed by Rep. Jones (D-Ala), went into the second day of regional hearings on the Hoover Commission report. Hearings will be held by the committee in a number of cities across the nation within the next four months.

Not Relief Group

"I hope the people of this region don't misinterpret the purpose of this committee," Lipscomb said.

He added that the objectives of the group is to hear only testimony for or against features of the Hoover Commission report, not to provide flood relief.

Lipscomb said he agreed, "but not in such strong terms," with a telegram he received from Charles Edison, former governor of New Jersey and secretary of the Navy, who is a member of the Hoover task force group studying water resources.

Lipscomb quoted the telegram from Edison as saying the hearings are "an unfortunate attempt to blame the Hoover Commission for something it had nothing to do with and to capitalize upon the misfortune of residents of the Delaware River Valley."

Polio Peak Passes With 20,165 Cases

WASHINGTON (AP) — New polio cases reported last week to the Public Health Service totaled 1,950, continuing the slight weekly decrease first recorded early this month.

The total was 59 below the 2,009 new cases in the week ended Sept. 10 and was 724 under the 2,674 in the comparable 1954 week.

For 1955 thus far there have been 20,165 cases, compared with 23,998 up to this time a year ago.

A Health Service spokesman said indications now are that the year's total will not exceed 35,000 cases and may drop as low as 30,000. The 1954 total was 38,741.

The spokesman said new cases may drop off sharply beginning any week after Sept. 24. On the basis of statistical experience, the season of high incidence is coming to an end.

One Killed And 2 Hurt In Collision

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Two autos collided last night on Rt. 22 about two miles west of Ebensburg, killing John Kosik, 48, of Pittston, and injuring two other men.

The injured, taken to Johnstown Memorial Hospital, are Mike DeGretto, 45, of Ebensburg, an organizer for the United Mine Workers Union, and Leo Martin, 24, of Nanty Glo.

Hospital officials said DeGretto's condition was "not good." Martin was listed in fair condition.

DENY BOHLEN WAS "ANGRY"

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. officials say "it just isn't true" that Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen accused German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of betraying an American secret.

Bohlen himself, vacationing in Cambridge, Mass., from his Moscow post, declined to comment on the news tory, carried yesterday in the Bonn newspaper Abendpost.

The paper quoted Adenauer as saying in an off-the-record talk with six American correspondents that Bohlen made the charge during a "temperamental" exchange with Herbert Blankenhorn, Boan's ambassador to NATO.

Called "Cockeyed"

The paper said the incident occurred during Adenauer's recent negotiations in Moscow and involved a Russian protest against the launching of American propaganda balloons from Germany The report said that Adenauer promised to take up the matter with American authorities and that Bohlen made he charge when he was approached about it

U. S. officials here, describing the story as "cockeyed," said Bohlen had suggested only that the Russians should be told the American government floats no propaganda balloons. All such balloons are sent into Russia by private organizations, he was quoted as telling Blankenhorn.

Television Will Be Factor In '56 Presidential Drive

By DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON (AP) — The big brains in politics have a worrisome problem coming up because of television. Its use is going to turn the 1956 presidential campaign into one of the most widely viewed dramas ever played on the American scene.

The problem is this:

1. What is the best way to present the candidate on the TV screens in millions of homes in a folksy, seemingly unrehearsed manner?

2. And how can these appearances be carefully staged and rehearsed to capture all the drama of the moment without the production appearing too slick and contrived?

Must Be Part Actor

It's a real problem. A candidate in these days must be a better-than-fair sort of actor. The most popular political productions seem to be those with the intimate, homespun atmosphere overlaid with by such obvious sincerity that no one can overlook it or fail to be impressed.

Even if a candidate is naturally homespun and sincere, it doesn't always register before a camera. And to make it register requires some acting ability.

The truth is that presidential candidates — and candidates for Congress too — must have "television appeal" in the new scheme of things. This means developing a knack for acting before a camera.

During the 1952 campaign, there was a good deal of talk that "the hucksters" had begun to take over in selling a political candidate to the people. The Democrats particularly leveled the charge against the Eisenhower campaign.

Trick To All Trades

But there are tricks to every trade and the politicians of both parties have had to turn to he merchandising expers for advice and direction in putting their best TV foot forward.

The agency which represented the Republicans in 1952 was Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborne of New York. The Democrats depended on the Joseph Katz Agency of Baltimore. Both parties again will have merchandising experts behind the scenes in the next campaign. It appears they have come to the political platform to stay.

It might be argued with some validity that television in 1956 will have twice the impact in politics that it had in 1952 because more than double the number of voters will be watching TV screens.

Can't Take Chances

No one yet knows just how great an impact TV has in the success or failure of a political candidate. But neither party can take chances by not putting its bes TV foot forward.

Both President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon have developed a relaxed, informal manner before the television cameras. And Adlai Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic nominee, while not so folksy as Eisenhower and Nixon, is an able TV performer.

Some wags are suggesting that the 1956 campaign should be reported by the drama critics rather than political reporters. And it could be.

Hershey Employes Cop Safety Award

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Employes of the Hershey Chocolate Corp. Wednesday were awarded the safety plaque of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Assn for their record of hours worked without a disabling accident.

The award, first of its type ever made by the association, was presented by G. Mason Owlett, president.

Owlett complimented the workers on their safety record of 1,522,043 man hours worked without a disabling accident and said that business and industry in Pennsylvania "have proven that accidents can be prevented on the job."

"The worker is safer on the job today than he is at home or in his car," Owlett said. "In fact, more than twice as many workers were killed off the job last year as on the job."

DISARMAMENT WILL BE URGED IN DULLES TALK

UNITED NATIONS, N Y (AP) — The U N spotlight centered today on U S Secretary of State Dulles and his annual review for the General Assembly of American foreign policy

Dulles was listed as the second speaker in the 10th Assembly's opening round of policy statements from delegation chiefs Brazilian Ambassador Cyre de Freitas-Valle was the leadoff man

It was learned that the American secretary would put special emphasis on disarmament, German unification, development of the peaceful uses of atomic energy and revision of the U N charter.

A recording of Dulles' speech was scheduled for broadcast by MBS at 1 05 p m, EST, and by ABC at 7 p m, EST NBC scheduled a film telecast at 2 p m, EST

Favor Ike's Plan

Following the general statements, Assembly discussion of disarmament is slated to be held over until after the Big Four foreign ministers thresh out the question at Geneva Oct 27. After that, the United States reportedly will press for a resolution endorsing President Eisenhower's proposal for the big powers to exchange military blueprints and aerial and ground inspections

Seek To Weaken Veto

At least two atomic matters will place high on the Assembly agenda this year. The 60-nation body is expected to continue the advisory committee which was set up on peaceful uses of atomic energy There will also be debate on the form of the proposed agency to supervise the program for using the atom for peace The United States and other countries producing atomic energy are negotiating on the form of that agency

The question of revising the U N Charter is expected to produce vigorous debate The United States would like to weaken the big powers' Security Council veto on membership applications Russia opposes any such change.

While the Assembly turned its attention officially to worldwide issues, a bitter floor fight was brewing over Greece's demand that the British island colony of Cyprus be allowed self-determination.

The Assembly Steering Committee by a 7-4 vote last night rejected the Greek request for debate on the issue after British Delegate Anthony Nutting contended, "Passions would be still furtner inflamed" Greece was certain to ask the full 60-nation Assembly to overrule the committee, but there was considerable doubt that she could get enough votes.

The committee vote widened the split in the North Atlantic Alliance over the strategic east Mediterranean island. With Britain and Turkey already aligned against the Greek demand, the United States last night joined in opposing debate on the issue. U.S. abstention on the question in the Asembly last year touched off anti-American riots in Athens.

MOTHER MAY TAKE STAND IN MURDER TRIAL

By SAM JOHNSON

SUMNER, Miss. (AP)—Five surprise witnesses and the victim's mother may testify for the state today in the trial of two white men accused of killing a 14-year-old Chicago Negro boy.

Dis. Atty Gerald Chatham — still withholding names of the last-minute witnesses — said they can place Roy Bryant and his half-brother J. W. Milam near the spot where the body of Emmett Louis Till was pulled from the muddy Tallahatchie River.

Mrs Mamie Bradley of Chicago, the slain boy's mother, is expected to bolster identification of the body, which was reported weighted with a cotton gin fan after the boy was shot and beaten.

While the trial entered its fourth day in the Tallahatchie County Courthouse, Dist. Atty Stanny Sanders in adjoining Sunflower County said he was investigating a story which indicated young Till was killed on a plantation near Drew, Miss.

This presented the possibility the trial was being held in a county in which the killing did not take place.

Three Identify Defendants

Three witnesses for the state yesterday pointed identifying fingers at Bryant and Milam

After defense objections, Sheriff George Smith of adjoining Leflore County, where the boy was kidnaped, testified 24-year-old Bryant admitted taking Till from his uncle's home during the night, but said he released him unharmed.

Deputy Sheriff John Ed Cothran followed with testimony the husky 36-year-old Milam also admitted snatching the boy from his bed Aug 28, and also insisting he was released unharmed.

Smith and his deputy said Bryant and Milam each claimed they released Till unharmed. The half-brothers are accused of kidnaping the Negro lad and murdering him because he allegedly whistled or made off-color remarks to Mrs Bryant

Mose Wright, the boy's sharecropper uncle, pointed a knobby finger at the balding Milam and declared, "There he is" — one of two men who entered Wright's cottonfield shack to get Till

Then the 64-year-old Negro leveled his finger at Bryant and said he was the second man

WILL EXAMINE MRS. G. SILVER

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mrs Gertrude Silver will be examined by a psychiatrist sometime this week to determine whether she is fit to attend a hearing on charges that she was an accessory before the fact of an abortion that caused the death of her daughter, Mrs Doris Silver Ostreicher.

Dist. Atty. Samuel Dash, who announced yesterday that the examination would be made by Dr. Vincent Lathbury, said that if Mrs Silver's condition still precludes an arraignment, the examination will be repeated "every week or 10 days."

Psychiatrists, Dr. Lathbury among them, testified at Mrs. Silver's scheduled arraignment two weeks ago that her mental condition was such that she was unable to "face her accusers."

She has been confined since to the Philadelphia Psychiatric Hospital.

Mrs. Silver is charged also with conspiring with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schwartz to perform the abortion The Schwartzes are being held for grand jury action. They are charged with performing the abortion on the night of Aug 24 in their apartment, where Mrs Ostreicher, a 22-year-old bride of two months, died

Atom Power Proximity Is Dubious For 1957

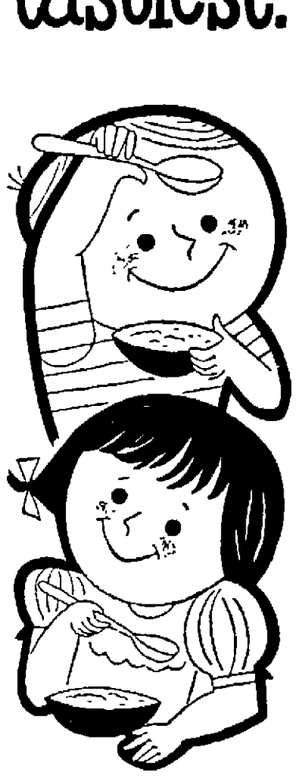

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Atomic power will yield "less than 20 per cent" of the total power needs in the coming years, R. G. Rincliffe, president of the Philadelphia Electric Co, Wednesday.

Rincliffe spoke at the closing session of the Pennsylvania Electric Assn. 48th annual meeting.

He said the power industry must make full utilization of conventional fuels despite public optimism in non-utility quarters about "great blocks of energy" which will be available from atomic power beginning in 1957.

DISARMAMENT WILL BE URGED IN DULLES TALK

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The U. N. spotlight centered today on U.S. Secretary of State Dulles and his annual review for the General Assembly of American foreign policy.

Dulles was listed as the second speaker in the 10th Asembly's opening round of policy statements from delegation chiefs. Brazilian Ambassador Cyre de Freitas-Valle was the leadoff man.

It was learned that the American secretary would put special emphasis on disarmament, German unification, development of the peaceful uses of atomic energy and revision of the U.N. charter.

A recording of Dulles' speech was scheduled for broadcast by MBS at 1:05 p.m., EST, and by ABC at 7 p.m., EST. NBC scheduled a film telecast at 2 p.m., EST.

Television Will Be Factor In '56 Presidential Drive

By DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON (AP) — The big brains in politics have a worrisome problem coming up because of television. Its use is going to turn the 1956 presidential campaign into one of the most widely viewed dramas ever played on the American scene.

The problem is this:

1. What is the best way to present the candidate on the TV screens in millions of homes in a folksy, seemingly unrehearsed manner?

2. And how can these appearances be carefully staged and rehearsed to capture all the drama of the moment without the production appearing too slick and contrived?

Must Be Part Actor

It's a real problem. A candidate in these days must be a better-than-fair sort of actor. The most popular political productions seem to be those with the intimate homespun atmosphere overlaid with by such obvious sincerity that no one can overlook it or fail to be impressed.

Even if a candidate is naturally homespun and sincere it doesn't always register before a camera. And to make it register requires some acting ability.

The truth is that presidential candidates — and candidates for Congress too — must have "television appeal" in the new scheme of things. This means developing a knack for acting before a camera.

During the 1952 campaign, there was a good deal of talk that "the hucksters" had begun to take over in selling a political candidate to the people. The Democrats particularly leveled the charge against the Eisenhower campaign.

Trick To All Trades

But there are tricks to every trade and the politicians of both parties have had to turn to he merchandising expers for advice and direction in putting their best TV foot forward.

The agency which represented the Republicans in 1952 was Barten, Barton, Durstine and Osborne of New York. The Democrats depended on the Joseph Katz Agency of Baltimore. Both parties again will have merchandising experts behind the scenes in the next campaign. It appears they have come to the political platform to stay.

It might be argued with some validity that television in 1956 will have twice the impact in politics that it had in 1952 because more than double the number of voters will be watching TV screens.

Can't Take Chances

No one yet knows just how great an impact TV has in the success or failure of a political candidate. But neither party can take chances by not putting its best TV foot forward.

Both President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon have developed a relaxed, informal manner before the television cameras. And Adlai Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic nominee, while not so folksy as Eisenhower and Nixon, is an agile TV performer.

Some wags are suggesting that the 1956 campaign should be reported by the drama critics rather than political reporters. And it could be.

Hershey Employes Cop Safety Award

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Employes of the Hershey Chocolate Corp. Wednesday were awarded the safety plaque of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Assn. for their record of hours worked without a disabling accident.

The award, first of its type ever made by the association was presented by G. Mason Owlett, president.

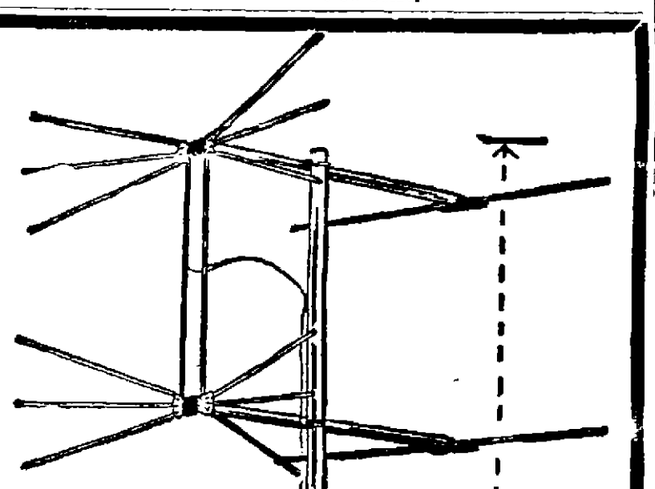

Owlett complimented the workers on their safety record of 1,522,043 man hours worked without a disabling accident and said that business and industry in Pennsylvania "have proven that accidents can be prevented on the job."

"The worker is safer on the job today than he is at home or in his car," Owlett said. "In fact, more than twice as many workers were killed off the job last year as on the job."

TEEN TALK

BY VIVIAN BROWN

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

A song fest is a good way to entertain your church group after the young people's meeting.

It breaks the ice so that lads and lasses get to know each other, and gives everybody an opportunity to make more friends.

Take a group at Pelham, New York.

Pretty Rita Arthur, 16, who moved there from California, had been used to after-church socials at members' homes. But when she got to the new town there was nothing like it going on. How do you get to meet people? thought Rita when she saw that at church meetings all the bashful boys sat off to themselves, and shy girls blushed when spoken to.

She took things in her own hands and invited the group — from 12 to 18 years of age — to her home after one of the Sunday evening meetings. Says Rita:

A "Huge Success"

"I thought I'd experiment. The song fest was a huge success. The second one brought out 36 people and two ministers. Now other people are being encouraged to hold socials in their homes."

The minister, Rev. Duane L. Day of the First Baptist Church of Mt. Vernon, led the singing. Fun songs came first — "Sippin' Cider" and "Tell Me 'Why' among others. Then before refreshments "quiet reigned" says Rita, and hymns such as "Jacob's Ladder" and "Rock of Ages" were sung by the girls and guys.

Refreshments consisted of 3 different type cookies, cup cakes, mints, and a nut and cheese spread. A fruit punch was made with ginger ale. Rita says:

"We were really amazed that these fellows and girls were so neat. Everyone brought his own napkin and paper cup back to the table crumbs."

Sat On Floor

There were no records played. It was all piano music and the youths sat around on the floor. Everybody dressed up — the boys wore their Sunday suits and the girls wore party dresses or blouses and skirts. The Rev. Day commented:

"I've never seen boys and girls mingle as nicely as they do at these song gatherings. They are friendly to each other and have lost the awkwardness that seemed to exist at the meetings."

The song festival is announced in the church paper as well as listed in the church bulletin. Parents drive the young people to the party and pick them up later. Rita is hoping that some of the adults who have large homes will invite the group to sing. Says she:

"Parents are delighted with the project because for one thing it helps keep the girls and boys off the streets."

You don't have to the Dominican Republic to cook up a merengue. But that's what you'd do if you got there.

And in case you didn't know, the merengue is the newest dance craze to hit these shores. If the momentum increases, you can kiss goodby to the Puerto Rican bolero, the Brazilian samba, the Argentine tango, the Cuban rumba and the Paso Doble, the Spanish bullfight dance.

The merengue is easy to do with a bit of rhythm even if you've got two left feet. As a matter of fact it's a dance that will appeal to all the lazy men in your group because you "just go rolling along."

The movement of the dancers is like the monotonous rhythm of Dominican Republic workers cutting sugar cane with a dip of the body and a drag of the leg. Some say that the merengue was inspired by them. City folk do a more restrained version of the merengue, but in any case it is sort of a lazy limp.

One popular young man, Bern Wagner, says it is becoming the rage in his group and tells us how to do it. He explains how to do it:

"Slide And Glide"

"Always slide and glide on the off-beat. Gentlemen dip slightly and bend the left knee on the step with the left foot. At the same time ladies dip with the right knee on the right foot. For variety dip on every other step.

"Gentlemen then bring their right foot up to the left foot. Ladies bring the left foot up to the right foot, completing another basic step."

The merengue is a combination of Spanish and African rhythm. The country orchestra is composed of a small Spanish-style accordion or concertina, the Afro tambora or two skinned barrel drum played with sticks on both ends while worn suspended from the neck, and the guira, an ancient Indian instrument consisting of a notched gourd scratched on the side to produce the effect of the maraca. Sometimes the Spanish guitar, a wooden shoebox with steel strings to pat, rap and bluck or an iron exhaust pipe sounding like a hoarse bulldog when blown in time to the rhythm of the drum is added.

Many young people are doing their merengue in costume and these days the merengue party is a great pepper-upper for a crowd.

My friend, George, has found renewed fun, pep and enthusiasm in his home darkroom since he's discovered fine grain positive film. Now he spends all his spare time making positive transparencies and bas-relief pictures instead of straight enlargements. The bas-reliefs are especially effective, and quite creative, so let's find out how to make them.

It is the result of printing two films together as a sandwich. One film is a negative; the other is a positive of the very same picture. When they are put together, then moved slightly out of register, you can create photographically the sculptural effect called bas-relief.

For best results, experiment only with pictures which have sharp definition all over and detail in shadows as well as highlights. The simplest method is to make a contact print from your original negative but instead of contact paper you use fine grain positive film and put emulsion side to emulsion side.

This film may not be as readily available as the contact paper it replaces and may have to be ordered by your camera dealer. It comes in 5"x7" size, 25 sheets to the box and in only one contrast. It may be necessary to juggle exposure and development time to compensate in cases where the original negative is either too flat or too contrasty. The general rule is that contrast increases with development. So with flat negatives, you underexpose and overdevelop. With contrasty negatives, you overexpose and underdevelop.

Exposure on fine grain positive film is generally half the time normally used on paper. Development time may run from 1¼ minutes to 7 minutes in paper developer. In all cases, run off a test strip first to determine proper timing.

I've mentioned that the simplest method to make bas-reliefs is by making a contact print from your original negative. My friend, George, has gone one step further and prefers to make an enlargement on the fine grain positive film. He argues that he can select only that section of the original negative which makes the best picture, and gets it as large as possible. Of course, you don't make it any larger than will fit into the enlarger that you are using. For instance, don't enlarge to the full 5"x7" when the largest size negative your enlarger will accept is a 4"x5".

The fine grain positive film is cut down to the size picture you make, but leave about a half inch border all around. This is handy for handling and gives you a place to put your own ink register marks (a "+" or an "x" on each edge) which will make it easier later on. It only takes from 20 to 30 minutes to develop, fix, wash and dry the positive film.

From this positive, a negative is made merely by making a contact print on another sheet of fine grain positive film. When it is developed, fixed, washed and dried, both will have clearly visible register marks in the border. Sandwich the two negatives together so that they correspond, then get them slightly off register. When it is most effective, tape the negatives together to hold the position.

The taped negatives may now be enlarged to produce your bas-relief print. That should wind up the procedure — but not with my friend, George. He throws this image on still another sheet of fine grain positive film. Now he has a single film with a bas-relief picture with reverse tones. This he can solarize or reticulate on another sheet of — yes, you guessed it. He is fine-grain-positive-ly crazy!

Stamp News

One hundred years ago, the King of Sweden issued a proclamation for the use of postage stamps for postal reform. The first Swedish stamps were issued in five different values and in the famed skilling banco coin design.

To commemorate the occasion, Sweden has issued two special stamps. The 25 ore blue and 40 ore green depict a design similar to the 1855 Coat of Arms for the skilling bancos. The dates 1855-1955 appear beneath the design.

An interesting new book on stamp collecting has just been published. Entitled "Basic Philately — The Art and Craft of Stamp Making" by L. N. and M. Williams (Soccer Associates, 10 Overlook Terrace, N. Y. 33, N. Y.), it covers many aspects of the hobby. Included are illustrated chapters on printing, dies, overprints and surchanges, watermarks, perforations, essays, postmarks and plate study.

Issue Nature Stamp

Several French colonies have issued a "protection of nature" series with illustrations of native animals on each adhesive.

French Equatorial Africa put forth an 8 franc depicting a Varon lizard. French West Africa issued two stamps — a 5 fr showing a chimpanzee and an 8 fr picturing a pangolin which is similar to a lizard. Togo issued an 8 franc depicting a beetle.

Fritz Letkemann, an employe at Fitzsimmons Army Hospital near Denver, is proud of his more than 600 prisoner-of-war covers.

His covers range through eight wars beginning with an early 19th century Napoleonic campaign. Represented are the American Civil War, Franco-Prussian, Boer and Russo-Japanese wars, World Wars I and II and the Korean conflict.

Commemorate Conference

Indonesia issued four stamps to commemorate the Asia-Africia Conference. Each stamp shows the world globe with Asia and Africia at the top left. Doves of peace fly above. The design of the stamp was by Prime Minister Ali Sastroamidojo. The values are: 15 c gray, 35 c brown, 50 c red and 75 c green.

Has Trouble With Earth On Violet

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — It's tough to grow violets in California. Especially those that come from Kentucky or Arizona dirt.

Mrs. Della Ruhnow said she tried to bring two pots of violets here from her old Kentucky home. Entering Arizona, a guard said she could keep the violets if she'd dump out the Kentucky soil and pour in Arizona dirt.

At the California border, an inspector told her, "Too bad, ma'am, but if you'd have left the Kentucky dirt in, you could have kept the violets."

The guard said he'd dispose of the soil and violets — according to state agriculture laws. Mrs. Ruhnow bought some geraniums — in San Diego.

Gunmen Give Poor Gas Station Service

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The report made by L. A. McLaughlin, a filling station operator, to police when two gunmen held up his night attendant and carted off his safe containing $150 was routine except for thing.

During the holdup a regular customer drove in for gas and the two gunmen, posing as employes, filled up the customer's tank. But, complained McLaughlin, they neglected to check the oil and clean the car's windshield.

Reduced Rates

Due to this competition the U S. government not only was forced to reduce its rates but to put into effect needed reforms in the postal service. At the same time the government legislated the private posts out of business.

In 1847 the lowest U. S stamp was 5 cents. But by 1851 the 1-cent and the 3-cent stamps were issued for local and printed matter delivery.

Thus many of the postal reforms and improvements of that era can be traced directly to the competition created by the local carriers.

Jerry Lewis, of the Martin and Lewis comedy team is really crazy . . . about photography in general and home movies in particular.

Here are some serious thoughts from the zany comedian which he gave me when I asked him what advice he'd pass along to photographers:

"All of us could do a much better job of preserving in motion, in color . . . yes, and in sound . . . the happy memories of today for the future It is so important for us to make a record now of the people we love in characteristic action—the way they look, the things they say and do.

Brings Back Past

"It is the only way we can stop time in its tracks and recall past activities, our youngsters' growing-up-phases or bring back the loving presence of some one now gone forever."

In less than 15 years, Jerry has come a long way from his first box camera and the 8mm movie camera which he bought on time because he didn't have money enough to buy it outright.

Today, 29 years old, he owns about every type of still camera on the market and has a fabulous amount invested in a complete 16mm sound-on-film system for his home productions.

Complete Facilities

In his Los Angeles Pacific Palisades' home, Jerry has a photo studio with roll-away backgrounds and a complete darkroom setup for still and movie work. In addition, he has a cutting room, projection room and a library for the millions of feet of movies he has personally shot, edited, titled, scored and carefully catalogued

A weekend at Loch Sheldrake, N. Y. gave me a pleasurable opportunity to observe at first hand the serious photo side of madcap Jerry Lewis. Here, some fifteen years ago when he first became interested in photography, he went to work as a bus boy in Brown's Hotel. Now he had returned as an international celebrity and more than 120 members of the press and film industry had gathered to preview the latest Martin and Lewis laugh-antics for Paramount's "You're Never Too Young." Because of his knowledge of photography, Jerry was co-director of the film

Jerry proved to be a shutterbug's delight with all the amateur photographers present. He was stopped countless times to pose or hold a youngster and I didn't see anyone turned a ay. Once when he was caught in an area of deep shade, Jerry asked the fan what film and exposure he was using It was slow film and just a snapshot camera so Jerry cut a few capers and moved to a spot with better, more open lighting, then posed.

State Pardon Board Delays Zietz Case

HARRISBURG (AP) — The state Pardons Board has continued a hearing on the appeal of Harry R. Zietz, 25, Bucks County convicted slayer, for commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment

The board dropped the case from its list of appeals scheduled for hearing today on grounds that the case of David Darcy, 29, convicted in the same case, still is pending in federal court.

Zietz and Darcy along with Harold Foster, 30, were sentenced to death in the slaying of William Kelly during the holdup of a Bucks County tavern

All three have been granted 24 stays of execution since they were sentenced to death in 1948.

Reduced Rates

Due to this competition the U. S. government not only was forced to reduce its rates but to put into effect needed reforms in the postal service. At the same time the government legislated the private posts out of business.

In 1847 the lowest U. S. stamp was 5 cents. But by 1851 the 1-cent and the 3-cent stamps were issued for local and printed matter delivery.

Thus many of the postal reforms and improvements of that era can be traced directly to the competition created by the local carriers.

Camera News

Jerry Lewis, of the Martin and Lewis comedy team is really crazy . . . about photography in general and home movies in particular.

Here are some serious thoughts from the zany comedian which he gave me when I asked him what advice he'd pass along to photographers:

"All of us could do a much better job of preserving in motion, in color . . . yes, and in sound . . . the happy memories of today for the future. It is so important for us to make a record now of the people we love in characteristic action—the way they look, the things they say and do.

Brings Back Past

"It is the only way we can stop time in its tracks and recall past activities, our youngsters' growing-up-phases or bring back the loving presence of some one now gone forever."

In less than 15 years, Jerry has come a long way from his first box camera and the 8mm movie camera which he bought on time because he didn't have money enough to buy it outright.

Today, 29 years old, he owns about every type of still camera on the market and has a fabulous amount invested in a complete 16mm sound-on-film system for his home productions.

Complete Facilities

In his Los Angeles Pacific Palisades' home, Jerry has a photo studio with roll-away backgrounds and a complete darkroom setup for still and movie work. In addition, he has a cutting room, projection room and a library for the millions of feet of movies he has personally shot, edited, titled, scored and carefully catalogued.

A weekend at Loch Sheldrake, N. Y. gave me a pleasurable opportunity to observe at first hand the serious photo side of madcap Jerry Lewis. Here, some fifteen years ago when he first became interested in photography, he went to work as a bus boy in Brown's Hotel. Now he had returned as an international celebrity and more than 120 members of the press and film industry had gathered to preview the latest Martin and Lewis laugh-antics for Paramount's "You're Never Too Young." Because of his knowledge of photography, Jerry was co-director of the film.

Jerry proved to be a shutterburg's delight with all the amateur photographers present. He was stopped countless times to pose or hold a youngster and I didn't see anyone turned a ay. Once when he was caught in an area of deep shade, Jerry asked the fan what film and exposure he was using. It was slow film and just a snapshot camera so Jerry cut a few capers and moved to a spot with better, more open lighting, then posed.

State Pardon Board Delays Zietz Case

HARRISBURG (AP) — The state Pardons Board has continued a hearing on the appeal of Harry R. Zietz, 25, Bucks County convicted slayer, for commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment.

The board dropped the case from its list of appeals scheduled for hearing today on grounds that the case of David Darcy, 29, convicted in the same case, still is pending in federal court.

Zietz and Darcy, along with Harold Foster, 30, were sentenced to death in the slaying of William Kelly during the holdup of a Bucks County tavern.

All three have been granted 24 stays of execution since they were sentenced to death in 1948.

TEEN TALK

BY VIVIAN BROWN

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

A song fest is a good way to entertain your church group after the young people's meeting.

It breaks the ice so that lads and lasses get to know each other, and gives everybody an opportunity to make more friends.

Take a group at Pelham, New York.

Pretty Rita Arthur, 16, who moved there from California, had been used to after-church socials at members' homes. But when she got to the new town there was nothing like it going on. How do you get to meet people? thought Rita when she saw that at church meetings all the bashful boys sat off to themselves, and shy girls blushed when spoken to.

She took things in her own hands and invited the group — from 12 to 18 years of age — to her home after one of the Sunday evening meetings. Says Rita:

A "Huge Success"

"I thought I'd experiment. The song fest was a huge success. The second one brought out 36 people and two ministers. Now other people are being encouraged to hold socials in their homes."

The minister, Rev. Duane L. Day of the First Baptist Church of Mt. Vernon, led the singing. Fun songs came first — "Sippin' Cider" and "Tell Me Why" among others. Then before refreshments "quiet reigned" says Rita, and hymns such as "Jacob's Ladder" and "Rock of Ages" were sung by the girls and guys.

Refreshments consisted of 3 different type cookies, cup cakes, mints, and a nut and cheese spread. A fruit punch was made with ginger ale. Rita says:

"We were really amazed that these fellows and girls were so neat. Everyone brought his own napkin and paper cup back to the table crumbs."

Sat On Floor

There were no records played. It was all piano music and the youths sat around on the floor. Everybody dressed up — the boys wore their Sunday suits and the girls wore party dresses or blouses and skirts. The Rev. Day commented:

"I've never seen boys and girls mingle as nicely as they do at these song gatherings. They are friendly to each other and have lost the awkwardness that seemed to exist at the meetings."

The song festival is announced in the church paper as well as listed in the church bulletin. Parents drive the young people to the party and pick them up later. Rita is hoping that some of the adults who have large homes will invite the group to sing. Says she:

"Parents are delighted with the project because for one thing it helps keep the girls and boys off the streets."

You don't have to the Dominican Republic to cook up a merengue. But that's what you'd do if you got there.

And in case you didn't know, the merengue is the newest dance craze to hit these shores. If the momentum increases, you can kiss goodby to the Puerto Rican bolero, the Brazilian samba, the Argentine tango, the Cuban rumba and the Paso Doble, the Spanish bullfight dance.

The merengue is easy to do with a bit of rhythm even if you've got two left feet. As a matter of fact it's a dance that will appeal to all the lazy men in your group because you "just go rolling along."

The movement of the dancers is like the monotonous rhythm of Dominican Republic workers cutting sugar cane with a dip of the body and a drag of the leg. Some say that the merengue was inspired by them. City folk do a more restrained version of the merengue, but in any case it is sort of a lazy limp.

One popular young man, Bern Wagner, says it is becoming the rage in his group and tells us how to do it. He explains how to do it:

"Slide And Glide"

"Always slide and glide on the off-beat. Gentlemen dip slightly and bend the left knee on the step with the left foot. At the same time ladies dip with the right knee on the right foot. For variety dip on every other step.

"Gentlemen then bring their right foot up to the left foot. Ladies bring the left foot up to the righ foot, completing another basic step."

The merengue is a combination of Spanish and African rhythm. The country orchestra is composed of a small Spanish-style accordion or concertina, the Afro tambora or two skinned barrel drum played with sticks on both ends while worn suspended from the neck and the guira, an ancient Indian instrument consisting of a notched gourd scratched on the side to produce the effect of the maracas. Sometimes the Spanish guitar, a wooden shoebox with steel strings to pat, rap and pluck or an iron exhaust pipe sounding like a hoarse bulldog when blown in time to the rhythm of the drum is added.

Many young people are doing their merengue in costume and these days the merengue party is a great pepper-upper for a crowd.

Camera News

By IRVING DESFOR
The Associated Press

My friend, George, has found renewed fun, pep and enthusiasm in his home darkroom since he's discovered fine grain positive film. Now he spends all his spare time making positive transparencies and bas-relief pictures instead of straight enlargements. The bas-reliefs are especially effective, and quite creative, so let's find out how to make them.

It is the result of printing two films together as a sandwich. One film is a negative, the other is a positive of the very same picture. When they are put together, then moved slightly out of register, you can create photographically the sculptural effect called bas-relief.

For best results, experiment on-with pictures which have sharp definition all over and detail in shadows as well as highlights. The simplest method is to make a contact print from your original negative but instead of contact paper you use the grain positive film and put emulsion side to emulsion side.

This film may not be as readily available as the contact paper it replaces and may have to be ordered by your camera dealer. It comes in 5"x7" size, 25 sheets to the box and in only one contrast. It may be necessary to juggle exposure and development time to compensate in cases where the original negative is either too flat or too contrasty. The general rule is that contrast increases with development. So with flat negatives, you underexpose and overdevelop. With contrasty negatives, you overexpose and underdevelop.

Exposure on fine grain positive film is generally half the time normally used on paper. Development time may run from 1¼ minutes to 7 minutes in paper developer. In all cases run off a test strip first to determine proper timing.

I've mentioned that the simplest method to make bas-reliefs is by making a contact print from your original negative. My friend, George, has gone one step further and prefers to make an enlargement on the fine grain positive film. He argues that he can select only that section of the original negative which makes the best picture, and gets it as large as possible. Of course, you don't make it any larger than will fit into the enlarger that you are using. For instance don't enlarge to the full 5"x7" when the largest size negative your enlarger will accept is a 4"x5".

The fine grain positive film is cut down to the size picture you make, but leave about a half inch border all around. This is handy for handling and gives you a place to put your own ink register marks (a "+" or an "x" on each edge) which will make it easier later on. It only takes from 20 to 30 minutes to develop, fix, wash and dry the positive film.

From this positive, a negative is made merely by making a contact print on another sheet of fine grain positive film. When it is developed, fixed, washed and dried, both will have clearly visible register marks in the border. Sandwich the two negatives together so that they correspond, then get them slightly off register. When it is most effective tape the negatives together to hold the position.

The taped negatives may now be enlarged to produce your bas-relief print. That should wind up the procedure — but not with my friend, George. He throws this image on still another sheet of fine grain positive film. Now he has a single film with a bas-relief picture with reverse tones. This he can solarize or reticulate on another sheet of — yes, you guessed it. He is fine-grain-positive-ly crazy!

Stamp News

By SYD KRONISH
The Associated Press

One hundred years ago, the King of Sweden issued a proclamation for the use of postage stamps for postal reform. The first Swedish stamps were issued in five different values and in the famed skilling banco coin design.

To commemorate the occasion, Sweden has issued two special stamps. The 25 ore blue and 40 ore green depict a design similar to the 1855 Coat of Arms for the skilling bancos. The dates 1855-1955 appear beneath the design.

An interesting new book on stamp collecting has just been published. Entitled "Basic Philately — The Art and Craft of Stamp Making" by L. N. and M. Williams (Soccer Associates, 10 Overlook Terrace, N. Y. 33, N. Y.), it covers many aspects of the hobby. Included are illustrated chapters on printing, dies, overprints and surcharges, watermarks, perforations, essays, postmarks and plate study.

Issue Nature Stamp

Several French colonies have issued a "protection of nature" series with illustrations of native animals on each adhesive.

French Equatorial Africa put forth an 8 franc depicting a Varon lizard. French West Africa issued two stamps — a 5 fr showing a chimpanzee and an 8 fr picturing a pangolin which is similar to a lizard. Togo issued an 8 franc depicting a beetle.

Fritz Letkemann, an employe at Fitzsimmons Army Hospital near Denver, is proud of his more than 600 prisoner-of-war covers.

His covers range through eight wars beginning with an early 19th century Napoleonic campaign. Represented are the American Civil War, Franco-Prussian, Boer and Russo-Japanese wars, World Wars I and II and the Korean conflict.

Commemorate Conference

Indonesia issued four stamps to commemorate the Asia-African Conference. Each stamp shows the world globe with Asia and Africa at the top left. Doves of peace fly above. The design of the stamp was by Prime Minister Ali Sastroamidojo. The values are 15 c gray, 35 c brown, 50 c red and 75 c green.

Has Trouble With Earth On Violet

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — It's tough to grow violets in California. Especially those that come from Kentucky or Arizona dirt.

Mrs. Della Ruhnow said she tried to bring two pots of violets here from her old Kentucky home. Entering Arizona, a guard said she could keep the violets if she'd dump out the Kentucky soil and pour in Arizona dirt.

At the California border, an inspector told her: "Too bad, ma'am, but if you'd have left the Kentucky dirt in, you could have kept the violets."

The guard said he'd dispose of the soil and violets — according to state agriculture laws. Mrs. Ruhnow bought some geraniums — in San Diego.

Gunmen Give Poor Gas Station Service

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The report made by L. A. McLaughlin, a filling station operator, to police when two gunmen held up his night attendant and carted off his safe containing $150 was routine except for one thing.

During the holdup a regular customer drove in for gas and the two gunmen posing as employes, filled up the customer's tank. But, complained McLaughlin, they neglected to check the oil and clean the car's windshield.

Housework Easy Without Nagging Backache

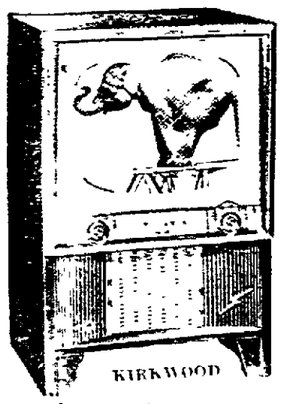

Nagging backache, headache, or muscular aches and pains may come on with over-exertion, emotional upsets or day to day stress and strain. And folks who eat and drink unwisely sometimes suffer mild bladder irritation ...with that restless, uncomfortable feeling.

If you are miserable and worn out because of these discomforts, Doan's Pills often help by their pain relieving action, by their soothing effect to ease bladder irritation and by their mild diuretic action through the kidneys — tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

So if nagging backache makes you feel dragged-out, miserable ...with restless sleepless nights...don't wait...try Doan's Pills... get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years. Get Doan's Pills today!

SCHOOL ISSUES ARE DISCUSSED AT PTA MEETING

Pertinent facts concerning the Littlestown Joint School System were presented in a panel discussion at the first fall meeting of the Parent Teachers' Association Tuesday evening in the Rolling Acres Elemementary School.

Paul S. King, supervising principal of the jointure, was the moderator. Participating in the discussion were: Frank E. Basehoar and Lloyd Stavely, administrative assistants; John H. Riley, elementary principal; Mrs. Joanne M. Breighner, home economics instructor, and John D. Basehoar, a parent. King prefared the discussion with an explanation of the school organization. The panel discussed home room assignments, safety measures, insurance, milk program, cafeteria menus, curriculum, guidance in schools, banking, health program and other subjects.

King introduced the junior-senior high faculty, which in addition to the above mentioned includes: Maurice E. Bream, Clayton L. Evans, Paul A. Harner, Ronald C. Feeser, Wilbur J. Gobrecht, Miss LeOra L. Held, Frank A. Keefer, H. Dean Stover, Mrs. Mary C. Sentz, Donald C. Sheely, Richard D. Thomas, Charles E. Tressler, Mrs. Elmira S. Deardorff, Mrs. Brenda B. Walker, James L. Rhoades, Miss Dorothy P. Crabbs, Elmer W. Gall, Luther I. Sachs Jr., Mrs. Nellie L. Held.

Grade School Faculty

Riley presented the grade school faculty: Mrs. Naomi C. Schwartz, Mrs. Gertrude Knouse, Mrs. Maria L. Seiwell, Mrs. Geraldine B. Redding, Mrs. Marion Ecker, Mrs. Marian Richter, Mrs. Esther R. Wolfe, Mrs. Miriam Study, Mrs. Oneda Hughes, Mrs. Louella S. Baumgardner, Mrs. Dessa D. Herring, Mrs. Jane K. Rhoades, Mrs. Eva P. Sentz, Mrs. Myrtle R. Manchey, Mrs. Martha Knechel, Mrs. Margaret Lohr, Mrs. Sarah Staub, Mrs. Kathryn Shultz and Mrs. Gertrude Renner.

Elmer Shildt, president, presided at the business session. The opening included group song and pledge of allegiance. The invocation was offered by the Rev. Oscar E. Feeman, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, Two Taverns, and St. Luke's Lutheran Church, near White Hall. Group singing was led by Mrs. Elmira Deardorff, music supervisor. Reports were heard from Mrs. Charles E. Tressler, secretary, and Mrs. Preston L. Myers, treasurer.

The project adopted for the year is the securing of an amplifying system for the high school. Committees appointed included: Sound system, Paul A. Harner, Miss LeOra L. Held and L. Robert Snyder; financial committee, Earl L. Stites, chairman, Mrs. John Kump, Dale W. Starry, Mrs. John Burgoon and Mrs. Marvin F. Breighner. A music committee was also appointed, to include Mrs. Arthur E. Bair Jr., pianist, and Mrs. Richard A. Long, assistant.

Seek More Members

The PTA is conducting a membership drive and the class which secures the largest membership will be awarded a cash prize of $5; a second prize of $2.50 fill be given. The Fifth grade, taught by Mrs. Knechel, was recipient of the award for the largest attendance at the September meeting.

H. Dean Stover, chairman of the program committee, announced that Mrs. Charles A. Smith, Gettysburg, will speak on the PTA at the Oct. 18 meeting. The October refreshment committee includes: Mrs. Stanley Horner, chairman, Mrs. William C. Karns, Mrs. John Bowers, Mrs. G. Richard Knipple and Mrs. Richard A. Maitland.

Those having pie plates or other containers from PTA food sales are asked to return them to the school. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joseph Cookson, Mrs. Atlee F. Rebert, Mrs. Beaven F. Hanlon, Mrs. Richard A. Long and Mrs. Kenneth K. Kroh.

First Caterpillar Airs His Parachute

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — White-haired Henry Wacker every year takes out a tattered bundle of yellow cloth and gives an airing to a famous old parachute. It's the chute in which Wacker jumped for his life from a burning blimp in July, 1919, and thus became Caterpillar No. 1 — first of the club of fliers who have parachuted to safety from disabled aircraft.

Wacker, an aviation mechanic for the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., was aboard the firm's blimp "Wingfoot Express" over Chicago when it burst into flames. He was the first to jump with his crude, British-made chute, and pilot Jack Boettner followed.

It was the only leap for Wacker, now retired. "I give the parachute an airing out of gratitude every year," he says. "It's half scorched from the flames that enveloped the bag that day."

FIRE AUXILIARY TO SERVE GOC IN KINGSDALE

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Kingsdale Volunteer Fire Company decided to serve as spotters for the Littlestown Ground Observer Corps, at the September meeting of the Auxiliary held on Monday evening at the engine house near town. The members will serve as GOC spotters on the second and fourth Tuesday of every month from 12 noon to 6 p.m., beginning in November.

The meeting opened with group singing, led by Mrs. Clyde W. Crouse. A devotional reading was given by Mrs. William J. Lippy, chaplain. Reports were heard from Mrs. Glenn E. Crouse, secretary, Mrs. Donald Hess, treasurer, and Mrs. Edwin L. Harget, chairman of the cheer committee. Mrs. Walter F. Crouse reported for the kitchen committee that ash trays had been purchased for the engine house. Notes of thanks were read from Mrs. Amos Spangler and Mrs. Frank Plitt. The Auxiliary was notified of the illness of Katherine Baadte, and it was decided to shower her with get-well greetings.

A letter of appreciation was read from Fred Gerrick, chairman of the Kingsdale Firemen's Carnival committee, thanking the Auxiliary on behalf of the company for assistance rendered at the carnival. An appreciation party for the Auxiliary and firemen who made the carnival a success will be held in the near future. A definite date and other details for the affair will be announced.

A vote of thanks was given Henry Barnes, who recently built and installed cupboards in the kitchen at the engine house. Mrs. Joel Mummert was welcomed into membership. During the social hour, parlor bingo was enjoyed and refreshments were served by Mrs. Glenn Lippy, Mrs. William Lippy and Mrs. Robert Miller.

The Auxiliary will meet again on Monday, October 17, with Mrs. Arthur Mummert, Mrs. Curvin Mummert and Mrs. Frank Plitt comprising the refreshment committee.

POT AND KETTLE DRIVING

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — A motorist reported to police that a reckless driver had been following him, trying to hit his car. He gave the license number of the offender. About the same time, another motorist reported a case of reckless driving. He said he had chased the man to warn him not to drive so recklessly, but couldn't catch him.

Tourist Helped By Unknown Samaritan

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Walter Moriarty knows where to come the next time he needs help.

Driving home to New York from California, he told the Albuquerque Tribune, he blew out a tire and had no funds with which to buy a new one. An Albuquerque man, known to Moriarty only as a construction worker named Hastings, took the tourist into Albuquerque, paid for tire repairs and then drove Moriarty back to his stalled car and stranded family. Moriarty so far has had no luck finding his benefactor to repay him.

BULGANIN SENDS MESSAGE TO IKE

WASHINGTON (AP)—A personal message from Russian Premier Nikolai Bulganin to President Eisenhower was under study today while a U. N. Disarmament subcommittee marked time in New York.

Officials here declined to discuss the message beyond confirming that it had been sent through the State Department to the President's vacation headquarters in Denver. They said they understood copies went also to British Prime Minister Anthony Eden and French Premier Edgar Faure.

London dispatches said a message to Eden dealt with disarmament.

Postpone Meeting

Meantime a U. S. spokesman at United Nations headquarters in New York disclaimed knowledge of the message but announced a one-day postponement of the Disarmament subcommittee meeting. That group had been planning to wind up its talks today. The talks have been stalemated in recent days.

The United States has been pushing President Eisenhower's plan for free aerial inspection and an exchange of military blueprints.

GETS 5 YEARS FOR EMBEZZLING

BALTIMORE (AP) — At 79, William Arthur Leffler faces five years in prison.

The one-time mayor of Havre de Grace pleaded guilty yesterday to charges of making false entries in the records of the Citizens National Bank where he was executive vice president.

He acknowledged that the shortages had been building up for 20 years. They pyramided into a $99,000 deficit.

Also Fined

Federal Judge W. Calvin Chesnut, who is 83, sentenced Leffler and also fined him $5,000.

Walter E. Black, assistant U.S. Attorney, said only $43,000 of the shortage had been pinned down exactly. Most of the money was used to cover the overdrawn accounts of the now-defunct New Home Building Assn., of which Leffler was the key figure, Black said.

It was revealed that Leffler tried to shoot himself when the shortage first was suspected last year.

Two other former employes have been indicted in the case. William C. Bechtold was convicted last week of making one false entry. He has not been sentenced. Aubrey N. Mitchell, accused of making two false entries, will be tried later.

Driver Killed When Trailer Overturns

COLLEGEVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Robert McKenzie, 40, of Paulsboro, N.J., was killed late last night when his tractor-trailer overturned at an intersection of the Germantown Pike, about a quarter mile east of here.

Police said McKenzie's vehicle, owned by the Lancaster Transportation Co. of Philadelphia, struck an island in the Y-shaped intersection and overturned, pinning him in the cab. The trailer was loaded with sheet metal and paint.

NEW TROPICAL STORM FAR OUT OVER ATLANTIC

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The season's 10th tropical storm named Janet, spun far out in the Atlantic today and Weather Bureau forecasters predicted it would grow in size and intensity.

The storm was about 250 miles east-southeast of Fort de France, Martinique, in the French West Indies, at 5 a.m. EST. That put it roughly 1,700 miles southeast of Miami.

It was moving in a northwesterly direction at about 15 m.p.h. and was expected to continue at that pace throughout the morning, with a slow increase in intensity.

The storm's strongest winds ranged up to 70 miles an hour near the center, and gale winds spread outward 100 miles to the north and 50 to 75 miles to the south.

Spotted Wednesday Night

The Weather Bureau at San Juan, P.R., spotted Janet last night about 350 miles east-southeast of the French West Indies, but no reports had been received from the vicinity of the disturbance early today.

"Janet has a well-developed eye and it looks like we've got another hurricane on our hands," said Miami Weather Bureau.

A Navy hurricane-hunting plane set out at dawn to track down the storm.

It was born just a week after Hurricane Ione blew up 320 miles east of Puerto Rico. Ione crashed ashore on the North Carolina coast, causing an estimated 160 million dollars damage and seven deaths.

Hit Newfoundland

Ione then veered northeastward, sparing the populous northeastern United States but hitting St. Johns, Nfld., with winds up to 82 miles an hour and causing flooded conditions there.

Hilda, formed Sept. 12 about 840 miles east-southeast of Miami, roared through Cuba, then spun across the Caribbean and hit Mexico, where the unofficial death toll exceeded 200.

Hilda and Ione were still on the weather map when Janet was born although thousands of miles separated the trio.

Rev. Frank Snavely Is Eldership Head

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Rev. Frank H. Snavely, Wormleysburg, is the new president of the East Pennsylvania Eldership of the Churches of God in North America.

He was elected yesterday at the 126th annual meeting.

The Rev. Preston Lucas, Enhaut, was elected beneficial society president.

M. A. Hoff, chairman of the board of the Old Folks' and Children's Home, Carlisle, was elected delegate to the General Eldership to be held in Decatur, Ill., next June. The Rev. C. H. Lefever, York, was designated alternate.

Re-elected treasurer was H. L. Brightbill, of Penbrook.

Enhaut was chosen as the site for next year's conference.

Mount Carmel-Mahanoy City Grid Battle Is Scholastic Sports Attraction Friday

HARRISBURG (AP) — The top schoolboy football game in the state this weekend will pit Mount Carmel, defending East Penn champions, against Mahanoy City.

The contest highlights a statewide card of action that will see virtually all state high school elevens in action. Races in nearly every region are wide open.

The Red Tornadoes of Mount Carmel are seeking their second straight East Penn conference crown. Their tilt with Mahanoy City—should they win—would be only the first bump in a rocky grid road.

So far this year the Tornado defense has shunted off all attacks while Coach Mike Terry's offense has reaped a 52-point harvest—18 against Sayre and 34 against powerful Tamaqua.

Has Edge On Wins

Meanwhile, the Mahanoy City club has carded an impressive 20-14 win over traditionally strong Pottsville. Also, on their home ground, the city lads will be seeking to wipe out the stigma of an 18-0 loss to Mount Carmel last year. Mount Carmel has a lopsided 25-7 edge in a series dating back to 1909.

Meanwhile, the four remaining teams who passed through the 1954 season undefeated and untied and still have an unbroken string will go into action this weekend.

In another Southern Division East Penn Conference game, Mahanoy Twp. will attempt to preserve its 14-game winning streak that dates back to 1953.

Conemaugh Unbeaten

The Townshippers meet St. Clair and the game marks the mid-point for the Saints in a series extending back to 1940. The Saints have won seven of 12 meetings.

Last weekend Mahanoy Twp. toppled Shenandoah, 26-6, while St. Twp. 32-20.

In the Western Conference powerful Conemaugh Twp. hopes to maintain its unbeaten string against Ferndale and the odds favor the Conemaugh Twp. record.

In games this year the defending Western Conference champs have up-ended Lewistown 41-6 and Boswell 52-7. Last year they erased Ferndale, 33-14.

Other undefeated teams in action will be Old Forge in a tilt with Blakely and Lower Merion, suburban Philadelphia champion, which opens its season against Downingtown.

Meanwhile Central Penn League teams vie for contention while defending champion Williamsport takes a weekend off from league play. Prime contest in the league sets Steelton against Reading, with the Steeler, favored on the basis of their 1954 10-1 record.

Out west the rugged WPIAL AA is enmeshed in a dog-eat-dog battle for top honors.

With Clairton High, the defending champion already out of the picture—thanks to Connellsville's stunning upset two weeks ago—the race is wide open.

The field of eligible competitors has been pared down to 26 from 39, and several more will hit the discard this weekend. A loss or a tie eliminates a competitor from title contention.

Top WPIAL games feature New Kensington at Johnstown, Jeannette at Turtle Creek, Redstone at Brownsville, Munhall at Scott, Latrobe at Penn, McKeesport at Aliquippa and Trinity at Washington.

3 ORDAINED AT BRETHREN MEET

HARRISBURG (AP)—The 156th annual session of the East Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church turned to last minute busines today prior to announcement of pastoral changes at tonight's closing session.

Three church members were ordained yesterday as elders and six others were voted license to preach.

Ordained elders were: Harry Elwood Aughinbaugh and Robert Mowery Daugherty, both Harrisburg, and Edward Walter Steiner, Ono.

Licensed To Preach

Probationers voted annual conference license to preach were: Russel W. Barr, Allentown; Frederick E. Bennetch, Schaefferstown; Harvey W. Boright, Lebanon; Jere R. Martin, Lancaster, James M. Stayer, Denver; and Clair L. Wagner, Mount Joy.

The Rev. Harry W. Zehman, Harrisburg, was elected secretary of evangelism. The Rev. E. M. Rhoad also Harrisburg, was chosen secretary of Christian social action. The Rev. D. Leroy Fegley was named secretary of stewardship.

Littlestown

LITTLESTOWN — The King's Daughters and the Young Men's Bible Classes of Christ Reformed Church School will sponsor a roast turkey supper for the public on Saturday at 4 p.m., serving family style, in the church grove auditorium. The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Wildasin, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Sterner, Mr. and Mrs. Russell V. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin C. Markle, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. Sterner, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard W. Dutterer and Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Mummert.

A service will be held in the Southern Methodist Church, Crouse Park, this evening at 8 o'clock, featuring Rev. Archie Hartman and a musical group. On Friday at 8 p.m., there will be an old fashioned hymn sing, when Rev. A. J. Krantz will be speaker, and singing will be led by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Smith, York.

Brownie Girl Scout Troop 43 will meet on Friday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. Sewing is the current project of the troop, and girls planning to make aprons are asked to bring material to the meeting. Materials will be furnished for those wishing to make doll clothes.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Redeemer's Reformed Church will hold a food sale on Friday afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock, at the engine house. Pies and vegetable soup will be sold in addition to the usual baked items.

Sandra Lee King, daughter of Airman Lov Lee and Jean (Mitzi) King, E. King St., was baptized during the Sunday morning worship service in Centenary Methodist Church, by the pastor, the Rev. Joseph Wood.

The Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Wood and son Joseph Jane Barton, Margaret Knight and Phyllis Rimel attended the meeting of sub-district of Methodist youth held Monday evening in Hanover. The program included talks on the convocation of Methodist youth held in August at Purdue University.

Daily News Editor Dies Of Heart Attack

BEDFORD VILLAGE, N.Y. (AP)—Robert B. Sullivan, 51, Sunday editor of the New York Daily News and a former Philadelphia newspaperman, died at his suburban home here yesterday, apparently of a heart attack.

Sullivan was born in Lansdowne, Pa., and worked on the former Philadelphia Record and Evening Ledger, where he was assistant city editor, before coming to New York in the early 1930's.

He was a graduate of Swarthmore College and the Philadelphia School of Industrial Arts. He is survived by his widow, Mary, a son, Robert Jr., 21, and a daughter, Helen, 16.

OMAHA (AP)—One Omaha businessman says he received a letter from a client who makes cemetery monuments. The letterhead carried this message: "Drive Carefully. We can wait."

The Auxiliary will meet again on Monday, October 17, with Mrs. Arthur Mummert, Mrs. Curvin Mummert and Mrs. Frank Plitt comprising the refreshment committee.

POT AND KETTLE DRIVING

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — A motorist reported to police that a reckless driver had been following him, trying to hit his car. He gave the license number of the offender. About the same time, another motorist reported a case of reckless driving. He said he had chased the man to warn him not to drive so recklessly, but couldn't catch him.

Tourist Helped By Unknown Samaritan

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Walter Moriarty knows where to come the next time he needs help.

Driving home to New York from California, he told the Albuquerque Tribune, he blew out a tire and had no funds with which to buy a new one. An Albuquerque man, known to Moriarty only as a construction worker named Hastings, took the tourist into Albuquerque, paid for tire repairs and then drove Moriarty back to his stalled car and stranded family. Moriarty so far has had no luck finding his benefactor to repay him.

BULGANIN SENDS MESSAGE TO IKE

WASHINGTON (AP)—A personal message from Russian Premier Nikolai Bulganin to President Eisenhower was under study today while a U. N. Disarmament subcommittee marked time in New York.

Officials here declined to discuss the message beyond confirming that it had been sent through the State Department to the President's vacation headquarters in Denver. They said they understood copies went also to British Prime Minister Anthony Eden and French Premier Edgar Faure.

London dispatches said a message to Eden dealt with disarmament.

Postpone Meeting

Meantime a U. S. spokesman at United Nations headquarters in New York disclaimed knowledge of the message but announced a one-day postponement of the Disarmament subcommittee meeting. That group had been planning to wind up its talks today. The talks have been stalemated in recent days.

The United States has been pushing President Eisenhower's plan for free aerial inspection and an exchange of military blueprints.

GETS 5 YEARS FOR EMBEZZLING

BALTIMORE (AP) — At 79, William Arthur Leffler faces five years in prison.

The one-time mayor of Havre de Grace pleaded guilty yesterday to charges of making false entries in the records of the Citizens National Bank where he was executive vice president.

He acknowledged that the shortages had been building up for 20 years. They pyramided into a $99,000 deficit.

Also Fined

Federal Judge W. Calvin Chesnut, who is 83, sentenced Leffler and also fined him $5,000.

Walter E. Black, assistant U.S. Attorney, said only $43,000 of the shortage had been pinned down exactly. Most of the money was used to cover the overdrawn accounts of the now-defunct New Home Building Assn., of which Leffler was the key figure, Black said.

It was revealed that Leffler tried to shoot himself when the shortage first was suspected last year.

Two other former employes have been indicted in the case. William C. Bechtold was convicted last week of making one false entry. He has not been sentenced. Aubrey N. Mitchell, accused of making two false entries, will be tried later.

Driver Killed When Trailer Overturns

COLLEGEVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Robert McKenzie, 40, of Paulsboro, N.J., was killed late last night when his tractor-trailer overturned at an intersection of the Germantown Pike, about a quarter mile east of here.

Police said McKenzie's vehicle, owned by the Lancaster Transportation Co. of Philadelphia, struck an island in the Y-shaped intersection and overturned, pinning him in the cab. The trailer was loaded with sheet metal and paint.

The Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Wood and son Joseph, Jane Barton, Margaret Knight and Phyllis Rimel attended the meeting of sub-district of Methodist youth held Monday evening in Hanover. The program included talks on the convocation of Methodist youth held in August at Purdue University.

Daily News Editor Dies Of Heart Attack

BEDFORD VILLAGE, N.Y. (AP)—Robert B. Sullivan, 51, Sunday editor of the New York Daily News and a former Philadelphia newspaperman, died at his suburban home here yesterday, apparently of a heart attack.

Sullivan was born in Lansdowne, a., and worked on the former Philadelphia Record and Evening Ledger, where he was assistant city editor, before coming to New York in the early 1930's.

He was a graduate of Swarthmore College and the Philadelphia School of Industrial Arts. He is survived by his widow, Mary, a son, Robert Jr., 21, and a daughter, Helen, 16.

NEW TROPICAL STORM FAR OUT OVER ATLANTIC

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The season's 10th tropical storm named Janet, spun far out in the Atlantic today and Weather Bureau forecasters predicted it would grow in size and intensity.

The storm was about 250 miles east-southeast of Fort de France, Martinique, in the French West Indies, at 5 a.m., EST. That put it roughly 1,700 miles southeast of Miami.

It was moving in a northwesterly direction at about 15 m.p.h. and was expected to continue at that pace throughout the morning, wih a slow increase in intensity.

The storm's strongest winds ranged up to 70 miles an hour near the center, and gale winds spread outward 100 miles to the north and 50 to 75 miles to the south.

Spotted Wednesday Night

The Weather Bureau at San Juan, P.R., spotted Janet last night about 350 miles east-southeast of the French West Indies, but no reports had been received from the vicinity of the disturbance early today.

"Janet has a well-developed eye and it looks like we've got another hurricane on our hands," said Miami Weather Bureau.

A Navy hurricane-hunting plane set out at dawn to track down the storm.

It was born just a week after Hurricane Ione blew up 320 miles east of Puerto Rico. Ione crashed ashone on the North Carolina coast, causing an estimated 160 million dollars damage and seven deaths.

Hit Newfoundland

Ione then veered northeastward, sparing the populous northeastern United States but hitting St. Johns, Nfld., wih winds up to 82 miles an hour and causing flooded conditions there.

Hilda, formed Sept. 12 about 840 miles east-southeast of Miami, roared through Cuba, then spun across the Caribbean and hit Mexico, where the unofficial death toll exceeded 200.

Hilda and Ione were still on the weather map when Janet was born although thousands of miles separated the trio.

Rev. Frank Snavely Is Eldership Head

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Rev. Frank H. Snavely, Wormleysburg, is the new president of the East Pennsylvania Eldership of the Churches of God in North America.

He was elected yesterday at the 126th annual meeting.

The Rev. Preston Lucas, Enhaut, was elected beneficial society president.

M. A. Hoff, chairman of the board of the Old Folks' and Children's Home, Carlisle, was elected delegate to the General Eldership to be held in Decatur, Ill., next June. The Rev. C. H. Lefever, York, was designated alternate.

Re-elected treasurer was H. L. Brightbill, of Penbrook.

Enhaut was chosen as the site for next year's conference.

Mount Carmel-Mahanoy City Grid Battle Is Scholastic Sports Attraction Friday

HARRISBURG (AP) — The top schoolboy football game in the state this weekend will pit Mount Carmel, defending East Penn champions, against Mahanoy City.

The contest highlights a statewide card of action that will see virtually all state high school elevens in action. Races in nearly every region are wide open.

The Red Tornadoes of Mount Carmel are seeking their second straight East Penn conference crown. Their tilt with Mahanoy City—should they win—would be only the first bump in a rocky grid road.

So far this year the Tornado defense has shunted off all attacks while Coach Mike Terry's offense has reaped a 52-point harvest—18 against Sayre and 34 against powerful Tamaqua.

Has Edge On Wins

Meanwhile, the Mahanoy City club has carded an impressive 20-14 win over traditionally strong Pottsville. Also, on their home ground, the city lads will be seeking to wipe out the stigma of an 18-0 loss to Mount Carmel last year. Mount Carmel has a lopsided 25-7 edge in a series dating back to 1909.

Meanwhile, the four remaining teams who passed through the 1954 season undefeated and untied and still have an unbroken string will go into action this weekend.

In another Southern Division East Penn Conference game, Mahanoy Twp. will attempt to preserve its 14-game winning streak that dates back to 1953.

Conemaugh Unbeaten

The Townshippers meet St. Clair and the game marks the mid-point for the Saints in a series extending back to 1940. The Saints have won seven of 12 meetings.

Last weekend Mahanoy Twp. toppled Shenandoah, 26-6, while St. Twp. 32-20.

In the Western Conference powerful Conemaugh Twp. hopes to maintain its unbeaten string against Ferndale and the odds favor the Conemaugh Twp. record.

In games this year the defending Western Conference champs have up-ended Lewistown 41-6 and Boswell 52-7. Last year they erased Ferndale, 33-14.

Other undefeated teams in action will be Old Forge in a tilt with Blakely and Lower Merion, suburban Philadelphia champion, which opens its season against Downingtown.

Meanwhile, Central Penn League teams vie for contention while defending champion Williamsport takes a weekend off from league play. Prime contest in the league sets Steelton against Reading, with the Steelers favored on the basis of their 1954 10-1 record.

Out west the rugged WPIAL AA is enmeshed in a dog-eat-dog battle for top honors.

With Clairton High, the defending champion already out of the picture—thanks to Connellsville's stunning upset two weeks ago—the race is wide open.

The field of eligible competitors has been pared down to 26 from 39, and several more will hit the discard this weekend. A loss or a tie eliminates a competitor from title contention.

Top WPIAL games feature New Kensington at Johnstown, Jeannette at Turtle Creek, Redstone at Brownsville, Munhall at Scott, Latrobe at Penn, McKeesport at Aliquippa and Trinity at Washington.

3 ORDAINED AT BRETHREN MEET

HARRISBURG (AP)—The 156th annual sesion of the East Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church turned to last minute busines today prior to announcement of pastoral changes at tonight's closing session.

Three church members were ordained yesterday as elders and six others were voted license to preach.

Ordained elders were: Harry Elwood Aughinbaugh and Robert Mowery Daugherty, both Harrisburg, and Edward Walter Steiner, Ono.

Licensed To Preach

Probationers voted annual conference license to preach were: Russel W. Barr, Allentown; Frederick E. Bennetch, Schaefferstown; Harvey W. Ebright, Lebanon; Jere R. Martin, Lancaster; James M. Stayer, Denver; and Clair L. Wagner, Mount Joy.

The Rev. Harry W. Zehman, Harrisburg, was elected secretary of evangelism. The Rev. E. M. Rhoad also Harrisburg, was chosen secretary of Christian social action. The Rev. D Leroy Fegley was named secretary of stewardship.

First Caterpillar Airs His Parachute

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — White-haired Henry Wacker every year takes out a tattered bundle of yellow cloth and gives an airing to a famous old parachute. It's the chute in which Wacker jumped for his life from a burning blimp in July, 1919, and thus became Caterpillar No 1 — first of the club of fliers who have parachuted to safety from disabled aircraft

Wacker an aviation mechanic for the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., was aboard the firm's blimp "Wingfoot Express" over Chicago when it burst into flames He was the first to jump with his crude, British-made chute, and pilot Jack Boettner followed

It was the only leap for Wacker, now retired "I give the parachute an airing out of gratitude every year," he says "It's half scorched from the flames that enveloped the bag that day"

HOUSE PLANS TO TAKE RECESS IN OCT. AND NOV.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Speaker Andrews (D-Cambria) said today the Democratic-controlled House will take an October-November recess whether the Republican Senate goes or not.

"The Senate now has possession of more than 500 bills passed by the House with no sign it plans to do anything about them," Andrews said in an interview. "Except for taxes, the work of the House is virtually finished."

He explained that the House members would be subject to immediate return to Harrisburg should Gov. Leader and Republican and Democratic leaders reach an agreement on taxes.

Another factor which brought about a House Democratic decision to adjourn after next week's session until Dec. 5 is the imminent shortage of hotel rooms in Harrisburg.

Hotels To Be Filled

The city's major hotels are booked solid for much of October and November because of state conventions scheduled many months before the present tax impasse was envisioned.

Nearly a dozen senators and House members are running for local office in the Nov. 8 municipal election campaign and most of the other lawmakers are active in local politics. This fact also would bite into any plans to meet in the weeks immediately prior to election day.

Neither House can adjourn without permission of the other for any extended period of time. If Senate Republicans should object to the two-month recess, Andrews said, the House would simply maintain a token force in Harrisburg to carry the pretense of a formal session.

Sen. Mahany, Senate Republican floor leader, said no House Democrat has approached him about a two-month recess. He said a Senate decision on such a point would have to be taken up by the GOP caucus.

If cattle are slaughtered less than four days after they have been on pasture where onions are common, the beef will often have onion flavor.

Israel Lauded By Governor Leader

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Gov. Leader says the republic of Israel "is an outpost of twentieth century progress in a blighted fourteenth century dominated area."

Declaring that Israel "stands for the kind of freedom every American understands," Leader told a State of Israel bonds dinner last night that:

"This is so because of the spirit of Israel's people, the spirit of venture that marks out the pioneer, the spirit of vision that comes from faith, the spirit of confidence that depends on man's capacity to remold the earth.

"Such cards of credentials will always be honored by the American people."

KIWANIANS ELECT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Three central Pennsylvania men were elected to top posts of the state Kiwanis International yesterday at the closing session of the group's 38th annual convention.

DOCTOR SAYS UNION DISPUTE IS OVER MONEY

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Disputes between doctors and organized labor over union health programs will be solved "when we finally decide who gets what for how many dollars," a prominent physician says.

Dr. Edgar Meiser of Lancaster, chairman of the committee on medical economics of the Pennsylvania Medical Society, made the statement yesterday at the society's 105th annual convention.

Dr. Meiser said:

"Every problem that has arisen between labor and medicine in the operation of these (welfare) funds ... is based on one simple thing —the dollar. When we finally decide who gets what for how many dollars, all our problems will be solved."

He declared the medical profession itself must fix the amount of fees, determine the method of payment and judge the competency and conduct of doctors.

Learn Self Discipline

"If we do not learn a bit of self-discipline, if we insist on being overly polite and uncritical of our members ... we are again inviting control of medicine by others."

Dr. Warren F. Draper, executive medical director of the United Mine Workers welfare and retirement fund, declared it's up to the medical profession to "police its own ranks and stop white-washing investigations of abuses" reported by fund officials.

Dr. Meiser heads a committee which has been negotiating with the UMW over such complaints. He has reported some progress, but Dr. Draper said several problems have still not been solved.

Charges Overcharging

He said doctors abused the UMW program by overcharging, needless hospitalization and through treatment by physicians not best qualified to give it.

"It is generally known ... that these problems exist and that a satisfactory solution must be found."

John F. Tomayko, of the insurance and pension department of the CIO United Steelworkers, said a survey showed 50 per cent of the medical bills of steelworkers call for payments over the Blue Shield schedule.

He said the situation is getting "progressively worse" and urged that the society and the USW work out a fee schedule together.

LEADERS MEET AGAIN

U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, left, shakes hands with Russia's Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov as they meet each other before opening of the 10th session of the General Assembly at United Nations, New York, Tuesday. Molotov urged the Assembly to seat Red China. Instead the 60-nation Assembly backed an American motion to table the issue for the duration of this session. (AP Wirephoto)

Rev. Dr. N. Peale's Father Succumbs

HARRISON VALLEY, Pa. (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Charles Clifford Peale, 85, father of Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, died at his home here yesterday.

The elder Peale was a doctor of medicine before becoming a Methodist minister. A native of Lynchburg, Ohio, he had served a number of pastorates in Ohio and in New York before his retirement in 1943.

Besides the Rev. Norman Peale, who is pastor of the Marble Collegiate Church of New York City, two other sons survive. They are Dr. Robert Clifford Peale, a physician of Olean, N.Y., and the Rev. Leonard D. Peale, pastor of the First Methodist Church of New Hartford, N.Y.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Department of Labor and Industry today named Abe Belsky of North Hills, Montgomery County, as secretary of the Pennsylvania State Labor Relations Board.

Belsky succeeds George Walker, Mahonoy City, in the $6,990-year post. The appointment was effective last Monday.

SAYS CLEANING CONTRACT WAS $10,000 SAVING

HARRISBURG (AP)—The secretary of property and supplies contended today that the awarding of a state contract for window cleaning to the nephew of former U.S. Sen. Joseph F. Guffey has saved the commonwealth $10,000.

William D. Thomas, defending the award of the $40,000 contract, said:

"The building superintendents testified they personally inspected the cleaning and reported contract specifications are being met and the work now performed is superior to work performed by previous contractors."

Thomas made the statement yesterday after Gov. Leader was asked to cancel a contract awarded last May for cleaning windows in Capitol buildings The contract went to Lowery A. Guffey, McKeesport, nephew of the former Democratic senator.

Was Low Bidder

David S. Kohn, Harrisburg attorney who represents the American Window Cleaning Co. and the Harrisburg Window Cleaning Co. which held the contract for the last 16 years, said Guffey formed his company, Capitol Window Cleaners, "after receiving the state contract."

Thomas said he talked to Capitol building superintendents concerning Kohn's letter and the Guffey firm and another known as Norristown Window Cleaning Co., Norristown, received the contract because they underbid the previous firms by almost $10,000.

Speeders Join 55 Mile An Hour Unit

DUNN, N. C. (AP) — Speeders convicted in Harnett County are invited to join the 55 Club. The state speed limit is 55 miles an hour.

Membership cards say they are eligible "by reason of being convicted of a speeding violation on the highways of the state and by reason of the fact that (they have) since that conviction, promised to assist the fight against speeding in Harnett County and North Carolina."

Cpl. Romie F. Williamson of the state Highway Patrol originated the idea for the club which is approved by Ed Scheidt, state motor vehicles commissioner.

NO LIVES LOST DURING NAVY'S ARCTIC MISSION

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy points with pride to a "great victory" over arctic barriers in taking supplies to the nation's northernmost radar outposts.

Vice Adm. F. C. Denebrink, commander of the Military Sea Transport Service, said yesterday this summer's shipments to build the distant early warning (DEW) radar defense line marked the first use of the historic Northwest Passage to move men and supplies.

Denebrink said not a life was lost among the 18,647 people aboard 126 ships in the three-month operation. He said quite a few ships did suffer damage and ran aground, but repairs were so efficient that all but two vessels were heading homeward under own power after rounding Point Barrow, Alaska, this week.

The admiral said 548,000 measurement tons of general supplies and 3,686,000 barrels of petroleum products were unloaded along the 1,500-mile stretch of the Greenland-Alaska DEW line the Navy concentrated on this summer, and at other northern posts. A measurement ton, one way of figuring the volume of cargo, is usually reckoned at 40 cubic feet.

Size Of Car Avenges Imaginary Slight

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — French Robertson, chairman of the Texas Prison Board, said an old school chum who went wrong was considerably miffed because Robertson wouldn't use some influence a get him out of prison.

"I'll get even with you someday," the man told Robertson.

A few years later, Robertson said the man came to his office and told him, "come outside."

Robertson did.

"See that big car," he said. "It's just like yours. I told you I'd get even with you someday."

TIME FOR PREACHER

TONKAWA, Okla. (AP) — Everything was in readiness for the Sunday service at the First Methodist Church, except the minister was missing. A phone call revealed the Rev. Ray Lawler had been taking his time because his clock was 35 minutes off. He rushed to the pulpit and began the service.

Exhausted Elephant Trapped By Posse

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Weary the elephant puzzled tamers and chomped domesticated hay today, having put behind her 11 days of freedom-loving romping in the woodlands of Mecklenburg County.

USES KNIFE TO ROB MARYLAND WOMAN IN CAR

PORT DEPOSIT, Md., (AP)—Possemen today continued their search for an elusive holdup man who took $2,020 from a Port Deposit woman at knifepoint yesterday.

The manhunt concentrated on Whittaker's Barrens, a lonely, 12,-000-acre woods near the Bainbridge Naval Training Center.

State police, sheriff's deputies, and Navy shore patrolmen resumed the search at daybreak. They had scoured the section several hours when darkness hampered their efforts last night. But an all-night guard was maintained on all roads in the area, particularly at the Susquehanna River bridge on U.S. 40.

Victim of the holdup was Mrs. Rheba Ratledge, wife of a building contractor. She had taken a $2,020 check to the bank, cashed it, and planned to turn the money over to an officer of the bank to pay off a loan made to her husband.

But the man with whom she sought to do business was not there, so she left the bank with the $2,020 in her purse.

Mrs. Ratledge told officers she drove to Havre de Grace and stopped at a grocery store. After shopping, she got back in the car and started back across the Susquehanna Bridge to Port Deposit.

A man rose up from the back seat of the car, she said, and shoved a knife against her side. He directed her to go on across the bridge, off U.S. 40, and over several back roads.

He took some doughnuts from her shopping bag and ate them on the way.

When she had driven down a little used road into the Whittaker Barrens area, Mrs. Ratledge said, the man got out and ran into the woods.

She described him as a swarthy looking Puerto Rican and said he was wearing a dirty T-shirt and blue dungarees.

Hurricanes May Shift To Florida

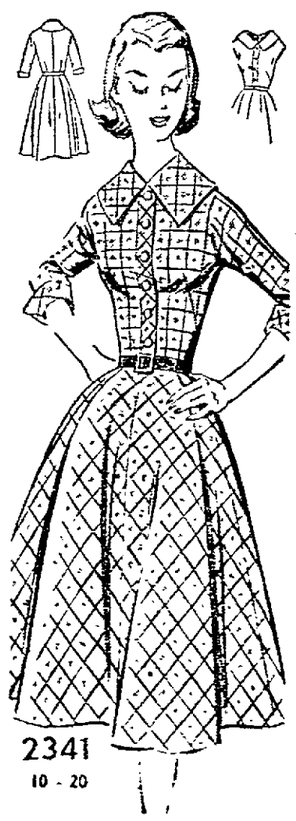

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Weather experts believe the barrage of hurricanes slamming into the Middle Atlantic and New England states may soon shift back to Florida.

Gordon Dunn, chief storm forecaster in the Miami Weather Bureau, said today the current hurricane cycle "has lasted fully as long as it normally does, and on a statistical basis, we would say the trend ought to reverse itself right away—by that meaning in the next year or two."

If this is true, Dunn added, Florida's five-year immunity from hurricanes may be about over.

Exhausted Elephant Trapped By Posse

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Vicki the elephant guzzled tap water and chomped domesticated hay today, having put behind her 11 days of free-lance foraging in the woodlands of Mecklenburg County.

The 6-year-old Indian elephant, who went rambling Sept. 11 from her amusement park home about six miles from downtown Charlotte was run down yesterday by a volunteer posse.

Her pursuers herded her into an open field and let her exhaust herself with aimles running about. Then they circled her methodically with strands of rope, and when the web was completed snared her feet and got an elephant hook in her ear.

Vicki, once again tractable, returned at a leisurely pace with her captors to the amusement park.

USES KNIFE TO ROB MARYLAND WOMAN IN CAR

PORT DEPOSIT, Md., (AP)—Possemen today continued their search for an elusive holdup man who took $2,020 from a Port Deposit woman at knifepoint yesterday.

The manhunt concentrated on Whittaker's Barrens, a lonely, 12,000-acre woods near the Bainbridge Naval Training Center.

State police, sheriff's deputies, and Navy shore patrolmen resumed the search at daybreak. They had scoured the section several hours when darkness hampered their efforts last night. But an all-night guard was maintained on all roads in the area, particularly at the Susquehanna River bridge on U.S. 40.

Victim of the holdup was Mrs. Rheba Ratledge, wife of a building contractor. She had taken a $2,020 check to the bank, cashed it, and planned to turn the money over to an officer of the bank to pay off a loan made to her husband.

But the man with whom she sought to do business was not there, so she left the bank with the $2,020 in her purse.

Mrs. Ratledge told officers she drove to Havre de Grace and stopped at a grocery store. After shopping, she got back in the car and started back across the Susquehanna Bridge to Port Deposit.

A man rose up from the back seat of the car, she said, and shoved a knife against her side. He directed her to go on across the bridge, off U.S. 40, and over several back roads.

He took some doughnuts from her shopping bag and ate them on the way.

When she had driven down a little used road into the Whittaker Barrens area, Mrs. Ratledge said, the man got out and ran into the woods.

She described him as a swarthy looking Puerto Rican and said he was wearing a dirty T-shirt and blue dungarees.

Hurricanes May Shift To Florida

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Weather experts believe the barrage of hurricanes slamming into the Middle Atlantic and New England states may soon shift back to Florida.

Gordon Dunn, chief storm forecaster in the Miami Weather Bureau, said today the current hurricane cycle "has lasted fully as long as it normally does, and on a statistical basis, we would say the trend ought to reverse itself right away—by that meaning in the next year or two."

If this is true, Dunn added, Florida's five-year immunity from hurricanes may be about over.

HOUSE PLANS TO TAKE RECESS IN OCT. AND NOV.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Speaker Andrews (D-Cambria) said today the Democratic-controlled House will take an October-November recess whether the Republican Senate goes or not.

"The Senate now has possession of more than 500 bills passed by the House with no sign it plans to do anything about them," Andrews said in an interview. "Except for taxes, the work of the House is virtually finished."

He explained that the House members would be subject to immediate return to Harrisburg should Gov. Leader and Republican and Democratic leaders reach an agreement on taxes.

Another factor which brought about a House Democratic decision to adjourn after next week's session until Dec. 5 is the imminent shortage of hotel rooms in Harrisburg.

Hotels To Be Filled

The city's major hotels are booked solid for much of October and November because of state conventions scheduled many months before the present tax impasse was envisioned.

Nearly a dozen senators and House members are running for local office in the Nov. 8 municipal election campaign and most of the other lawmakers are active in local politics. This fact also would bite into any plans to meet in the weeks immediately prior to election day.

Neither House can adjourn without permission of the other for any extended period of time. If Senate Republicans should object to the two-month recess, Andrews said, the House would simply maintain a token force in Harrisburg to carry the pretense of a formal session.

Sen. Mahany, Senate Republican floor leader, said no House Democrat has approached him about a two-month recess. He said a Senate decision on such a point would have to be taken up by the GOP caucus.

If cattle are slaughtered less than four days after they have been on pasture where onions are common, the beef will often have onion flavor.

Israel Lauded By Governor Leader

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Gov. Leader says the republic of Israel "is an outpost of twentieth century progress in a blighted fourteenth century dominated area."

Declaring that Israel "stands for the kind of freedom every American understands," Leader told a State of Israel bonds dinner last night that:

"This is so because of the spirit of Israel's people, the spirit of venture that marks out the pioneer, the spirit of vision that comes from faith, the spirit of confidence that depends on man's capacity to remold the earth.

"Such cards of credentials will always be honored by the American people."

KIWANIANS ELECT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Three central Pennsylvania men were elected to top posts of the state Kiwanis International yesterday at the closing session of the group's 38th annual convention.

Richard Anderson, DuBois, was elected district governor, Clifford Johnson, Philipsburg, district treasurer, and William Watson, Ebensburg, district secretary. The district comprises the entire state.

DOCTOR SAYS UNION DISPUTE IS OVER MONEY

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Disputes between doctors and organized Labor over union health programs will be solved "when we finally decide who gets what for how many dollars," a prominent physician says.

Dr. Edgar Meiser of Lancaster, chairman of the committee on medical economics of the Pennsylvania Medical Society, made the statement yesterday at the society's 105th annual convention.

Dr. Meiser said

"Every problem that has arisen between labor and medicine in the operation of these (welfare) funds ... is based on one simple thing —the dollar. When we finally decide who gets what for how many dollars, all our problems will be solved."

He declared the medical profession itself must fix the amount of fees, determine the method of payment and judge the competency and conduct of doctors.

Learn Self Discipline

"If we do not learn a bit of self-discipline, if we insist on being overly polite and uncritical of our members ... we are again inviting control of medicine by others."

Dr. Warren F. Draper, executive medical director of the United Mine Workers welfare and retirement fund, declared it's up to the medical profession to "police its own ranks and stop white-washing investigations of abuses" reported by fund officials.

Dr. Meiser heads a committee which has been negotiating with the UMW over such complaints. He has reported some progress, but Dr. Draper said several problems have still not been solved.

Charges Overcharging

He said doctors abused the UMW program by overcharging, needless hospitalization and through treatment by physicians not best qualified to give it

"It is generally known ... that these problems exist and that a satisfactory solution must be found."

John F. Tomayko, of the insurance and pension department of the CIO United Steelworkers, said a survey showed 50 per cent of the medical bills of steelworkers call for payments over the Blue Shield schedule.

He said the situation is getting "progressively worse" and urged that the society and the USW work out a fee schedule together.

LEADERS MEET AGAIN

U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, left, shakes hands with Russia's Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov as they meet each other before opening of the 10th session of the General Assembly at United Nations, New York, Tuesday. Molotov urged the Assembly to seat Red China. Instead the 60-nation Assembly backed an American motion to table the issue for the duration of this session. (AP Wirephoto)

Rev. Dr. N. Peale's Father Succumbs

HARRISON VALLEY, Pa. (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Charles Clifford Peale, 85, father of Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, died at his home here yesterday.

The elder Peale was a doctor of medicine before becoming a Methodist minister. A native of Lynchburg, Ohio, he had served a number of pastorates in Ohio and in New York before his retirement in 1943.

Besides the Rev. Norman Peale, who is pastor of the Marble Collegiate Church of New York City, two other sons survive. They are Dr. Robert Clifford Peale, a physician of Olean, N.Y., and the Rev. Leonard D. Peale, pastor of the First Methodist Church of New Hartford, N.Y.

Recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Mary Claudia Rosensteel were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sprankle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Amrhein, Baltimore; Mrs. Glen Polly, Fairfield; Mr. and Mrs. Herb Sprankle Jr. and son, Havre de Grace, Md.; Mrs. George Callan and sons, Frederick, Brother Verne and Brother Mariano, Xaverian College, Silver Spring, Md. Brother Verne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sprankle, Baltimore, and the grandson of Mrs. Rosensteel.

Mrs. Charles B. Shaughnessy, Faculty Row, entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. John Cunningham, Washington, D. C. Mrs. Cunningham and two small sons are visiting her mother, Mrs. Marie Rial, Clairveaux.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Department of Labor and Industry today named Abe Belsky of North Hills, Montgomery County, as secretary of the Pennsylvania State Labor Relations Board.

Belsky succeeds George Walker, Mahonoy City, in the $6,990-year post. The appointment was effective last Monday.

SAYS CLEANING CONTRACT WAS $10,000 SAVING

HARRISBURG (AP)—The secretary of property and supplies contended today that the awarding of a state contract for window cleaning to the nephew of former U.S. Sen. Joseph F. Guffey has saved the commonwealth $10,000.

William D. Thomas, defending the award of the $40,000 contract, said:

"The building superintendents testified they personally inspected the cleaning and reported contract specifications are being met and the work now performed is superior to work performed by previous contractors."

Thomas made the statement yesterday after Gov. Leader was asked to cancel a contract awarded last May for cleaning windows in Capitol buildings The contract went to Lowery A. Guffey, McKeesport, nephew of the former Democratic senator.

Was Low Bidder

David S Kohn, Harrisburg attorney who represents the American Window Cleaning Co. and the Harrisburg Window Cleaning Co. which held the contract for the last 16 years, said Guffey formed his company, Capitol Window Cleaners, "after receiving the state contract."

Thomas said he talked to Capitol building superintendents concerning Kohn's letter and the Guffey firm and another known as Norristown Window Cleaning Co., Norristown, received the contract because they underbid the previous firms by almost $10 000.

Speeders Join 55 Mile An Hour Unit

DUNN, N. C. (AP) — Speeders convicted in Harnett County are invited to join the 55 Club. The state speed limit is 55 miles an hour.

Membership cards say they are eligible "by reason of being convicted of a speeding violation on the highways of the state and by reason of the fact that (they have) since that conviction, promised to assist the fight against speeding in Harnett County and North Carolina."

Cpl. Romie F. Williamson of the state Highway Patrol originated the idea for the club which is approved by Ed Scheidt, state motor vehicles commissioner.

NO LIVES LOST DURING NAVY'S ARCTIC MISSION

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy points with pride to a "great victory" over arctic barriers in taking supplies to the nation's northernmost radar outposts.

Vice Adm. F. C Denebrink, commander of the Military Sea Transport Service, said yesterday this summer's shipments to build the distant early warning (DEW) radar defense line marked the first use of the historic Northwest Passage to move men and supplies.

Denebrink said not a life was lost among the 18,647 people aboard 126 ships in the three-month operation He said quite a few ships did suffer damage and ran aground, but repairs were so efficient that all but two vessels were heading homeward under own power after rounding Point Barrow, Alaska, this week.

The admiral said 548,000 measurement tons of general supplies and 3,686,000 barrels of petroleum products were unloaded along the 1,500-mile stretch of the Greenland-Alaska DEW line the Navy concentrated on this summer, and at other northern posts. A measurement ton, one way of figuring the volume of cargo, is usually reckoned at 40 cubic feet.

Size Of Car Avenges Imaginary Slight

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — French Robertson, chairman of the Texas Prison Board, said an old school chum who went wrong was considerably miffed because Robertson wouldn't use some influence a get him out of prison.

"I'll get even with you someday," the man told Robertson.

A few years later, Robertson said the man came to his office and told him, "come outside."

Robertson did.

"See that big car," he said. "It's just like yours. I told you I'd get even with you someday."

TIME FOR PREACHER

TONKAWA, Okla. (AP) — Everything was in readiness for the Sunday service at the First Methodist Church, except the minister was missing. A phone call revealed the Rev. Ray Lawler had been taking his time because his clock was 35 minutes off. He rushed to the pulpit and began the service.

Mrs. Harry Baker, Middleburg Road, is a patient at Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore.

OPEN BUILDING BIDS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission has received unofficial low bids totaling $177,468 for construction of a maintenance building at the proposed Quakertown interchange of the turnpike's northeastern extension.

The bids:

General construction, N. Ditomaso Co., Philadelphia, $119,800; plumbing, Frank Ahlum and Son, Inc., Richlandtown, $17,118; heating, Ahlum, $25,365; electrical, William A. Donmoyer Co., Allentown, $15,185.

Georgia has 6,017 miles of railroad.

Orrtanna

ORRTANNA — At a congregational meeting following Sunday School at the Mt. Carmel EUB Church Sunday morning, the following officers were elected to serve through the ensuing year:

Superintendent, Ira Naugle; assistant superintendent, Clyde Metz; secretary, Linda Carbaugh; treasurer, Mrs. Ira Naugle; pianist, Mrs. Clyde Metz; assistant pianist, Mrs. Clyde Baker; choir director, Mrs. Ira Naugle; financial secretary, Mrs. John Gallagher; librarian, William Rollins; trustees, Charles Shindledecker and Dale Wetzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook and son, Joe, Dover R. 1, visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wetzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Saum spent the weekend with relatives near Chambersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gallagher spent Sunday in Harrisburg as guests of Mr. Gallagher's sister, Miss Ruth Gallagher.

Mrs. Hannah Biggs and Miss Jean Biggs, this place, and Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Sloat, Gettysburg, spent the weekend with friends in Mifflinburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Nary and son, Ronald, Waynesboro, spent Sunday with Mr. Nary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Nary.

Luther Wetzel, Orrtanna R. D., and his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Wetzel, Solley, Md., returned Sunday evening from a motor trip through northern Pennsylvania. At Wellsboro, Tioga County, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baltzley. Mr. Baltzley, a nephew of Mrs. Luther Wetzel, is an Orrtanna native.

Mrs. Anna M. Wetzel, 88, is confined to the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Nary, due to illness.

Harman Spence, a clerk at the Gettysburg post office, who has been ill for three weeks, is reported unchanged in condition.

NEED 5 JURORS IN CARLISLE'S MURDER TRIAL

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—Prosecuting and defense attorneys continued their juestioning of prospective jurors today in the murder trial of Percy S. Haines, charged with the fatal courtroom shooting of a Carlisle attorney.

Seven jurors, three housewives and four men, were chosen yesterday leaving five jurors and two alternates still to be selected. Some 36 persons were turned down.

Haines is charged with the fatal shooting last Aug. 2 of Atty. John D. Faller Jr., 41, in the same courtroom where the trial is being held.

Dist. Atty. Clinton R. Weidner declared he would seek a first degree murder verdict against the 60-year-old Newville R. 2 farmer and his questions to prospective jurors dealt mostly on whether or not they had "any scruples" against a death sentence.

Faller was co-counsel for Haines' wife, Lulu, who had brought her port charge.

She was injured in the shooting spree along with Judge Mark E. Garber and George Black, a Chambersburg attorney.

The case is being tried before Judge W. C. Sheely, of Adams County, because of Judge Garber's injury and because Cumberland County's other judge, Dale Shughart, may be called to testify.

Jurors selected yesterday were: Mrs. Dorothy J. Michael, Mechanicsburg R. 1; L. Don Patterson, Carlisle Rt. 6; Mrs. Jane Bushey, Bowmansdale; Clarence Thrush, Lemoyne; Mrs. Ethel E. Candy, Wormleysburg; William K. Whitford, Shiremanstown, and John M. Markel, New Kingston.

ONLY A TV PROGRAM

MARSHALL, Tex. (AP) — An excited telephone operator called police, told them a receiver was off the hook at a local residence and that she could hear sounds of violence. Police found out she was 100 per cent correct. They found the family clustered about a television set watching a shoot-em-up program.

Pedestrian Killed, Wife, Son Injured

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Lansdale man was killed and his wife and young son injured yesterday when they were struck by an automobile in the Germantown section of the city.

Dead on arrival at Germantown Hospital was Adolph Martin, 41, Richardson Road, Lansdale. His son, Tristan, 7, suffered lacerations and bruises of the face and body. He and his mother, Tillie, 48, who was treated for shock and bruises, were detained at the hospital.

Police identified the driver of the car as Mrs. Marion Wallace, 58, who lived near the accident scene.

They said the dead man's body was picked up some 35 feet from the intersection.

FUNNY CAKE

Mrs. Allen D. Fink is famous for her Pennsylvania Dutch cooking—and one of her most prized recipes is for "Funny Cake." It's not a cake really. Nor is it a pie. It's better than both—and that's how it got its name. People will "chust come to eat" if you serve this regional delicacy. Fragrant with cocoa, delicate as custard, it's a reputation-maker. The full recipe—and many others as rare and delicious—in the October issue of The American Home—25c at your newsstand.

German Paper Says Bohlen Charged Adenauer Betrayed American Secret To Russia

BONN, Germany, (AP)—The German newspaper Abendpost said Wednesday U. S. ambassador to Russia Charles Bohlen accused Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of betraying an American secret during his Moscow negotiations with Soviet leaders.

The paper said Adenauer disclosed Bohlen's accusation in an off-the-record talk with six American correspondents here Tuesday. Abendpost quoted Adenauer as saying the charge was made during a "temperamental" exchange between Bohlen and Bonn's ambassador to NATO, Herbert Blankenhorn, in Moscow.

The paper said Bohlen thought Adenauer had betrayed to the Russians what as described as the secret of an American balloon-leaflet campaign directed at the Soviet Union.

Call Account Correct

Two participants in the talk with Adenauer said the Abendpost account was correct. Bohlen currently is on vacation from his post in Moscow.

The incident followed the display by Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin of a big balloon which he claimed had landed in the Soviet Union with a load of American propaganda. The Russians formally complained while Adenauer was in Moscow that huge American propaganda balloons released in West Germany were endangering air traffic behind the Iron Curtain.

According to Abendpost, Adenauer told the correspondents that while the final communique on the Soviet-West German talks was being prepared, he and Bulganin took a walk in the garden. Bulganin brought up the subject of the balloons but Adenauer said he knew nothing of them. Bulganin then offered to show him one. After an interval a balloon with two wooden boxes, one large and one small, was brought into the garden. Bulganin pointed out to Adenauer markings indicating it was made by a firm in Cleveland, Ohio.

Displays Pamphlets

Bulganin also produced a pamphlet made up on the outside like a Russian provincial newspaper. Inside, however, was an attack on Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev in Russian, accompanied by an illustration picturing him as an ape. This, he told Adenauer, was one of the leaflets released from the balloon.

Adenauer said he told Bulganin he would mention the matter to the American authorities. When Blankenhorn went to Bohlen to report on the progress of negotiations, he told him of the balloon incident. Then, said the Abenpost, Bohlen reacted "temperamentally," accusing Adenauer of betraying an American secret.

Reports Colored—?

The paper said that Adenauer related this incident to the American correspondents as a possible explanation of misunderstanding in Washington of the West German agreement to establish diplomatic relations with Moscow. It quoted Adenauer as saying that perhaps Bohlen's anger over this incident had colored his reports from Moscow to Washington, making them unnecessarily alarming.

Adenauer was said to have insisted that he confined his observations to Bulganin to the remark that he would mention the matter to the American authorities. Adenauer also said Bohlen apparently was unaware that the balloon campaign had been publicity announced in Munich.

The American-financed Free Europe Committee in Munich, which releases balloons, has denied they carry Russian language leaflets or that they are aimed at Soviet Russia. The committee says it has released 342,791 balloons in the last 18 months carrying over 200 million leaflets to Communist-dominated Czechoslovakia, Poland and Hungary.

FIRE ON BRITISH SHIP

HONG KONG (AP) — The British navy announced Wednesday an unidentified Nationalist Chnese warship fired on the 2,138-ton British freighter Helikon as the yessel approached Foochow, port in Red China. No casualties or damage were reported.

The Helikon left Shanghai Sunday with a load of coal for Foochow. The ship is owned by the Wo Fat Sing Co. of Hong Kong.

USAF CONTRACT INVESTIGATION IS LAUNCHED

Appropriations Committee launched an investigation Wednesday of what House Democratic Leader McCormack of Massachusetts called a $2,400,000,000 "bonanza contract" between the Air Force and private telephone companies. contract" between the Air Force

The Air Force replied that the contract plans had been fully reported to congressional committees earlier this year, and that Congress has already appropriated "substantial" funds for sites and construction of facilities. It said cancellation of the contract now might make the government liable for a penalty which could reach 222 million dollars.

Contract For Conversion

At issue is a contract for conversion of the present air defense communications system to a "semiautomatic ground environment (Sage)" system. The Air Force contract is with a group of private companies headed by the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and the Western Electric Co.

The companies would build the communications system and lease it to the Air Force at regular toll charges for a 10-year period. Engineering and construction work already is under way.

Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) of the Appropriations Committee ordered the inquiry after McCormack disclosed a ruling by Comptroller General Joseph Campbell that the contract lacked congressional authorization.

The Air Force confirmed this, but Asst. Secretary Lyle Garlock said Campbell had agreed to reconsider the ruling.

May Ban Payments

The effect of the ruling by Campbell, the government's chief auditor, is to ban payments under the contract unless Congress specifically approves.

The fact that Campbell's ruling, made Aug. 15, was first made public by such a key Democrat as the House majority leader indicated that Democrats are hopeful an investigation of the contract will provide fodder for next year's political campaigns.

In a statement to which a copy of the ruling was attached, McCormack called "the Dixon-Yates deal small in comparison to what is involved in this transaction," which he said "is clearly a secret effort to bypass Congress."

Under the contract, AT&T and the Western Electric are to finance struction and installation of equipment at eight combat centers and 32 direction centers and to provide service to the government at cost of as much as 240 million dollars annually. They will retain ownership of the facilities.

Israeli Forces Take Enemy Border Sector

E100 czzcczzc nyph1241ped 21

JERUSALEM (AP) —Israel announced today that her forces have occupied the Nizama sector of the Negev Desert demilitarized zone along the Egyptian border.

A spokesman for the Israeli Foreign Ministry said the action was taken because of the "continued presence of two Egyptian military outposts in this territory inside Israel" and because the Egyptians had demolished Israeli border markers.

Reports from Cairo said the Egyptians had been informed officially of the Israeli action but there was no immediate comment. Sources in the Egyptian capital said U. N. truce observers had been sent to investigate.

The Nizama sector is separate from, and south of, the Egyptian-held Gaza Strip.

General Ordered To Set Up New Council

PARIS (AP)—The French resident general of Morocco returned Wednesday to his post with orders to put aside Sultan Mohammed Ben Mouay Arafa and set up a Regency Council.

Resident Gen. Pierre Boyer de Latour du Moulin had orders from Premier Edgar Faure to execute the first steps in a reform program which the government hopes will stop bloodshed in the rich and strategic North African protectorate.

A big question remained: Will the Sultan go?

Reports from Morocco told of demonstrations at Rabat, Meknes, Oujda and other parts of the country by European residents against the departure of Ben Moulay Arafa. French settlers mounted a guard around the Sultan's palace to "prevent" his leaving.

Use some of that applesauce this way: Mix it with coconut and raisins and put a little of it on pastry rounds. Fold the rounds over and press the edges together with the tines of a fork; bake in a hot oven. Be sure the applesauce is thick and sweetened.

PLUSH VENICE WEDDING JOINS OLD FAMILIES

VENICE, Itay (AP) — Lovely 15-year-old Princess Virginia Ira Fuerstenberg married Prince Alfonso Hohenlone-Langeburg, 31, Wednesday in Italy's wedding-of-the-year.

Thousands of Venetians and tourists cheered as they rode away in a gold-trimmed gondola to a giant reception after speaking their vows in the 16th Century church of St. Sebastian.

The marriage united two families whose ancestors were princes of the Holy Roman Empire, and led the Crusades to Jerusalem. They are related to a score of Europe's royal families, including the Hapsburgs and the Hohenzollerns.

Will Visit "Falls"

Even so, the newlyweds intend to go to Niagara Falls on their honeymoon after first taking a leisurely motor trip to Paris. They met a year ago at a wedding in Germany.

Princess Virginia's family traces its origins into the dim ages before Charlemagne. Prince Alfonso's lineage goes back to the 12th century. His father is married to the sister of the Duke of Edinburgh. He now lives most of the time in Mexico City, where the young couple plan to live after a long honeymoon. He also owns a castle in Spain.

Among some 1,000 wedding presents were two diamond rings given by her mother, and two huge emeralds which an ancestor of Prince Alfonso carried back from Jerusalem during the Crusades. Three new cars were given them by friends and relatives.

15-Year Tunis Siege Closes With Decree

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP)—The state of siege, in effect in Tunisia for more than 15 years, was ended Wednesday. The Bey of Tunis attached his seal to a decree submitted by Adm. M. Laurin to this effect.

The admiral, a Frenchman, is defense minister under the new home rule accords which leave defense and foreign relations in French hands. The state of siege was proclaimed in Tunisia at the outbreak of World War II.

Tunisia's first home rule government under the French-Tunisian accords was sworn into office earlier this month.

STEAL GUARD'S WEAPONS

RENO, Nev. (AP)—William Powell's tool shed had been broken into twice in recent weeks so he armed himself with a pistol and an automatic shotgun and settled down to spend the night in the shed. But he made the mistake of stepping outside for a while. When he returned, the pistol and rifle were gone, along with an electric grinder. They're still looking for the burglar.

NEW KIND OF SALE

LOS ANGELES (AP)—There's one dress shop here that may be having a different sort of fire sale soon. A skunk got loose in the shop and fired several times before he was trapped by three policemen. They clapped a box over him, wrapped him up tightly in protective plastic, and later had the final shot.

FORECASTER IMPROVES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Hender P. Adams, chief of the Philadelphia Weather Bureau, was reported improving Wednesday at Osteopathic Hospital, where he was taken Tuesday for treatment of a heart condition.

Adams became ill in his office at Philadelphia International Airport after remaining on the job nearly 24 hours helping chart the path of Hurricane Ione.

PLAN MORE AID TO LIFT DIP IN FARM PRICES

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration looked to the National Agricultural Advisory Commission today for suggestions on how to bolster sagging farm income.

The 18-member bipartisan body of farm leaders began a two-day quarterly meeting with that as its major problem.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson said the commission will go over proposals for aiding farmers by channeling more money into their pockets.

The secretary said last week that the administration will offer specific recommendations to Congress. Suggestions of the commission doubtless will help formulate administration proposals.

Reviews Farm Policies

The commission was appointed by President Eisenhower to review government farm policies and programs and to offer advice on ways to improve them. It played a major role in the development of the farm program which the President recommended to Congress last year and which was written into law. That program features flexible price supports which this year supplanted the high, rigid supports of the Truman era.

The commission meets behind closed doors. It rarely makes its discussions or recommendations public, and is expected to follow this policy on this week's meeting.

The meeting comes at a time when Democrats are sharply criticizing the administration's farm program and contending that the Republicans are allowing agriculture to sink into a depression.

Some areas in East Pakistan have 3,000 people per square mile, one of the most lensely populated areas in the world.

CHEVROLET FOR ACCELERATION!

Drive with care... EVERYWHERE!

Great Features back up Chevrolet Performance: Anti-Dive Braking—Ball-Race Steering—Outrigger Rear Springs—Body by Fisher—12-Volt Electrical System—Nine Engine-Drive Choices.

When you need a quick sprint for safer passing, this V8 delivers! It's pure dynamite, and you have to go way, way up the price ladder before you ever find its equal.

Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" packs a Sunday punch for safer passing that no car in Chevrolet's field can match!

The proof was burned into the sands of Daytona Beach at the NASCAR* trials earlier this year. In acceleration tests, Chevrolet simply walked away from everything else in its field. Plus—and get this—all the high-priced cars except one!

Surprising? Not when you consider that this beauty's been cleaning up on all comers in short track stock car events this season. That's where acceleration really pays off, as well as handling ease and cornering ability—things that mean safer, happier highway driving. Come on in and let a new Chevrolet show you what we mean.

Washington News Letter

By Jane Eads

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wonder if handsome Henry Byroade, young new U.S. ambassador to Egypt, is casing the pyramids with a yearning to tear them down and put them together again?

"He could probably do it — and singlehandedly," some of his friends say.

The Indiana-born West Point graduate and savvy diplomat has a reputation for singular engineering feats. While serving with the Army Engineer Corps in the China-India-Burma theater during World War II, he rose to be the "youngest brigadier general in Army history. He is credited with having built some 53 airdromes.

After a serious bout with typhoid he returned to the Armed Forces Staff College at Norfolk, Va. There he bought for $150 a wrecked boat and completely rebuilt it with such fancies as rosewood and mahogany deck, new ribs, and new motor. He was offered $4,500 for it, but brought it up the Potomac instead when he was transferred to the Pentagon. Later he turned his talents to rebuilding a 38-foot cruiser — after carrying out close to 50 wheelbarrows of debris. This time he even rebuilt the motor.

Entered State Department

He went to the State Department in 1949, and became assistant secretary in 1952. He spotted a wrecked Lincoln in an old automobile junkyard he used to pass on the way to his office. "It was a challenge" he told friends: So he bought it, rebuilt it in four months, and drove it to work from his home in Fairfax, Va. The ambassador also rebuilt his home, and cleared four acres of forest around it. He also rebuilds old guns.

"When I can work with my hands," he told friends, "all the tensions and worries of a busy day in the office with its problems and responsibilities of foreign affairs quickly disappear."

New Mexico Quits Traditional Manana

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Members of the New Mexico Manufacturers Assn. have advocated the abandonment of the traditional "manana" of New Mexico's Spanish-speaking heritage and advocated making it a "today" state.

The association said recently "every businessman who has seen fit to take a membership should fully realize the time to act must be now to promote our great state for what it is."

A DELEGATE

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The husband of a local woman had just left the house. His wife was washing the breakfast dishes when the doorbell rang.

She thought her husband had forgotten something and was returning for it.

"That you angel?" she called.

"No indeed," answered a pleasant voice, "but I'm from the same department."

The visitor was Episcopal Bishop Clinton S. Quinn.

TEEN TALK

BY VIVIAN BROWN

The Associated Press

Springtime is love time. Every little girl is busy planning a flowered bonnet, pressing her nose against a shop window with thoughts that go like this . . .

I wonder whether if I buy it (1) will he like it (2) will he notice me (3) will someone notice me (in that hat.)

Love is in the air it would seem from the rash of mail with hearts-and-flowers queries at this time of the year . . .

One girl writes that she's heard the "easiest way to a man's heart is silence. But how mysterious can you get?" she asks, "If you never tell him the way you feel about things, how will he ever get to like you?"

Another lass has heard that "all men are interested in girls who pet and that if they don't they're just out of luck."

"All Men Are Immature"

Still another young filly thinks "all men are immature. If not they are in the Army, traveling or tied to a project that absorbs their time. So how is a girl who feels like an old maid at 18 ever going to meet a young man?"

So it goes.

Well who can best comment on these small worries of the young ladies than the young lads. And here's what one has to say . . .

"As far as silence being golden, it would pay some girls to remember that at the right time. There is a time for listening or watching and a time for conversation. The girl who has nothing to say most of the time is just the one who gabs when you're trying to watch an interesting baseball or hockey game. Just as soon as interest is centered away from certain females, they get desperate trying to retrieve it by gushing on about nothing."

As for necking, a young man assures us that 'taint so and that some girls love to exaggerate because they have an inferiority complex. He adds:

"Nobody' Fault But Hers"

"Anyway if a girl doesn't pick a nice boy to date it's nobody's fault but hers. I haven't any sympathy with girls who sit in parked cars with strange boys. It could all be solved by having a few dates with the boy at home and observing his character before she goes out alone with him. Too many girls are 'date-beavers.' They're so anxious for a date, they take anything that comes along."

One popular boy thought any girl who couldn't find an interesting boy to date was just plain lazy. He says:

"Of course there are boys to be met. I go to many parties and dance where every girl is a new face. It is just a question of getting an invitation Maybe a girl would be smart to develop girl friends before she seeks boy friends. One leads to the other usually. The double date is an accepted thing by two good friends, and that is one good way to meet a new boy."

NEW ATTITUDE STRESSED AT MEDIC MEETING

PITTSBURGH (AP) — An atomic bomb attack may force physicians to change their whole philosophy about treatment of casualties, a Philadelphia doctor says.

Dr. William T. Fitts Jr., speaking Tuesday at the 105th annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Medical Society, said:

"In the event of civilian atomic disaster, it may be necessary for the practicing surgeon to change his entire philosophy of handling casualties. Up to now practicing surgeons have been trained essentially to take care of the most seriously wounded first. In an atomic disaster he must learn quickly to put aside those who are beyond hope and concentrate on those who can be most benefited by the personnel and supplies available."

Describes System

Lt. Col. Kryder E. Van Buskirk of the Army Medical Corps, Washington, described a system to be used in treating casualties of an atom bomb attack. He said:

"In the center of the (bomb) area would be complete destruction. In a surrounding area, hopelessly and critically injured. In the next perimeter, in general, less severely injured. Any effective aid, medical or otherwise, must be brought from outside this area.

"There will be quite a lapse of time before organized help can arrive and set up on the perimeter of the disaster area. More time will be required to clear the roads so that casualties may be evacuated. During this period the survivors in the disaster area will be forced to rely on whatever resources are available to them. . . . To properly accomplish this it is imperative that all persons be taught first aid and how to practice it."

Open "Sorting Stations"

Van Buskirk said "sorting stations" would have to be set up where the hopelessly wounded can be sorted from the critically injured and those less seriously hurt.

Dr. Robert L. Schaeffer of Allentown was instead Tuesday night as the society's 106th president.

The society's Benjamin Rush awards were presented to Stanley F. Fink, principal of the Southwest Junior High School, Reading and to the Rotary Club of Allentown.

Fink won the award for his work in collecting money for cerebral palsy victims. The Allentown Rotary was cited for its leadership in a number of health programs.

Has Head Caught In "L" Turnstile

CHICAGO (AP) — The next time Philip Palmer wants to ride the "L" he'll pay his fare at the entrance.

Philip, 12, tried to climb over a turnstile at an exit of an elevated railroad station and caught his head in a narrow space near the top. He shouted, and six companions awaiting their turn shouted. Someone called police, and the police called the firemen. Under the supervision of Lt. Leon Abrahamson, the crew freed Philip's head by sawing off an iron bar with a hacksaw. He was uninjured.

TV Commercials Teach Tot To Read

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Kim Story, 2, doesn't regard the TV commercials as a nuisance. They taught him to read.

His father, police officer Frank Story, says Kim started out with such tough ones as hexachlorophene and chlorophyll. After that the little ones come easily.

Kim now reads almost anything. In off moments he amuses himself by identifying various makes of automobiles.

The youngster still checks the commercials but ignores the programs.

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP)—It was only a plaster of paris model of a .38 caliber revolver, but Patrolman Ollie Caudill recognized it as one stolen from a Billings home earlier in the day.

He picked up the boy who was brandishing the imitation gun at a ball park. The boy admitted the theft.

Stamp News

By SYD KRONISH
The Associated Press

A royal marriage is always a cause for celebration. In addition to the festivities and pomp, the celebrating nation usually issues a special stamp or two for the occasion.

And that's what Jordan has done. It has issued two stamps honoring the marriage of young King Hussein to his pretty cousin, Princess Dina Abdul Hamid.

The 15 fils blue and the 100 fils red brown bear profile vignettes of the royal couple. Beneath the portraits is the Date, April 19, 1955.

King Hussein is 19 and his new bride is 26.

Turkey has issued four stamps of the same design for its Ankara Urban Congress, reports the New York Stamp Co. The stamps are diamond shaped. The 1 lire is dark violet, 50 k brown-olive, 20 k green-blue and 15 k dark grey.

A beautifuly colored set of four stamps depicting native flowers has been issued by Luxembourg. The 80 centimes red, green and brown shows a tulip. The 2 franc yellow, green and red depicts a daffodil. The 3 fr green and violet pictures a hyacinth. The 4 fr blue, green and brown shows a parrot tulip.

Double Anniversary

A dual philatelic anniversary is being celebrated in Cuba this year—the 100th anniversary of the first postage stamp and the 50th anniversary of the first postage stamp of the new republic (after being freed from Spain.)

A special set of eight stamps—four regular and four airmails—has been issued to honor the occasion. Each stamp depicts a national scene and reproductions of the first stamps.

The designs are as follows: 4 centavos—volanta carriage, 10 c—view of Havana in 1855, 15 c—the Plaza de Armas, 2 c—Convent of San Francisco on Antigua Plaza, 8 c—Palace of Fine Arts, 12 c—Freedom Tree, Lincoln Memorial and the capitol building in Havana, 24 c—the Maine Monument and Hotel Nacional, 30 c—Plaza de la Republica.

About 70 million dollars worth of timber was cut in the United States last year.

Rabbit Victor In Tilt With Snake

GREAT BEND, Kans. (AP) — Timid as a rabbit?

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Copeland don't believe that time-worn expression any more. On a recent visit to the cemetery at Harper, Kan., they saw a cottontail run and jump into battle with a big snake that had caught a baby rabbit.

The grown rabbit kicked with its hind legs, sever times was flipped head over heels, once was trapped with the snake coiled around its body. But the baby rabbit escaped in the excitement — and so did the cottontail, after kicking itself free and returning to the attack.

Strings Serve As Good Scarecrow

WINNSBORO, La. (AP) — Hub Dear believes crows are superstitious. This, says Dear, makes them a cinch to keep out of watermelon patches. Just drive stakes at intervals through the patch and stretch string from stake to stake.

"Thinking the string is some kind of trap, he will not light in the patch where the string is placed," said Dear. "The crow is a smart bird but he is also very superstitious."

Dear discovered this version of the tradition scarecrow in 1917 and has used it since.

LOANS FOR TEENS

CHICAGO (AP) — Teen-age loan seekers are encouraged to borrow from the First Commercial Bank since it established its "Teen-Age Loan Fund."

Harold H. Stout, president of the bank, said no co-signers or guarantees of any kind are required and only the integrity of teen agers is necessary for a loan.

Three teen-agers are members of the fund's administrative board.

HUNGRY NEWSMEN

NEW DELHI (AP) — Employes of a daily newspaper in Western India staged a one-day fast to protest the suspending of a subeditor. The subeditor of the Jai Hind had been suspended for three days on grounds of insubordination.

LIKES 'EM REGULAR

PULASKI, Va. (AP)—J. K. Wright says one of his apple trees is producing fruit in bunches—like grapes. About 25 small apples are in each bunch. They are breaking the limbs and he'd like to know how to stop it.

TOKYO (AP)—Japan exported 9,855 tons of ingot aluminum and 5,354 tons of processed aluminum the first six months of this year, compared with 1,155 and 3,254 tons for the same period last year, according to the newspaper Nihon Keizai.

NEW SANDWICH IDEAS BRIGHTEN UP YOUR PARTY REFRESHMENTS

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

A shower for a bride-to-be coming up? Then here's a suggestion that may answer that inevitable question, "What to serve?"

Double-decker sandwiches can be prepared ahead and taste good with tea or coffee. They look pretty, too, frosted with glistening cream cheese and a heart-shaped garnish of fresh red tomato.

And here's an added feature. Guests can take their choice of these double-deckers because there are three varieties. Some of your friends lean toward ham and cheese? Some like eggs, seafood, avocado? These combinations are all here.

Each of these sandwiches is made with three slices of bread — two of white, one of whole-wheat. Good flavor and eye-appeal this way, especially if the bread is thinly sliced and fresh.

For dessert after these sandwiches, serve a big compote of fresh strawberries and pineapple with fancy little frosted cakes and crisp cookies. Then fill up the tea and coffee cups again.

Sweetheart Double-Deckers

Ingredients: 24 slices enriched white bread, 12 slices whole-wheat bread, ¾ cup butter or margarine (soft), 2 tablespoons mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing, 1½ cups Swiss Miss filling, four slices boiled ham, ¾ cup egg-crabmeat filling, ¾ cup egg-cheese filling, ¾ cup avocato-shrimp filling, 2 (8 ounces each) packages cream cheese, 1/3 cup milk, two tomatoes.

Method: Make three kinds of sandwiches, first buttering one side of each slice of bread.

For first variety, cover buttered sides of 4 slices of white bread with Swiss Miss filling, using 3 tablespoons for each slice. Top with 4 slices of whole-wheat bread, buttered side down. Spread each slice of whole-wheat bread with mayonnaise before arranging slices of boiled ham as second filling. Complete with 4 slices of white bread, buttered side down.

For second variety, cover buttered side of 4 slices of white bread with egg-crabmeat filling, using 3 tablespoons for each. Top with 4 slices of whole-wheat bread, buttered side down. Spread whole-wheat bread with Swiss Miss filling, using 3 tablespoons for each slice. Complete with 4 slices of white bread, buttered side down.

For third variety, cover buttered sides of 4 slices of white bread with egg-cheese filling, using three tablespoons for each. Top with 4 slices of whole-wheat bread, buttered side down. Spread whole-wheat bread with avocado-shrimp filling, using 3 tablespoons for each slice. Complete with 4 slices white bread, buttered side down.

Blend cream cheese with milk and spread over top of each double-decker. Trim off crusts. Cut each double-decker in half, crosswise. To garnish, divide each tomato into 12 wedges; place 2 wedges together, skin side out, to form heart. Makes 12 servings.

Swiss Miss Filling

Ingredients: 2 cups (lightly packed) grated Swiss cheese, ¼ cup chopped ripe olives, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, ¼ cup mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing.

Method: Mix cheese, olives, mustard and mayonnaise. Makes 1½ cups.

Egg-Crabmeat Filling

Ingredients: 2 hard-cooked eggs (chopped), 1-3 cup flaked crabmeat, ¼ teaspoon celery salt, 1 tablespoon mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing, ¼ teaspoon lemon juice.

Method: Mix eggs, crabmeat, celery salt, mayonnaise and lemon juice. Makes ¾ cup.

Egg-Cheese Filling

Ingredients: 2 large or 3 small hard-cooked eggs (chopped), ¼ cup cream-style cottage cheese, ¼ teaspoon minced onion, 1 teaspoon minced green pepper, ¼ teaspoon salt, paprika, celery seed, pepper.

Method: Mix egg, cottage cheese, onion, green pepper, salt, and dashes of paprika, celery seed and pepper. Makes ¾ cup.

Avocado-Shrimp Filling

Ingredients: ¼ cup minced avocado, ¼ cup mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ½ cup cleaned cooked shrimp (chopped).

Method: Mix avocado, mayonnaise, lemon juice and shrimp. Makes ¾ cup.

Camera News

By IRVING DESFOR
The Associated Press

Camera motion is probably Public Error No. 1. It is due to carelessness in handling and holding a camera and jabbing the finger on the button at the instant of shooting. The remedy is simple: make a conscious effort to hold the camera steady and apply a slow, gentle pressure to press the release button. Do not hold the camera in your hands for speeds slower than 1-25th of a second; steady it against a wall, tree trunk, etc., or rest it on a fence, bench, table or other handy solid object.

Bad backgrounds ruin a lot of pictures. Our eyes and our minds ordinarily see only the person or group we are shooting while the background, because of our three dimensional vision, is literally out of the picture. In a two dimensional plane, however, it pops up and assumes major — and too often, unwelcome — importance. The remedy? Examine the background critically first. Often a slight change in shooting angle will make a vast improvement.

Make it a habit to check the mechanical adjustments on your camera for each shot: the focus, to prevent fuzzy pictures; the shooting speed and lens opening to avoid over or underexposures. Often, in shooting a series on one occasion, there'll be a change in distance or in light conditions, but the tendency is to keep pressing the button automatically at the same settings.

Accuracy Needed

Extreme close-ups require greater accuracy and more attention than other pictures. In focusing, there is less leeway and even a slight error will stand out. They are not meant for fixed-focus cameras except when using special portrait attachments which call for accurate measurements. Closer than six feet, a viewfinder's angle is different from the lens' view so allowances must be made or heads will be chopped down.

Double exposures are a wasteful menace but can be banished. All it requires is a fixed habit of turning the film immediately after snapping a picture. However, if you're ever in doubt, don't take any chances — turn it again. It's better to waste one film than to ruin two pictures.

Tilting the camera is another common fault. Some do it unconsciously and others angle the camera deliberately, usually to get a tall building all in. While it can be done effectively, the usual result is a slight case of violent perspective and a sea-sick picture. It's better to back off more and keep the lines vertical and horizontal.

Lens hazards, such as the picture snapper's thumb, camera strap and the synchronizer cord, spoil enough pictures to warrant a warning. A special villain, which has caused many a photographer's blank look as well as blank pictures, is the usually protective lens cap. Make sure the lens is uncovered and clean.

Beware Of

Consistent light streaks in prints indicate trouble in the camera body or a pin-hole in the bellows. Occasional streaks along the edges or at the beginning or end of a roll of film are usually due to improper loading of the film. Always load film in subdued light, never in strong light.

Too many posey, uninteresting pictures result from making an undue fuss about standing still for photos. Better results are obtained from shooting some sort of natural or rehearsed action. Even violent action sometimes has a peak or instant which can be stopped by snapshot speed. Try the formula of showing people, children and animals "doing something" and you'll see how much better it is than the usual "Stand still . . . look at me!" variety.

The United States imports about 35½ million pounds of black pepper a year.

FORMULAS FOR SKEWERED BEEF ARE UNVEILED

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Skewer cookery is catching on. When we were traveling around the country recently, young married folk told us they use skewers indoors as well as out, under the broiler as well as over the fireplace grill.

In some families, Dad takes over the business of preparing and cooking the skewered meat. We notice he usually has a special marinade for the meat — and recipe is a top secret. On these occasions, we never try to pry. We taste a few times, ponder, taste again. Sometimes we hazard a guess as to what has gone into the saucing. If we're right, the man of the house is a good sport: he nods approval. If we're wrong, he can't help correcting us — and the secret's out.

After all the guessing games we've discovered marinades for skewered beef usually have a base of salad oil and vinegar or lemon juice. Seasonings are likely to be a couple of the following: oregano, thyme, bay leaf, onion, garlic. When lamb is to be put on the spit, the base will be the same plus a couple of such seasonings as oregano, allspice, cumin, onion, garlic.

Here's a pleasant marinade for skewered beef. Try it the way it is, then subtract or add. Make up your own secret sauce. Serve the dish to family and guests. Delight — and maybe confound — recipe seekers!

Serve Picnic Style

To make life easy, serve your skewer meal picnic style. Put the beef under the broiler, bake some potatoes in the oven. Have a big Armenian-style salad ready — lettuce, tomato wedges, green pepper, black olives. Cruets of olive oil and wine vinegar should stand beside the salad so each eater can add his own dressing. Salt and a pepper-grinder will be needed, too.

All the food goes on a kitchen counter beside a stack of dinner plates, knives, forks, napkins. Family and guests help themselves, eat any place they like. Everyone brings his empty plate to the counter when he's finished eating. Dad does the stacking.

Mother brings on the dessert. At this time of year, what's better than sponge cake layers filled with loads of strawberries and diced fresh pineapple and topped with whipped cream?

If this menu appeals to you, there's one alternative we suggest you try some time. Instead of the baked potatoes, serve buckwheat groats with a mushroom sauce. Nowadays you can buy the groats in package form in most large supermarket chains. Just follow the package directions for steaming the groats. You can get them ready early in the day and reheat at serving time. We've reheated the groats in our electric skillet with great success; use a double boiler if you haven't one of these skillets. The topping for the groats should be made from sauted fresh mushrooms and a thin cream sauce; this, too, can be prepared ahead and reheated.

Indoor Skewered Beef

Ingredients: 1 pound sirloin steak (about 1 inch thick), ¼ cup wine vinegar, ¼ cup salad oil, ¼ teaspoon thyme, ½ teaspoon salt, dash Tobasco sauce, 12 small onions, 1 tablespoon kitchen bouquet.

Method: Cut meat into 1-inch squares. Mix vinegar, oil, thyme, salt, and Tabasco together and toss with steak cubes. Marinate for several hours, turning meat a couple of times. When ready to broil meat, peel onions and par-boil for 3 minutes. Drain meat well and string alternately with onions on 4 large skewers. Brush meat all over with kitchen bouquet. Place on broiling pan. Broil quickly to desired doneness. Makes 4 servings.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)— It is all sevens for William Wayne Muse — well almost anyway.

Billy is seven years old. His birthday is the seventh day of the seventh month. He was born in the seventh year of the marriage of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Muse.

Billy was the seventh baby delivered the day of his birth by Dr. Edwin M. Rucker. He is the seventh grandchild and also the seventh grandson on his father's side. There are seven letters in his name, William, and he is the seventh child in his mother's family to bear that name.

QUEENOFIRAN DELIGHTED WITH BEAN DISH ON FLORIDA VISIT

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Go recipe hunting in Florida and you come up with a dish originated by an American homemaker and enjoyed by the Queen of Iran. Stopping for a barbecue supper at the Clearwater Lake cotage of John A. Snively Jr., and his wife May, we snooped into royal eating habits.

The day of our visit, great sides of beef and pork—stashed with a pungent barbecue sauce of John Snively's devising—gave off irresistible flavors as they roasted to a turn in a shallow outdoor barbecue pit. We could hardly wait until the meat was carved and offered to us. Brunswick Stew came on, hearty and fiery. But the dish we fell madly in love with was a simple casserole of green beans with an intriguing topping.

As May Snively watched us take second and third helpings of her casserole, she told us that she and her husband had entertained Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi and Queen Soraya of Iran at a similar barbecue supper during their recent American visit. The Queen also had eaten the green bean dish wish gusto.

The Snivelys went all out for the Iranian rulers. May and her mother-in-law spent the day supervising the cooking, setting tables for the dozens of guests expected for the party and arranging flower centerpieces and place cards. Shortly before supper, the chief of protocol for the royal visitors arrived and surveyed the two large cottage living rooms set with tables. He decreed that one of the rooms would have to be cleared of all tables except one, and that the Shah and the Queen would dine there alone.

Dined Alone

The thoroughly American and unpretentious hosts weren't prepared for this—but they were good sports. When the Shah and Queen Soraya arrived they were ushered into the room with the solitary table and put into the hands of Spencer, the genial helper who has been with the Snively family for years.

"But," May Snively told with eyes twinkling, "Spencer is not a polished butler!"

Each time Spencer offered Queen Soraya a dish, she looked him in the eye, asked him what was in it and considered carefully before she helped herself. Pork, beef and chicken were easy for Spencer. But when it came to the special vegetable casserole that was being served with the meat, he lost his patience:

"Listen lady," he said. "It's just beans and stuff."

The Queen dug in.

Back in our New York kitchen, we tried duplicating "Beans and Stuff." Our tasters were entranced, begged for the recipe. Here it is:

Beans And Stuff

Ingredients: 1 pound snap beans, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¾ cup boiling water, 1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup, ¼ teaspoon celery salt, ¼ teaspoon soy sauce, pepper, 1 cup (one-half of a 3½-ounce can) French-fried onions, paprika (if desired).

Method: Cut tips from beans; scrub in cold water; drain. Cut each bean in half both crosswise and lengthwise. Add beans and salt to boiling water in a 2-quart saucepan; bring water to a boil again. Cover and cook rapidly until tender but still crisp—about 8 minutes; lift cover several times so beans will retain their green color. Drain, reserving 1/3 cup cooking liquid; if there is not enough cooking liquid add water to make required amount. Turn condensed undiluted cream of mushroom soup into a 1½-quart casserole. Stir 1/3 cup reserved liquid, celery salt, soy sauce, and pepper to taste into soup. Fold in drained beans. (Wipe down inner sides of casserole). Arrange French-fried onions over top. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until very hot and onion rings are crisp and brown — 20 to 30 minutes. Sprinkle with paprika if desired. Makes six servings.

The Associated Press

A revoluntionary advance in photography will shortly be available to the public. To the magic of picture-in-a-minute photography, a new miracle will be possible: The ability to produce a permanent film negative along with the print. It will be made possible when a new, fast, fine-quality panchromatic film, whose negative emulsion is coated on an acetate film base, is introduced in the very near future.

Credit for the research and development of the new film goes to the Polaroid Corp. Instinctively we visualize anonymous scientists in an impressive laboratory working meticulously for years.

But the immediate discoverer of a simple technique whereby, for the first time, a permanent negative can be produced along with a quick print, was an individual photo enthusiast John Wolbarst, managing editor of Modern Photography magazine, in testing the new Polaroid Professional Pan film, had a logical brainstorm.

What would happen if he tried to fix the new negative after he had taken a picture? He experimented.

Worked In Dark

He didn't want it to be spoiled by light, which is the usual procedure, so he worked in a completely dark room. The film had a paper edging, so it had to be removed carefully. The film had a coating of developing jelly so he removed it by immersing in a pan of water and swabbing it off gently, with his fingers. Then he put it in fresh fixer. When he put on the light after 20 seconds, the film was reacting like normal film. In a couple of minutes it was completely clear. Two more minutes for complete fixation, then 20 minutes of careful washing, a dunk in Photo-Flo and the film was hung to dry.

That film turned out to be a normal negative, capable of producing prints and enlargements in the usual manner. It wasn't a happy single accident because Wolbarst tried it again and again with the same successful results. It was an important discovery which became the basis for a ten page review and report on the past, present and new frontiers of the Polaroid camera.

Sent In Idea

"At that," he told me, "I think I surprised the Polaroid people when I sent my story for Dr. Land, the inventor of the camera, to check the facts. They may have had some similar process up their sleeves . . . I don't know. However, the curtain is now open on a new world in photography with further improvements and new adaptations certain to follow."

For the present, Polaroid is about to put on the market new panchromatic high speed films with marked improvement in quality. One will have a daylight exposure rating of ASA 200 while another is ASA 400. Both these films are for general amateur use and the negative emulsion is coated on a paper base, the same as the film now in use.

These will be followed by the remarkable film which can produce permanent negatives. It also has an ASA rating of 200 but its negative emulsion is coated on an acetate film base.

This film produces its positive print in only 45 seconds. If it is overdeveloped, an unusual effect is noticed: All the dark areas form a golden, mirror-like image. When used deliberately, novel and intriguing results can be produced. For straight results, critical exposure and exact development are essential.

For Average Fan

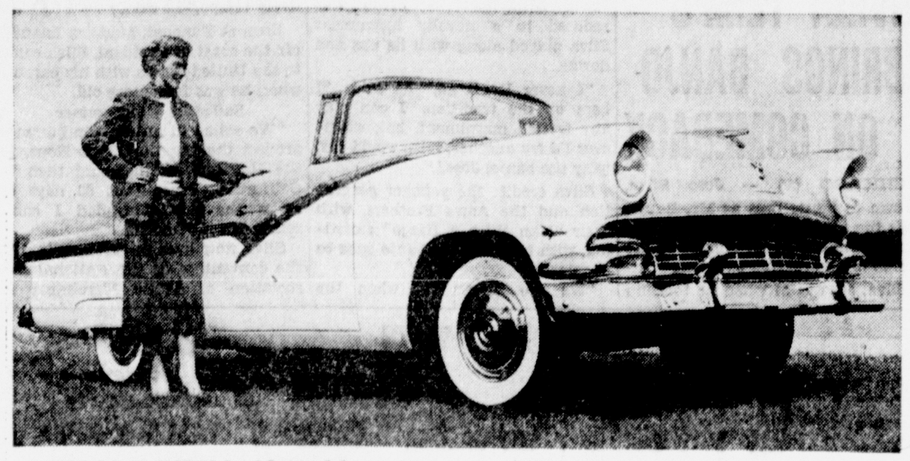

I watched Wolbarst demonstrate his technique with this Polaroid Professional Pan film. It is a method any average camera fan can undertake successfully when the new film becomes available. Its disadvantage is that in order to make a permanent negative, the photographer must improvise or work in a darkroom after each exposure. This may be all right when taking pictures in a home or professional studio but it's an extreme handicap when shooting a batch of pictures outdoors.

To help solve this problem, perhaps we stumbled on something further. I saw one of the discarded negatives, which we had decided not to save, in the waste basket. It had been exposed to the ordinary room light for some moments. What would happen if we fixed it at this stage? Wolbarst said, "Let's try it."

We went through the same process under an amber safe light from then on.

And do you know that, under those conditions which would have turned a normal negative completely black, we salvaged the negative and were able to make a passable enlargement.

Take it from there, fans. You, too, can be an experimenter and a discoverer, and it's fun besides.

ONE OF 17 MODELS—Advanced front end and side styling of the new 1956 Ford is emphasized in this view of the Sunliner convertible, one of 17 new body styles which Ford dealers will place on display next Friday, September 23. The grille has been widened and lengthened, and parking lamps have been worked into chrome housings which extend around the sides of the fenders. A new-style hood ornament is recessed above the special Fairlane Ford crest. On the fender is the new ornament indicating "Thunderbird power", which is standard in Fairlane models with the Y-8 engine.

Tagging Celebrant Is Family Tradition

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurrying home to celebrate his 14th wedding anniversary, Harry Gaber got a ticket for speeding. Gaber told the policeman it was his first ticket in 13 years, the other one having been given to him when he was hustling to celebrate his first wedding anniversary.

"And a funny thing," Gaber said, looking at his summons. "The officer who stopped me then was named Campbell, too."

"Yes," said Patrolman C. E. Campbell Jr., "that was my father."

TRUCK ON RAMPAGE

ADRIAN, Mich. (AP) — Kenneth Deermyer was ready to load a truck when he found it gone.

It had rolled out of the garage and traveled 200 feet across the street, jumped a curb, smashed a fence, tore up two trees, plunged over a bank and stopped, resting against a concrete abutment inches from the River Raisin.

NO BEER HERE

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — Officers caught two men in a house whose owner was out of town. The men told Magistrate O. L. Thompson they thought they were re-entering a beer parlor they had visited earlier in the evening.

Thompson was not impresed. The house was the residence of the Rev. Paul M. Pridgen, Baptist minister known as a dedicated prohibitionist.

Carol Greene To Reside In Canada

VANCOUVER (AP) — Carol Lucy Greene, daughter of novelist Graham Greene, is coming to British hopes to become a rancher somewhere in Western Canada.

Her visit will last a month during which she will look over ranch land in the Alberta foothills and in B.C.

"I chose Canada because it is a young country and I like the wide open spaces," she said.

Fears Cars, Rides Motorcycle At 80

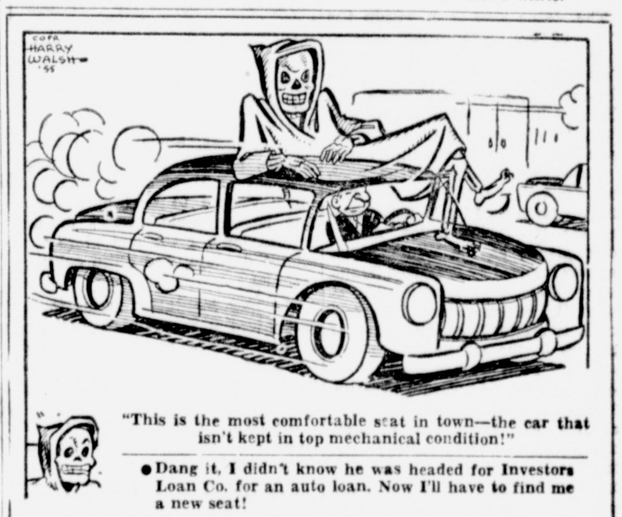

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — G. W. Wilkinson is 80 and wants no part of automobiles. "I don't feel safe," he says.

When he wants to get out, he rides his motorcycle — just as he has been doing for 53 years. The only accident he's had was when he was 77. A car hit him but he turned his wheel so he was only "knocked across the street."

"Only trouble was," he explained, "another car was coming the other way and knocked me against a fence, broke my nose, cracked three ribs and split my head open. But I got right back on my motor when I got out of the hospital."

TRUCK TURNS WHITE

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A collision shattered 12 gallons of bleach in Everett G. Lain's pickup truck. He was unhurt but the inside of the truck turned white.

"This is the most comfortable seat in town—the car that isn't kept in top mechanical condition!"

IMMIGRANTS TO BE HONORED AT NEWEST MUSEUM

By W. G. ROGERS
Associated Press Arts Editor

NEW YORK — What have they got that we haven't got?

That's what 35 million Europeans, from Scandinavia to the boot and toe of Italy, asked themselves as they looked longingly across the Atlantic toward the new Americans in the new United States.

In the course of a century, from 1815 to 1914, from the end of the Napoleonic wars to the start of World War I, those 35 millions sailed for this land.

New Museum

What they found, what they did with it, and what they added to it are going to be the material for a new museum to be built around the foot of the Statue of Liberty, lodestar of those millions.

The statue rises from within the walls of old Fort Wood, erected there on Bedloe's Island in New York Harbor in 1811. It's an 11-pointed fort, and the museum will be fitted into the ancient wall, and point to all corners of the globe from which the immigrants came.

When Bartholdi, the French sculptor, visited this country to discuss his proposed Liberty Enlightening the World, he called, among other places, at the White House and was received by President Grant. Today Grant's grandson, U. S. Grant III, major general USA (retired), is president of the Board of Trustees of the museum.

First Of Kind

There are historical societies. There have been temporary exhibits extolling the immigrant in this city, Cleveland and in other places. But this is planned to be the first institution of its kind to catch the immigrants when they dock, so to speak, and for that matter where they docked, since from 1865 on it is estimated that more than two-thirds of them went through this city.

Pierre S. du Pont III is chairman of the executive committee, and the vice presidents are Charles W. Engelhard, Spyros P. Skouras and Edawrd Corsi. President Eisenhower and Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay have indorsed the project. Half a million dollars financing is pledged already, and in January there will be a drive for five million.

The National Park Service will administer the project. It has its own museum department, and several of its own museums, and has named a historian for this work, Dr. Thomas M. Pitkin.

Basic Story

The emphasis, Dr. Pitkin says, will be on "the contributions of different national and racial groups to our national development.

"All who mace and stayed, beginning with the Indians, will be considered immigrants. The basic story will be told in a series of chronological exhibits grouped around the base of the Statue of Liberty. The largest space will be devoted to the period 1815—1914."

Since planning is in an early stage—the museum with its probable 50,000 feet of floor space may not be ready for more than two years—no specific subjects for exhibitions have been approved. The sort of thing possible, Dr. Pitkins suggests as an example, would be the imported technical skills which helped found the textile industry in New England, and gave a start to the iron and steel business. Some of the technicians, he says, had to be smuggled out of their native countries which wanted to hold onto them. The shows would consist of dioramas, texts, black and white and colored displays, and allied cultural material.

The new institution seems to be guaranteed a ready-made audience in the visitors to the Statue of Libery, of whom last year alone there were 800,000.

LIVELY TEMPO BRINGS BANJO ON COMEBACK

CHICAGO (AP) — Jose Silva, known to music pros as Mr. Banjo, says the present enthusaism for the banjo signals a happy change to the tempo of the roaring twenties.

Silva, 50, was 21 when he took up the banjo. He's been playing it ever since. Although the banjo was reduced to a novelty instrument Silva played along with its ups and downs.

"I never let it go," he said. "I kept up the tradition. I can play any fretted instrument, but, whenever I'd try another, folks would say, 'play the banjo, Jose.'"

Silva credits the younger generation and the Ames Brothers, with their "Man With a Banjo" recording, with bringing the banjo back to popularity.

"We are in an era when the younger generation wants to hear a lively tempo," he said.

Born at Funchal, Madeira Islands, off the coast of Portugal, Silva came to the United States with his parents when he was four years old.

Sailed In Windjammer

"We sailed in an old windjammer around the Cape of Good Hope, to the Hawaiian Islands and then to California. It took us 60 days to make the trip. I'm glad I can't remember it," he said.

Silva now lives in Siren, Wis. At the convention of the National Association of Music Merchants in Chicago he revealed plans to teach the banjo in high schools throughout Wisconsin for its Bureau of Concerts.

Beginning in the fall, he will visit 410 high schools where he will present 30-minute lectures and banjo concerts. Next year he will do the same in Minnesota's high schools.

"That means I will give from 12 to 15 banjo concerts a week," he said happily.

Design For Shirt Causes TB Scare

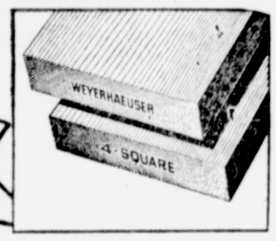

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Tony Pizzo, unofficial goodwill ambassador for Ybor City, Tampa's Latin Quarter, wasn't his usual gay self at a banquet for visiting Cubans. He explained he had just received the result from the mass X-rays conducted by the tuberculosis association. He was advised to have a thorough medical examination.

The next day Tony was all smiles when he showed up to bid the visiting delegation goodby.

When X-rayed, he wore a shirt with an elaborate design in metallic threads. The metal showed up on the plate as a large dark mass in the chest area, but his lungs were perfect.

Fold stemmed seedless grapes into sweetened whipped cream; top with freshly grated nutmeg and serve for a light and delicious dessert. Commercially-prepared sour cream may be used instead of the sweet whipped cream.
